1/14/20 Ski Areas Hurt (5:00 p.m., 1:36)

At the Extreme ski shop in Avery County they can see from their parking lot what the problem is..... It's just been way too warm this year...

And melting at the slopes means their rental gear is still on the shelves.... winter jackets for sale still on the racks....very few customers lately

Basically springtime in January right now...

They are looking for a turnaround....and hope in time for the Martin Luther King weekend, very critical, yeah...

Local lodging and restaurants need a change in weather too... It's a big weekend... but the turnaround needs to start here.....

And officials at Sugar Mountain think it'll happen...

Some bitter cold temperatures could be here by the weekend. It's going to be very close. Snow making technology will kick in quickly when the temperatures get right... Once they get the snow guns going they can put a lot of snow down...in a hurry...in fact overnight they can transform this into basically a winter wonderland, they tell me... All the ski resorts are in the starting blocks for that....

And while they hope the days of melting snow and wet skiing will be behind them for awhile... These guys actually didn't mind it today....

We're from Florida to you give me a four foot strip and I'm going down it...

And who needs the perfect conditions crowds anyway they said...

They like this...There's no line and you have the whole place to yourselves...
That likely won't be the case this weekend if the cold weather arrives....
And folks in the tourism industry hope it will stick around a while...

2/28/20 CIAA (5:00 p.m., 2:57)

"As a child growing up in Greensboro myself, I visited Woolworth's with my parents many times." For Charlotte Hornets President Fred Whitfield, honoring the lasting footprints left by these four who altered American history in his Guilford County hometown runs deep.

"It is surreal to celebrate the history of the Greensboro Four."

Franklin McCain, David Richmond, Joseph McNeil, and Ezell Blair were the teenage students North Carolina A and T students who 60 years ago this month sat in at the downtown Greensboro Woolworth's until they were served.

"I remember asking my father what was the tipping point for you and the other three men?" Franklin McCain Junior clings to the cherished legacy of his late father and makes the point demonstrators of that era didn't have the benefit of social media to stay organized.

"They couldn't sit at home behind a computer and tweet out something and have one million followers, but yet they were able to get hundreds of thousands of people to follow them by word of mouth.

"On February 1, 1960 four NC A&T students."

During the final week of black history month 2020, the Charlotte Hornets recognized surviving family members of the pioneers, sent its players to visit this sit-in exhibit at the Levine of the New South, and hosted a forum showcasing the courage of these student foot soldiers.

Enlightening words came from former North Carolina Supreme Court Chief Justice Henry Frye.

"Everybody has something they can do to make a positive difference in their family...in their community. "This is a great celebration and it brings it back to life for me."

For Fred Whitfield it is more than a celebration, recognition of what the disenfranchised of that day carried out is a lesson for today's NBA players.

" For our players they are so young and they don't know anything about the history. It's a learning experience,"

It is more than a learning experience, such as endeavor from the Hornets front office boldly passes the torch from one generation to the next during a month that bears significant meaning.

3/31/20 Showmar's Grocery Delivery (11:00 p.m., 1:42)

Because of the coronavirus pandemic uptown Charlotte resembles a ghosttown at times...

And no workers means no foot traffic and no foot traffic means no business for Matthew and Zack Zitsos of Showmars....

Matthew Zitsos, Showmars Operator for Uptown Charlotte - "We've switched to to-go, online ordering and all curbside."

Like restaurants across Charlotte, the dining room is closed...the Zitsos brothers tell me they've had to temporarily let a lot of people go...

Matthew Zitsos, Operator for Uptown Charlotte - "I mean it's hurt for sure. It's hurt the restaurant industry all over the world."

Zack Zitsos, Operator for Uptown Charlotte - "We'll recover. As an industry, as a group, it's a big piece of the economy and we'll recover, but it's forced people to adapt when possible."

And that's exactly what they're trying to do now...

They too have seen the rush on grocery stores across the country in the wake of the coronavirus outbreak...and they think they might be able to help shoppers here in Charlotte by launching the new Showmars Grocery Essentials page...

Matthew - "It is a program where we're using our supply chain to kind of source the essential grocery items."

If you scroll through the page, you'll see items like chicken, salmon, milk, veggies...

But also household products like paper towels and gloves...

The site notes that a minimum $65 order is required and delivery is done afternoons Monday through Saturday...

Zack - "It was really important to us to find some way to be useful to the community."

And they say it's allowed them to bring back some of their employees who would otherwise be out of a job right now...

Zack - "I think people thought they were gonna be out for a long time to kind of get that surprise call, and I'm in, have them show up and then be part of the solution, it was really fun.">

2/17/20 Teen Takes Plea Deal after Atrium ER Assault (6:00pm, 3:58)

A 16-year-old boy who was violently assaulted by hospital security guards and then punched in the face by a sheriff's deputy with his hands cuffed behind his back took a plea deal in juvenile court Monday afternoon.

Hayden Long was taken to the emergency room at Atrium Health - Lincolnton early one morning in December. His mom, Jessica Long, feared her son was having a mental health emergency.

He was arrested and charged with multiple misdemeanors and one felony county of assault on a law enforcement officer.

Video shows Long - who had been bleeding from his mouth after the guards tackled him and sat on top of him - spit towards the sheriff's deputy as they sat him up.

Long pleaded guilty to one count of simple assault in juvenile court on Monday for spitting on the deputy. He also pleaded to one count of consuming alcohol by a minor under the age 19. Both charges are misdemeanors.

In court, Long's attorney, Brad Smith, said his client chose to take the plea deal offered by prosecutors over being tried as an adult on the felony assault charge. Lincoln County District Attorney Mike Miller was in court for Long's hearing on Monday but did not sit at the counsel table, left the courtroom before the hearing was over and did not come out of the courthouse in the two hours after court a WBTV crew waited to ask him questions.

