

ITEMS OF PUBLIC INTEREST AIRED ON KDPM-FM (Q1 2022)

As part of KDPM's regular programming schedule from 6a-7p the station airs announcements, updates and interviews regarding a myriad of items in the public interest. It should be noted that these announcements are not relegated to only 30 minutes of "public interest programming" per week but are integrated as part of the station's day-to-day programming with each of the announcements airing a minimum of three to four times a day and sometimes more. The following is a list of some, but not limited to, the topics and events that aired during the second quarter of 2022:

During each broadcast of Hallsville ISD sports between April 1 and June 30 and the station's coverage of 20 total boys basketball, girls basketball, boys baseball and girls softball games the station aired two five-minute interviews featuring one of the school's administrators and one of the school's selected leading students.

April 1-June 30: Announcements promoting a Pasture Party performance where the proceeds will benefit Hannah House, a maternity home for low-income or troubled pregnancies

April 1-April 15: Announcements promoting Stories & Songs, a fundraising event for the Dream Center of Longview which provides needed goods and services for low income citizens

April 1-April 8: Announcements promoting the Longview Rodeo which raises money for various non-profit organizations in the Longview, Texas area

April 1: Live interview with a representative of the "Ride for Lizzie," a fundraising event for a little girl with various medical issues

April 4-April 23: Announcements promoting the "Taste of the Piney Woods," a festival in Avinger, Tx raising money for various non-profit organizations. Our coverage culminated with a six-hour remote broadcast from the event on April 23.

Every Tuesday from April 5-June 28: A weekly Covid-19 update from the Harrison County Judge that tracks news about the virus

April 5: Interview with representatives of the St. Mark's United Methodist Church promoting a fund-raising pancake supper

April 7: Chamber Check In: a live interview with representatives of the Marshall Chamber of Commerce promoting their upcoming events

April 8: Interview with representatives of the Texas A&M Aggie Muster, a fundraising event for scholarships to Texas A&M

April 12: Interview with a representative of the Longview Dream Center (see above)

April 14: Interview with representative of the Cypress Basin Texas Master Naturalists organization

April 18: Interview with representative of the non-profit Michelson Art Gallery promoting an upcoming fundraiser

April 19: Interview with a representative of the Marion County Chamber of Commerce promoting various events during their Jefferson Pilgrimage weekend

April 19-May 22: Announcements promoting Marshall's Stagecoach Days, a three-day festival raising money for various non-profit organizations in the Harrison County area

April 22: Interview with a representative of the Starr Family Home, a non-profit organization run by the State of Texas

April 26: Interview with Marshall Police Chief Cliff Carruth on crime suppression efforts

April 27: Interview with a representative of Mission Marshall promoting a food drive for the community food bank

May 3: Interview with a representative of the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce promoting a free local job fair

May 4: Chamber Check In (see above)

May 5: Interview with Marshall Police Chief Cliff Carruth on crime suppression efforts

May 9: Interview with representatives of Stagecoach Days (see earlier)

May 9: Interview with representative of the Texas A&M Extension office about the services they offer

May 9-May 14: Announcements promotion the Marshall Symphony Orchestra's Voices 3.0 fundraising event

May 11: Interview with representative of the Marshall Symphony Orchestra re: Voices 3.0

May 13: Interview with representative of Stagecoach Days (see above)

May 16-June 30: Announcements promoting a fan drive sponsored by the Marshall Chamber of Commerce that solicits the donation of fans to be distributed to area senior citizens

May 17: Interview with the mayor of Hallsville to promote an upcoming community festival

May 17: Announcements promoting the City of Hallsville Community Music Festival

May 23-May 28: Announcements promoting the opening of the non-profit community Farmers Market

May 31-June 10: Announcements promoting a car show to benefit the East Texas Performing Arts non-profit organization

June 1: Chamber Check In interview (see above)

June 2: Interview with representative of the Marshall City Hall Theater to promote season tickets going on sale for the non-profit organization

June 7: Interview with a representative from Adopt-a-Cop which raises money to help peace officers buy equipment they need

June 10: Interview with Marion County Judge Leward Lafleur regarding issues in Marsion County

June 13-June 30: Announcements promoting the production of The Diary of Anne Frank produced by the East Texas Performing Arts Organization

June 1-June 19: Announcements promoting Boogie on the Bricks...a non-profit event in support of the community's Juneteenth celebration

June 15-June 30: Announcement promoting the sale of season tickets for the upcoming Memorial City Hall Performance Series

June 20-June 30: Announcement promoting various communities' fireworks celebrations and activities

June 20: Interview with a representative of J-Starr Ministries regarding a backpack drive and school supplies for the Uvalde, Texas school system

June 23-June 30: Announcements promoting the non-profit Marshall Regional Arts Council's Third Saturday event