

Items of Public Interest Aired on KDPM-FM

Weds., Oct. 28: Marshall City Manager Mark Rohr on progress of the city's initiatives

Weds., Oct. 28: Tim Huff to promote an Alzheimers' Disease fundraising walk

Thurs., Oct. 29: Misti Scott from Mission Marshall to promote distribution of food for the needy

Tues., Nov. 3: Brian Brooks from Texas Tech-Jefferson to talk about their programs and services

Fri., Nov. 6: Coach Kyle Little from Harleton H.S. promoted his high school football program

Tues., Nov. 10: Coach Whitney Keeling promoted the Waskom high school football program

Mon. 11/9-Weds. 11/11: Several announcements were aired that promoted the Veterans Day Procession of Patriotic vehicles in downtown Marshall

Fri. 11/13: Doug Smith from Blue Line Safety Solutions promoted an event that's raising money for police safety equipment

Mon. 11/16: Tim Huff discussed "Gobble Up the Cash," a fundraising event that provides toys for deserving kids for Christmas

Tues. 11/17: Brian Brooks discussed a free open house for a Texas Tech learning center

Thurs. 11/19: Rachel Chapman from the City of Marshall discussed the Wonderland of Lights

Thurs. 11/19: Glenn Barnhart, the City of Marshall's Performance Center Manager discussed the 2021 season and the delays caused by the pandemic

Nov. 23-Dec. 31: Extensively promoted the City of Marshall's "Wonderland of Lights"

Nov. 23-Dec. 14: Extensively promoted the City of Jefferson's Holiday Tour of Homes event

Mon. 11/23: Marshall Police Chief Cliff Carruth discussed crime and other topics on the morning show

Tues. 11/24: Extensively promoted a free food holiday giveaway at Denny's

Mon. 11/30: Louriseal McDonald appeared on the station to promote a holiday food drive for those in need which kicked off extensive promotion of the event which ran through 12/22.

Tues. 12/1: Harleton School principal discussed some events/concerns about their schools

Weds. 12/2: Marshall City Manager Mark Rohr appeared to discuss downtown re-development

12/7-12/22: Extensively promoted the City of Marshall's Pet Adoption program

11/30-12/22: Extensively promoted the Harrison County-wide "Empty Stockings" toy drive which collected toys for disadvantaged families in Harrison County

Mon. 12/14: Interviewed a representative from the non-profit American Hunters Association about their "Deer Creek with Santa" event

Thurs. 12/17: Hallsville Mayor Jessie Casey discussed events and concerns of his community