It is not clear why Miller persisted in considering pursuing the felony assault charge. Nor is it clear whether Miller's office will call for an investigation into the use of force by the sheriff's deputy for punching Long in the face.

His departure came after Lincoln County Sheriff Bill Beam initially defended Polson in an interview with WBTV.

In court on Monday, Polson told a judge he had to be tested for diseases after being spit on by Long and the test results have not come back, more than two months later.

Polson also said he didn't think Long needed mental health treatment the night he was at the emergency room.

In court on Monday, Long told a judge he was on antidepressants and had taken his medication that day.

The detective said there are not a lot of surveillance images of the robbery from inside of the store.

"This suspect was being smart about this robbery. He made the victims do all the work so that he could stay out of the camera's view and out of the sight of the front doors to where any customers coming wouldn't see him," said Johnson. In the surveillance photos police do have, the man appears to be wearing a jacket with a black hood as well as an orange safety vest. Johnson thinks the man may have worn the vest for a reason.

"I'm not sure, but there is construction going on across the street and I think that suspect might have been trying to blend in with what the construction workers were wearing across the street," said Johnson.

The detective said that before the man left with the stolen money, he made the employees in the store tie each other up with zip ties.

"We can't connect him with any other crimes in the area, but I would just say how he handled this robbery would make me think he's done it before," noted Johnson.

Police are now trying to identify this robbery suspect.

Detectives from the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department are hoping that members of the public can help them identify two people responsible for robbing a Waffle House in the University City area.

Police say the incident happened Tuesday, March 17 around 4 a.m. They think three suspects are responsible for the crime.

"Three suspects entered the business. One of the suspects grabbed one of the employees and walked him over to the register," explained Detective Adrian Johnson from the CMPD Crime Stoppers.

He said the suspects were able to get cash from the register before attempting to leave the business. One of the suspects was unable to get away.

"The suspects then ran out of the business while one of the customers in the business was able to grab one of the suspects and detain him until the police arrived," explained Johnson.

mended that customers or employees try to stop a suspect who may be armed and dangerous.

"We wouldn't recommend it. It could've been a very deadly situation. Like I said, anytime a gun is in play, you don't want to intervene in that situation and put yourself in harm, but at the same time, the actions of these patrons were heroic," said Johnson.

The detective said a man by the name of Damarkus Williams was arrested and charged in connection to the robbery. Records from the Mecklenburg County Detention Center show that Williams has already bonded out of jail.

Police are still looking to identify the other two men responsible for the robbery. Surveillance images show the faces of the two men.

"The pictures and the video will play a great part in discovering the identity of the suspects and making the arrests," said Johnson.

Both of the wanted men are believed to be about six feet tall, according to police. Officers say one man was wearing a burgundy toboggan, black jeans, a white belt, and a dark jacket with thin a thin white stripe on the sleeves. They say the other man was wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt with black sweatpants and had a small blue, zip string bookbag. They say the man may have had dreads tucked away under the hoodie.

3/23/20 Top Watchdogs keep an eye out to help protect from price gouging for COVID scams (7:30 p.m., 2:09)

Both North Carolina Attorney General Josh Stein and US Attorney Andrew Murray, who covers charlotte as the US Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina, told WBTV about the work their offices are doing to crack down on people looking to take advantage of others during the pandemic.

"It's a priority of the Attorney General and it's a priority of this office," Murray said, referring to US Attorney General William Barr.

"We're looking to detect and prosecute anyone that's going to take advantage of this pandemic and take advantage of vulnerable individuals," Murray continued.

Murray said that his office had not yet had to investigate a specific case in its jurisdiction. Any concerned member of the public can report a possible scam to the National Center for Disaster Fraud (NCDF) hotline (1-866-720-5721) or e-mail NCDF at disaster@leo.gov.

Meanwhile, North Carolina Attorney General Josh Stein said his office was also prepared to investigate scams but urged the public to be vigilant to keep from falling victim.

"Just be very skeptical," Stein said. "There are no cures. There are no vaccines. And, so these snake oil salesmen pitching some miracle cure, they're full of it and they're trying to steal your money."

But Stein said his office had already received 345 complaints of price gouging from across the state. Half of those complaints, Steins aid, dealt with groceries with the remaining complaints dealing with cleaning products and hand sanitizers.

You can report price gouging on the NC Department of Justice website.

"If the company, if the seller, cannot justify their new price and it's outrageously excessive, we will enforce the law against them," Stein said.

So far, he said, his office had not taken action to shut down a seller found to have been price gouging but his office was investigating several credible reports.

"The message to consumers is always to take care," Stein said. "If you see a retailer charging an outrageously excessive price, let my office know. We'll investigate if it's price gouging and if it is, we will aggressively enforce the law."

Murray said his office would work with multiple federal law enforcement agencies to investigate possible complaints.

"We're doing everything we can," Murray said. "We're remaining vigilant to make sure we can protect the public from these monsters, quite frankly, that will prey upon the innocent."

3/30/20 FBI help local authorities and found "Bad Wig Bandit" (5:00 p.m., 2:28)

The FBI has announced the arrest of the "Bad Wig Bandit," an accused thief who was involved in multiple bank robberies in the Charlotte-area while wearing several different wigs.

The FBI says the man is in custody in Columbus, Georgia, in connection to four bank robberies in North Carolina and one store robbery in Charlotte.

Officials say 30-year-old Patrick Alexander was taken into custody at Fort Benning, Georgia, on Monday when he attempted to enter the installation. When Military Police ran his identification, which is standard procedure to enter a military installation, an active robbery warrant was discovered.

