DATE	TIME	SHOW #	TOPICS
7/6/2023	30:00	1772	On this week's 51%, we discuss the importance of postpartum care for new mothers. We take a look at a New York Times piece highlighting the struggles of postpartum depression, and we also stop by a rally in Troy, New York, protesting the proposed closure of Rensselaer County's only maternity ward.
7/13/2023	30:00	1773	This week's 51% is all about healthy living. We sit down with Juna Gjata and Harvard Medical School's Dr. Edward Phillips, cohosts of the podcast "Food, We Need to Talk."
7/20/2023	30:00	1774	On this week's 51%, we sit down with Dr. Heather Hirsch, founder of the Menopause and Midlife Clinic at Brigham and Women's Hospital, to learn how we can meet menopause symptoms head-on.
7/27/2023	30:00	1775	As the overall U.S. population increases in age, understanding aging is more important than ever. On this week's 51%, we speak with Dr. Rosanne Leipzig, a distinguished geriatrics specialist and author of "Honest Aging: An Insider's Guide to the Second Half of Life."
8/3/2023	30:00	1776	On this week's 51%, we speak with attorney Renee Bauer about why she wants to change the narrative around rejection and divorce – and how preparing for the worst can actually contribute to a long-lasting marriage.
8/10/2023	30:00	1777	On this week's 51%, we hear from actress Terrease Aiken about how Hollywood's stalled SAG-AFTRA strike is impacting journeyman actors, and we learn about a new independent short film starring ballerina Misty Copeland.
8/17/2023	30:00	1778	On this week's 51%, we speak with investment strategist and coach Ange Matthews, founder of the crash-course "Happy Investor Method," to learn how women can work toward financial independence while supporting the causes and companies they're passionate about.
8/24/2023	30:00	1779	On this week's 51%, we recognize National Breastfeeding Month, and stop by a webinar discussing the different types of genetic testing used to evaluate breast cancer risk and treatment options. We also speak with Leslie Lehr, author of A Boob's Life, about America's obsession with breasts — and what that often means for women and girls.
8/31/2023	30:00	1780	On this week's 51%, our Associate Producer, Jody Cowan, speaks with physician and author Dr. Gail Gazelle about how healthcare workers can use mindfulness to combat burnout – and steady their own life in the wake of a stressed healthcare system.
9/7/2023	30:00	1781	On this week's 51%, we recognize International Overdose Awareness Day, and hear from women who have battled drug addiction and walked the complicated road to recovery.
9/14/2023	30:00	1782	On this week's 51%, we bring you an interview with lawyer Jane Spinak on her book The End of Family Court. Spinak makes the radical case that the U.S. family court system is too broken to fix, and that abolishing it might bring better justice to families and children.
9/21/2023	30:00	1783	On this week's 51%, we speak with science journalist and Brave the Wild River author Melissa Sevigny about the two women who risked their lives to botanize the Grand Canyon in the 1930s.
