

Description of issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Heating help for Northeast Missouri residents	IL/MO Talk	1/5/20	6am	4:20	Brent Engel with the Northeast Community Action Corporation (NECAC) talks about the funds they have available to help Northeast Missouri residents pay for their heating bills this winter.
Educating Northeast Missourians about the effects of poverty	IL/MO Talk	1/12/20	6am	4:45	Brent Engel with the Northeast Community Action Corporation (NECAC) talks about two different education programs they offer, to teach residents what the effects of poverty are.
Fighting violent crime in Western Illinois.	IL/MO Talk	1/19/20	6am	5:00	U.S. Attorney for the Central District of Illinois John Milhiser talks about how his office can help local authorities fight violent gun crime. U.S. Representative Darin LaHood talks about Federal resources available to help those efforts.
Budget transparency in the City of Quincy	IL/MO Talk	1/26/20	6am	5:00	Quincy City Treasurer Linda Moore talks with Mary Griffith about the city's plans to introduce a budget simulator tool on its' website, and a recent workshop on Public Finance and Balancing the City Budget.
Increasing participation in the 2020 Census	IL/MO Talk	2/2/20	6am	5:00	Quincy City Director of Development Chuck Bevelheimer and GREDF's Joi Austin talk about efforts to increase participation in the upcoming U.S. Census.

Description of issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Medical Marijuana, Revenue in Marion County	IL/MO Talk	2/9/20	6am	5:00	Marion County Presiding Commissioner David Lomax talks about the county's response to a new state law allowing medical marijuana sales, and the county's overall revenue picture.
Community support for a property tax increase for Quincy schools	IL/MO Talk	2/16/20	6am	5:00	Quincy Area Chamber of Commerce President LaTonya Brock speaks about the organization's decision-making process in deciding whether to support a 53-cent property tax increase for Quincy Public Schools. The issue is on the March 17 ballot.
Continued enrollment increases at John Wood Community College	IL/MO Talk	2/23/20	6am	5:00	JWCC President Mike Elbe explains how the College continues to increase its' enrollment, as other Community Colleges see theirs decline. Elbe also talks about attracting students from Missouri.
Fire Safety, and the readiness of the Quincy Fire Department	IL/MO Talk	3/1/20	6am	5:00	Deputy Chief Demond Dade gave tips to be safe during the winter, spoke about the importance of training for the Department, and commented on the QFD's water rescue capabilities.
Grant opportunities in Western IL and NE MO	IL/MO Talk	3/8/20	6am	5:00	Catherine Meckes with the Community Foundation talks about their grant program, which is taking applications through 6/1. Sharon Webster w/the Hannibal Free Clinic explains how grant money helps the Clinic function.

Description of issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Quincy Public Schools proposed increase in property taxes	IL/MO Talk	3/15/20	6am	5:00	Former Quincy Mayor C. David Nuessen talks about a proposed 53-cent increase in property taxes on the March 17 ballot.
The need for blood in the listening area due to shortages caused by COVID-19	IL/MO Talk	3/22/20	6am	5:00	Jim Whitfield with the Adams County Chapter of the American Red Cross talks about the need for blood, after shortages caused by COVID-19. He also explained the steps the Red Cross takes to protect donors and its' staff.
Resources to help people affected by the COVID-19 pandemic	IL/MO Talk	3/29/20	6am	5:00	Adam Duesterhaus with the Adams County Chapter of the United Way describes resources available to people affected economically by the COVID-19 pandemic, including food and a special fund.
	IL/MO Talk		6am	5:00
	IL/MO Talk		6am	5:00	