Alexander is currently facing one count of robbery with a dangerous weapon related to the Charlotte convenience store robbery and one count of common law robbery for the Huntersville bank robbery.

He is currently being held at the Muscogee County Jail in Columbus, Georgia.

The FBI first gave Alexander the name "Bad Wig Bandit" after he was suspected to have robbed three banks in the Charlotte Metro area within three weeks. In each robbery, the suspect wore a different wig. He was described as a black male with a medium build, believed to be in his 20s or 30s.

The FBI says the "Bad Wig Bandit" has robbed a fourth bank in North Carolina, and is now suspected in cases in Huntersville, Hendersonville, Gastonia and Belmont. (Source: Provided by FBI)

Alexander is a suspect in the following robberies in North Carolina;

- December 13, 2019- BB&T Bank 16710 Northcross Drive, Huntersville;
- January 7, 2020- New Horizon Bank 6440 Wilkinson Boulevard, Belmont;
- January 7, 2020- Wells Fargo 403 Cox Road, Gastonia;
- January 16, 2020- BB&T Bank 100 Dana Road, Hendersonville; and
- January 23, 2020- Circle K 100 Red Roof Road, Charlotte.

The FBI, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department, the Huntersville Police Department, the Belmont Police Department, the Gastonia Police Department, and the Hendersonville Police Department are continuing to investigate.

In January, the FBI said that Alexander, named by investigators as the "Bad Wig Bandit" had robbed a fourth bank in North Carolina.

This robbery happened Thursday, Jan. 16, at a BB&T Bank on Dana Road in Hendersonville. A black male, approximately 5'4", wearing a shoulder-length black wig and black puffy jacket went into the bank and handed the teller a note demanding money. The suspect retrieved the note and an undisclosed amount of money, walked out of the front of the building, and left in an unknown direction. On Friday, Dec. 13, 2019, an unknown suspect robbed the BB&T Bank located on Northcross Drive in Huntersville. The suspect received an undisclosed amount of money and left the bank in an unknown direction.

On Jan. 7, 2020, the FBI says the same suspect robbed the New Horizon Bank on Wilkinson Boulevard in Belmont. Nearly five hours later, the FBI says the same suspect robbed the Wells Fargo on Cox Road in Gastonia.

If you have any information concerning this case, please contact your local FBI Office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate. You can also submit a tip at: tips.fbi.gov.

The FBI is assisting the Huntersville Police Department, the Gastonia Police Department, Belmont Police Department and the Hendersonville Police Department in the investigation.

3/31/20 Crime Stoppers: Police search for man who robbed East CLT convenience store (11:00 p.m., 1:44)

Detectives from the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department are searching for the man responsible for robbing an east Charlotte convenience store.

Surveillance video shows an armed man walk into the store and begin demanding money from the store clerk. The suspect is bundled up and wearing gloves.

"Anything could have happened with that gun in that suspect's hand and any sudden move the victim would have made, it could have been deadly," explained Detective Adrian Johnson with the CMPD Crime Stoppers.

The surveillance footage from the business shows the man point a gun at the clerk as the clerk works to get one of the registers open.

"He wanted the money. He knew what he was there for and he was gonna get it," said Johnson.

The detective said the man was able get hundreds of dollars from both of the store cash registers. The surveillance video then shows the man leave the business.

Johnson said it is not uncommon to see crime in this section of east Charlotte.

"With the amount of people that's in this area and the amount of traffic as well as foot traffic, this area does see more criminal activity than other areas," said Johnson.

While the suspect was bundled up during the robbery, his eyes were still visible.

The detective is hoping someone will recognize the man from the surveillance images and help police identify him.

"We've had less and were able to get tips that led to arrests for individuals covered up more than he was," said Johnson.

He said the suspect is believed to be anywhere between 5'8" and 5'10" and could possibly weigh 160 to 170 pounds.

Anyone with information about the incident is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 704-334-1600. Tipsters can remain anonymous and they can receive a cash reward if they have information that leads to an arrest.

1/6/20 Union County Trash (5:00 p.m., 1:35)

You don't have to go far on Olive Branch Road to see the efforts of people who live there, to keep the place clean.

Like Loretta Melancon.

"It's gotten better but there's still a problem."

I road along the area with her Monday.

"Look right here, Wink, and then there."

"I think we have picked up a total of about 14 tons in the last three years."

Three years of trying to encourage people on their way to the landfill nearby to make sure they're not letting go of their trash, too soon.

"I kept thinking, 'All I need to do is pick up once and it's going to look pretty, and then people will want to keep it that way.' Not!"

The county says it's tried emails...flyers...

Even charging double fees for people who show up to the landfill, with unsecured loads.

"Really, until you hit them hard in the pocketbooks, most people just aren't going to think about it."

But even that hasn't seemed to cut it – so he's calling in the state highway patrol to enforce things...

Which will now hit those pocketbooks, much harder.

"Basically, if you don't have it covered right, you could get a pretty hefty fine, for littering or an unsecured load."

While these residents also try to appeal to their neighbors, coming through.

1/9/20 US Army Vet PTSD Service Dog (7:00 p.m., 2:38)

Nick Johnson took a medical retirement from the Army almost two years ago. He suffered several concussions in combat. Doctors diagnosed him with a traumatic brain injury. Nick found the EMOTIONAL wounds from battle would not heal. It's anger, it's depression. It's hopelessness, I'm not going to say hopelessness but yeah there is hopelessness. you just don't think there's any help to it. you don't see a light at the end of the tunnel. That dread affected all aspects of his life. Until he was paired with his service dog Buddy.

It's a complete 180 I was very very negative just angry all the time zero to 100 in point one second one of my kids could do something and I would just wig out nothing to the point of physical i would have to leave the situation. and calm down. And find myself. And with Buddy there he knows. He'll lick my face climb on my paw at me. anything to try and get me out of that

That bond has given Nick the fighting chance he thinks all vets with PTSD deserve. And there's a move in Washington to make that happen. It's the PAWS Act. Puppies Assisting Wounded Servicemembers Act of 2019 was introduced in June. It would allocate 25 thousand dollars to vets like Nick, to be paired up with a service dog.

With veterans and other people that do need a service they are lifesavers. And you know the cost up front is a lot. But over the lifetime it's not going to cost them anything compared to the doctors that they hire.

When Nick started telling me about losing a friend last year in combat in Iraq, he was clearly upset. Buddy was in a "stay position" but whimpered sensing Nick's emotions were high.

MO: I notice Buddy is getting a little upset because he senses you're upset.

NICK: Yeah Mo; Is that right? Nick: It is.

Dogs work in mysterious ways he's a Godsend to me. He really is.

1/13/20 Clemson Watch Party (11:00 p.m., 1:01)

Clemson has quite a following in the Charlotte area, as evidenced by a recent watch-party. Everybody just comes together with a school spirit you'll never find anywhere else."

And as the game wore on, the excitement shot through the roof. "I don't think I could sit down if I wanted to I'll just be on my feet the entire time. It's too much to handle."

The game in the early goings was tit for tat. But the faithful never lost their resolve.

And if you don't think this is a religious experience – just as this pastor.

"I'm also an ordained minister. College football is, almost a religious experience."

1/23/20 Good News: Iredell Therapy Dogs (6:00 p.m., 1:52)

How can you tell if having therapy dogs at Pressly School in Statesville is successful? Ask the students...

"Jake's a good dog and he knows when someone needs help."

...or just look at Annie's tail.

(Billy Manners, Crisis Intervention)

"They and we are impacting lives at Pressly School..."

This program is in its third year. Jake, a 3-year-old yellow lab, and Annie, a one-year old new addition at Pressly, help students who may need something a little different.

(Mark Grega, Pressly Principal)

"This is a school for second chances, they have an opportunity to have a better life, to be more successful and these dogs show them unconditional love."

The dogs make the rounds visiting classrooms...and when a student is having trouble, they know they can count on Jake or Annie.

"He has helped me by when I'm angry I know I've been able to take a break and just sit down and breathe a little bit and pet him."

"Annie helps me when I'm mad, or sad, or when...I lie with her, play fetch with her...I even pet her. It's a best friend forever thing."

What is it about the interaction with a dog that can be so helpful?

"So often if a student is yelling maybe very loud because they've had a hard day or something happened, the verbiage that we use with them saying that really hurts Annie's ears when you yell that loud, can we try to take a break and step away, they relate to that better than with a human or an adult."

The students will eventually leave Pressly, but the impact made by working with these special dogs is likely to last...and the school staff is making sure they have a reminder of that relationship.

"When the kids leave they will get either a Jake or an Annie so that when they go back to their home school or to another school in another district, they'll always know they had that connection here...Jake and Annie will always be there for them."

1/23/20 Donation to Men's Shelter (5:00 p.m., :55)

This new project means they'll be able to give more homeless men the chance to get off the streets-- and have a more dignified experience at the shelter.

The goal is to have more space and more resources to help these people get out of the cycle of homelessness.

The new building will be alongside the current building on Statesville Avenue.

They'll be converting the current bunk room to look more like the newly renovated shelter on North Tryon Street-- meaning more spacious pods and private showers.

It will also feature a guest laundry services and a group room with a mobile computer lab to assist with employment opportunities.

A spokesperson for Honeywell says this is a way they can help tackle the cycle of homelessness in our city.

2/28/20 Mountain Snow (6:00 p.m., 1:34)

It's not a blizzard by any means, but snow was pouring down at times.... we've been waiting for it...

These folks are up from Charlotte....excited to see this....

Just this little bit is beautiful, I never want to move, ever...

She'll have company this weekend... weather like this does lure the people up....a steady stream all day....

Main Roads are good for now...but might not be later on tonight....

Anyone on the road in this needs to be prepared, say authorities...bring some blankets and other supplies...

A little snow shovel wouldn't hurt and something to spread some ice melt too... and number one...the thing you've got to have is a cell mphone that's fully charged...just in case...

Ski areas expect a lot of business.....and local shops too.....they're glad to see winter being winter again.... hats and gloves and coats are finally being scooped up. Things that we were having a hard time selling...

Many are hoping this is not the last gasp of winter for this year.....

They are still waiting for that big snowfall.....and even with spring looming... there's still plenty of time for that to happen...

3/1/20 South Charlotte Tornado Follow-Up (6:00 p.m., 2:05)

Tornadoes in our region of North and South Carolina typically aren't as powerful as those tornadoes we hear about out west in tornado alley.

Stand-up at Radar Site North Charlotte

But that doesn't mean they aren't dangerous.

Smaller, weaker tornadoes are still tornadoes, but around here they tend to fly below the radar...literally!

But the difficulty detecting these tornadoes with Doppler Radar is only part of the challenge. Unlike the bigger tornadoes out west which are generally easier for people to see, Carolina tornadoes are often wrapped in rain and nearly impossible to see.

Meaning... you are much more likely to be ambushed by a tornado around here with very little warning – and THAT'S what makes our situation so dangerous.

Thankfully, that wasn't the problem earlier this month on February 6th when WBTV's First Alert meteorologists were alerting viewers about these tornadoes – specifically, the EF1 Tornado that plowed right through these Pineville neighborhoods with winds close to 100mph.

It's the latest example of these so-called "weak tornadoes" wreaking havoc in our communities.

But don't tell John and Mary Doe this was a weak anything as they lived through the terrifying moments of seeing and hearing trees snapping, cracking and crashing down all around their home...

They talked to me earlier about the tornado warning they received on their weather app!

3/7/20 Good News: Random Acts of Kindness (5:00 p.m., :47)

Lauri Golden - Manager of Customer Engagement / Charlotte Douglas International Airport, "Something we always hope for is that people think of one another. But it's also the opportunity to think of someone else, whether they're walking through the terminal with you, or sitting on the plane next to you.... so we hope that people feel inspired to think of somebody else today." Golden, saw plenty of smiles after writing messages of kindness that helped "Share the Love." This is the second year Charlotte Douglas has hosted this "Share the Love" event.

3/23/20 Boards for Dream Home (5:00 p.m., 1:04)

This is a really great opportunity as we move forward with construction on the St. Jude Dream Home.

Newton Custom Homes is allowing people to buy two by fours and write messages on the wood which will be used to build that home.

Today-- we stopped by Contractor's Building Supply in Monroe where people were showing up to take part. Each board costs just $10.

Families are writing their names or inspirational words and prayers on those boards. All the money raised from the Dream Home Giveaway goes to help St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to help kids who are fighting for their lives.

60 MINUTES

- 01/05/20 “Inside Jeffrey Epstein’s Cell” – a report on the controversy surrounding wealthy financier Jeffrey Epstein’s death. Epstein, a convicted sex offender accused of assaulting innumerable teenage girls, was found dead weeks after his arrest. Though the death has been ruled a suicide, many question the circumstances surrounding the incident. Includes unseen photos of the cell. Includes interviews with Dr. Michael Baden, the forensic pathologist investigating Epstein’s death; Bruce Barket, lawyer for Epstein’s first cellmate; Cameron Lindsay, a former federal prison warden; and Tyrone Covington, president of the union representing the prison guards. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Oriana Zill de Granados)
- “On the Farm” – a report on the prevalence of antibiotic use on farm animals and its impact. More than 12 million pounds of antibiotics sold in the U.S. are used for livestock. Many feel these antibiotics drive the spread of drug resistant bacteria in animals which can be passed onto us through food. Due to a lack of accessibility, however, scientists say it is difficult to stop infection outbreaks from spreading amidst already unregulated conditions. Includes interviews with Dr. Scott Lindquist, epidemiologist; Dr. Liz Wagstrom, chief veterinarian; and Dr. Lance Price, microbiologist and leading expert in drug-resistant bacteria. (See also: “Superbugs”, OAD: 04/21/19) (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Sarah Koch)
- “Shakira” – a profile of Shakira, the award-winning Colombian singer. With a multifaceted successful career, the artist details the difficulties of finding balance while striving for perfection. A philanthropist, she feels her music career is a vehicle which allows her to work as an advocate for early childhood education. Now preparing for the Super Bowl LIV halftime show, Shakira remains one of the best-selling music artists. Includes an interview with Gerard Pique, famed soccer player and Shakira’s husband. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)
- 01/12/20 “Venice is Drowning” – a report on Venice, the northeastern Italian city made up of a group of 118 small islands separated by canals and surrounded by water. Due to unprecedented rising sea levels caused by climate change, flooding in Venice has become worse and more frequent; climate scientists warn this should be a global example. This last November, record breaking tides and dangerous winds caused much destruction in the city. Venetians worry their homes and cultural landmarks face increasing risk due to this manmade climate change. Includes interviews with Toto Bergamo Rossi, who is known as the unofficial mayor of Venice; Luigi Brugnaro, mayor of Venice; Pierpaolo Campostrini, who helps manage the Basilica of St. Mark; Fortunato Ortombina, artistic director of La Fenice theater; Michael Oppenheimer, a professor of geosciences at Princeton University; Alessandro Soru, lead engineer of project Moses; and Shaul Bassi, a professor of English literature at Venice’s Ca’Foscari University. 48 HOURS (continued)

48 HOURS: “Death by Text” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the death of Conrad Roy III and the case against Michelle Carter, who is scheduled to be released from jail next week. Prosecutors say she influenced Roy, via text messages, to kill himself. On July 12, 2014, Conrad Roy died of carbon monoxide poisoning after sitting in his truck with a gas-powered water pump running in the backseat. Prosecutors say Roy was driven to kill himself through hundreds of incessant messages from Carter, who was more than 30 minutes away at the time he died. Carter was later charged with involuntary manslaughter. Her defense team maintains Roy decided to kill himself on his own. As seen through his own videos, Conrad Roy talked about his own struggles with social anxiety, depression and thoughts of suicide. His mother Lynn Roy, also talks about the death of her son and the pain she lives with. Though they lived an hour apart in Massachusetts, the couple communicated almost exclusively via texts, online and by phone. The prosecution maintained Carter could have done something to stop Roy. The heart of the case is the question of whether Carter’s texts and messages pushed Roy to take his life, or would he have done it anyway. Prosecutors argued Carter played on Roy’s mental health and her actions were reckless; she knew what she was doing and just wanted attention. The defense maintains Carter had her own psychological problems and was involuntarily intoxicated by the antidepressant drug Celexa: she was enmeshed in the delusion that it was a good thing to help him die. The prosecution hoped the judge paid attention to the text Carter sent to her friend a week after his death, in which she admitted she could possibly go to jail. After three days of deliberation, the judge rendered his verdict, completely rejecting Carter’s defense and finding her guilty. At sentencing, Michelle Carter could receive twenty years behind bars. The Roy family knows words have power, and they can forever change lives. UPDATE for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Nearly seven weeks after being convicted, Michelle Carter, arrives for sentencing. The prosecution asked that Carter serve 7-12 years in prison. Her attorney requests probation. Judge Lawrence Moniz sentences Michelle Carter to fifteen months behind bars – a sentence that does not please the defense, who will appeal the conviction. Her attorneys request to stay the jail sentence. The judge grants the stay, meaning Michelle will be out on probation until the appeal makes its way through the Massachusetts court system. Neither Michelle nor her family, have reached out to the Roy family. UPDATE for the 01/18/20 updated rebroadcast: In February of 2019, Michelle Carter’s conviction was upheld and she began serving her 15-month sentence. Her lawyers appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court. This week, the court declined to hear her appeal. Lynn Roy’s focus now is on changing laws. On-screen text graphic for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2 million wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. The goal is to establish a memorial for Conrad. On-screen text graphic for the 09/22/18 rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2-million-dollar wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. On-screen text graphic for the 01/18/20 updated rebroadcast: Conrad’s Law, criminalizing suicide coercion, has been introduced in the Massachusetts legislature. Interviewed: Lynn Roy, Conrad’s mother; Camdyn and Morgan Roy, Conrad’s sisters; Aryanna Taylor, friend of Conrad Roy; Ed McFarland, Michelle Carter’s softball coach; Bob McGovern, legal columnist, Boston Herald; and Harold Koplewicz, child and adolescent psychiatrist. 48 HOURS (continued)

01/18/20 48 HOURS: “Chacey Poynter: Witness to Murder” (10:00 – 11:00p) – In September 2016, University Park Fire Department Captain Robert Poynter was shot and killed while sitting in his wife Chacey Poynter’s Jeep on a deserted county road in Royse City, Texas. Chacey told police she called her husband for help after her Jeep got stuck in the mud and when Robert got in to help move her vehicle, he was shot by an unknown man. Investigators were skeptical of her story. When questioned by the police, Chacey admitted to multiple affairs and ongoing marital problems, including abuse. She eventually confessed to knowing the identity of the man who killed her husband -- Michael Garza, one of her lovers. Chacey claimed it was Michael who set the trap, so he could confront Robert and demand he leave her alone. On September 10, 2016, Chacey was arrested and charged with conspiracy to commit murder. Michael turned himself in and was charged with murder. The shotgun used to murder Robert belonged to Michael’s brother and was recovered by a farmer near where Robert was shot. Recovered digital evidence proved Chacey had groomed Michael. On July 10, 2018, Michael went on trial and testified that he believed Robert was abusing Chacey and implicated her as the shooter. On July 20th, Michael was found guilty and sentenced to 99-years in prison. At Chacey’s trial, prosecutors maintained she was the mastermind and her motive was to collect Robert’s life insurance policy; she was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison, with the possibility of parole in 30-years. On-screen text graphic: Robert Poynter’s life insurance benefits were split among his three daughters. Chacey’s mother and stepfather share custody of the couple’s daughter with Robert Poynter’s parents. Interviewed: Chacey Poynter, Robert’s wife and convicted murderer; Detective Michael Burk, Royse City Police Department; Sergeant Shane Meek, Royse City Police Department; Jason Salisbury, Paul Falkenhagen, Mark McAdams, and Earl Starnes, firefighters, University Park Fire Department and friends of Robert’s; Natalie and Nicole Poynter, Robert’s daughters; Amy Poynter, Robert’s ex-wife; Jeff Kovach, Assistant Hunt County District Attorney; Calvin Grogan, First Assistant District Attorney, Hunt County; Scott Cornuau and Frank Hughes, Chacey’s defense attorneys. 01/25/20 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Murder on Prom Night” – On Sunday, April 30, 1989, police responded to a crime scene at the Lakeville, Indiana home of the Pelley family. Reverend Bob Pelley was found in an upstairs hallway; wife Dawn and young daughters Janel and Jolene were in the basement -- all shot at close range with a shotgun. Nine-year-old Jessica Pelley – now known as Jessi Toronjo - returned from a sleepover at a friend’s house to the news that her mother, stepfather, and sisters were murdered. Police questioned Bob’s 17-year-old son Jeff and later learned Bob had grounded him over the prom; police believed they had a clear motive, but no forensic evidence to prosecute. Thirteen years after the crime, a new prosecutor believed there was enough evidence and Jeff was arrested and charged with four counts of murder. In 2006, he was found guilty and sentenced to a hundred and sixty years in prison. Jeff’s defense lawyer filed an appeal and his convictions were set aside on a number of procedural grounds. He remained in custody and in February 2009, the Indiana State Supreme Court upheld the conviction. Currently, Jeff’s new defense team is working on his release by filing a motion for post-conviction relief. Jessi changed her name and appearance as a way to cope with the tragedy. After she tried to kill herself, Jessi was diagnosed with DID, dissociative identity disorder. On April 29, 2019 -- the thirty year anniversary of the murders -- I am Jessica was published. On-screen text graphic: The Indiana University McKinney Wrongful Conviction Clinic is representing Jeff Pelley. Interviewed: Jessi Toronjo, survivor; Stephanie Fagan, Jessi’s childhood friend; Jamie Collins, Jessi’s cousin; Mark Sender, former Indiana State Police detective; John Botich, former St. Joseph County detective; Frank Schaffer, former chief deputy prosecutor; Alan Baum, Jeff Pelley’s defense attorney; and Dakota Toronjo, Jessi’s daughter. The Zimovs project aims to cool the permafrost by returning the land to its Ice Age appearance and reviving the extinct woolly mammoth using DNA. Interviewed: Sergey Zimov; Max Holmes, leading climate scientist and deputy director at the Woods Hole Research Center in Massachusetts; Nikita Zimov, Sergey's son; George Church, geneticist at Harvard University, who is assisting the Zimovs. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster) (OAD: 03/31/19; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/07/19)

With the rise of poor air quality in cities and an estimated one billion animals killed, the fires impact the entire country. Scientists blame climate change for the extended fire season, saying the environment has become increasingly hot and dry at an alarming rate. Includes interviews with Marilyn Mills, bush fire victim; Greg Mullins, a fire captain; Joelle Gergis, climate scientist at the Australian National University; and Malcolm Turnbull, former Australian prime minister. (C: Holly Williams – P: Draggan Mihailovich, Jacqueline Williams)

"The Server" – a report on President Trump's phone call to President Zelensky of Ukraine regarding a Democratic National Committee server, which ultimately led to his impeachment. After the 2016 election and Russian hack of DNC servers, U.S. intelligence agencies found the Russian government aided in Trump's win. When the DNC submitted a copy of the server data to the FBI, Trump attempted to discredit the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence's findings. Includes interviews with Ivo Van Hove, director; Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker, choreographer; Scott Rudin, producer; Shereen Pimentel, who plays Maria; and Isaac Powell, who plays Tony. Using civilian internet investigators, the authorities found the location from where the missile was shot: the Russian town of Kursk. After a complicated birth, Whitaker underwent eleven surgeries in an attempt to restore his eyesight with no success. 48 HOURS

48 HOURS: “The Death of Todd Stermer” – Linda Stermer, a Michigan woman accused of setting fire to her family home and murdering her husband, Todd Stermer, speaks out for the first time. On January 7, 2007, the Sterners’s house caught fire. Linda got out safely and went to the family’s van to get help. Todd made it out of the house but was horribly burned. After escaping the fire, Todd was run over by Linda. Though Linda maintains it was an accident, investigators were suspicious of her account. After the death of Todd Stermer, allegations of domestic abuse, battles over money, and accusations Linda was having an affair surfaced. In June 2009, Linda was charged with arson and murder. On January 5, 2010, Linda went on trial and maintained she doesn’t know how the fire started, and the running over of her husband was an accident. Prosecutors built their case on circumstantial evidence focusing on Linda’s actions before and after the fire. Her sons testified that on the day of the murder she pushed them out of the house and believe she drugged their father. A former friend of Linda’s testified she was having an affair with a co-worker. Linda was convicted of arson and murder and sentenced to life without parole. After serving 5 years, her appeal was denied in the Michigan Supreme Court. In 2016, her new attorney submitted her amended petition to the Federal Courts, blaming her conviction on her trial attorney’s decision to not hire a fire expert. In 2018, a Federal Judge Tarnow held Linda’s evidentiary hearing and two months later issued his ruling; after serving almost nine years in prison, Linda was released and her conviction overturned. The Michigan State Attorney General is appealing the Federal Court decision. Linda attended her hearing on December 3, 2019 and is currently awaiting the Federal Court’s decision. On-screen text graphic: FORTY-EIGHT HOURS will bring you the Federal Court’s decision as soon as it’s handed down. Interviewed: Linda Stermer, wife and convicted murder of Todd Stermer; Trevor and Trenton Stermer, Todd and Linda’s sons; Cory Pierce, Linda’s nephew; Brittany and Ashley Gibson, Linda’s daughters; Marti Bakhuyzen, Linda’s mom; Jeffrey Getting, Linda’s trial attorney; Stephen Berry, Kate Fox’s brother; Robert Trenkle, fire investigator; Wolfgang Mueller, Linda’s attorney. - 02/08/20 48 HOURS: “Karrie’s Choice” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a report on the death of Michele Neurauter – a parent in the midst of a bitter custody battle who was possibly killed by her daughter. In 2017, Michele Neurauter was found hanging in her home in Corning, New York in what appeared to be a suicide. Police were troubled because a rope mark was found on her chin. Michele’s mother, Jeanne Laundry, pointed the finger at Michele’s ex-husband, Lloyd Neurauter, though he was in California at the time. Police later learned he stopped less than 100 miles away from the crime scene before he flew to California, after helping his daughter Karrie move into an apartment in Rochester, NY. Police began listening in to their conversations, which led to the father and daughter being charged with murder months later. Michele had accused Lloyd of trying to turn Karrie against her. Police believed Karrie was manipulated and brainwashed. Karrie pleaded guilty to second-degree murder charges. Weeks before the trial, Lloyd pled guilty and was sentenced to life without parole. The District Attorney had Karrie’s charges reduced to second-degree manslaughter and she was sentenced to 1-3 years in prison. On-screen text graphic: Shortly after her sentencing in December 2018, Karrie Neurauter went before the parole board. Her parole application was denied. - 02/08/20 48 HOURS: “The Case Against Ezra McCandless” (10:00- 11:00p) – an investigation into the 2018 death of Alex Woodworth. On March 22, 2018, Ezra McCandless appeared at the home of dairy farmer Don Sipple, near Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Ezra claimed she was a victim of assault and Sipple called 911. Ezra’s details were hazy at first, but eventually named ex-boyfriend Alex Woodworth as her attacker. Police discovered Woodworth’s body on a deserted road near the dairy farm. Ezra told investigators Alex carved the word “boy” into her arm and then attacked her. The evidence did not match Ezra’s account. Ezra was arrested and charged with first-degree intentional homicide. At the trial, Ezra took the stand in her own defense and tried to portray herself as a meek and timid young woman incapable of murder. Prosecutors believed Ezra committed the crime to attract the attention of her former boyfriend, Jason Mengel. Ezra is found guilty of first-degree intentional homicide and sentenced to life in prison. Ezra must serve a minimum of 50-years before she is eligible for release. Interviewed: Don Sipple, dairy farmer; Andrea Nodolf, Dunn County District Attorney; Jason Mengel, Ezra’s ex-boyfriend; Marv Woodworth, Alex’s grandfather; John Woodworth, Alex’s father; Detective Ryan Prock, Eau Claire Police Department; Julia Post, Ezra’s childhood friend; Woman #3, juror. - 02/15/20 48 HOURS: “The Plot to Kill Dr. Sievers” – a follow-up to “Eleven Hundred Miles to Murder” (OAD: 02/18/17), a report on the 2015 murder of Dr. Teresa Sievers, murdered in her Bonita Springs, Florida home and the subsequent investigation. Police initially suspected her husband Mark Sievers, but he had an airtight alibi. A tip led police on a 1,100-mile trek that took the case in an unexpected direction. Mark Sievers believed there might be a tie to other suspicious deaths of doctors around the country. Eventually, Mark Sievers became a person of interest. Two months after the murder, police arrested two men in Missouri and charged them with Dr. Sievers’s murder: Curtis Wayne Wright and Jimmy Ray Rogers traveled from Missouri to Florida and murdered Dr. Sievers. Wright, a close friend of Mark Sievers, told police that Mark had taken out five life insurance policies on Dr. Sievers, had an open marriage, money problems, and other serious issues. Eight months after the murder, Wright admitted to killing Dr. Sievers and accused Mark Sievers of being the mastermind behind the crime. Mark Sievers was then charged with the murder of his wife. Curtis Wayne Wright pled guilty to the second-degree murder of Teresa Sievers and testified that it was Mark’s idea to kill Teresa. In exchange for his testimony, he will serve 25-years in prison. In October 2019, Rodgers went on trial and was convicted of second-degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. A month later while still maintain his innocence, Mark Sievers went on trial and was convicted of first-degree murder in the death of his wife. In addition to the guilty verdict, the jury asked the judge to sentence Sievers to death. On January 3, 2020, Mark Sievers was sentenced to death. On-screen text graphic: The Sievers daughters, now teenagers, are being raised by Teresa’s family. 02/22/20 48 HOURS: “The Life and Death of Amie Harwick” (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on the death of Hollywood family therapist and author, Amie Harwick. On the morning of February 15, Los Angeles police responded to a call of a “women screaming;” they found 38-year-old Harwick lying unresponsive beneath the third-floor balcony of her home. Police found evidence of a struggle and forced entry. The cause of death was ruled to be blunt force injuries to the head and torso, with medical examiners finding evidence of strangulation. Harwick’s friends led investigators to her ex-boyfriend, Gareth Pursehouse. After dating in 2011, the relationship allegedly turned abusive. In 2012, a restraining order was filed against Pursehouse by Harwick. At the time of her death, the restraining order against Pursehouse had expired. Four days after Harwick’s death, Pursehouse was charged with one count of murder and first-degree residential burglary with a special circumstance allegation of lying in wait. He could face a minimum sentence of life in prison without the possibility of parole, and possibly the death penalty. He has not yet entered a plea. The death of Harwick, who was once romantically linked to THE PRICE IS RIGHT host Drew Carey, has put a spotlight on domestic abuse. This broadcast also contains follow-up interviews with stalking victims Peggy and Katherine, both former 48 HOURS subjects. On-screen text graphic: Amie’s parents, Penny and Tom Harwick, provided this statement: “We are heartbroken. 48 HOURS: “The Case Against Sandra Garner” – a report on the murder of Jon Garner and the trial of his wife, Sandra, accused of the crime. In January 2018, Maypearl, Texas police responded to Sandra Garner’s 911 call about her husband, Jon, having been shot by a home intruder. Officer Boyd Norton was aided in the investigation by Ellis County Sheriff Shane Thompson. After questioning Sandra and her son Wes, police began to consider her a suspect. They found suspicious search queries on her electronic devices as well as a gun matching the one used to kill Jon stashed under the front seat of her car. Sandra was arrested for Jon’s murder. In September 2019, Sandra’s trial began. In court, prosecutor Lindy Beaty mocked Sandra’s story, but privately she and co-prosecutor Ricky Sipes, were unsure of the strength of their cases based on errors in the police’s investigation: police took too long to respond to Sandra’s call and secure the crime scene, they failed to fingerprint Sandra’s car, and a series of crime scene photos Officer Norton took disappeared from his phone. Prosecutors also lacked a motive for Sandra, but could ascribe a financial motive to Wes, whose alibi also turned out to not be valid and proved much of the information against Sandra. After three hours of deliberation, the jury returned a not guilty verdict. Sandra was released, but much of her family still believes she is Jon’s killer. Sandra and her daughter no longer speak to Wes.

48 HOURS: “Broken Hearts” – a report on how the death of Karen Ermer was connected to a lifesaving heart transplant for Eva Baisey. Gene Weingarten, a writer for The Washington Post, had the idea that reporting on any single day could encapsulate the entire human experience. He and Editor Tom Shroder, placed twenty years of dates into a hat and randomly chose December 28, 1986. This led Weingarten to Detective Tommy Lee, who had been holding onto the file for Karen Ermer’s case for decades. In Fairfax County, Virginia in the 1980s, Karen was in a relationship with Mark Willey. According to Mark’s friend Rich Lieb, Mark was very possessive and jealous; he stalked Karen and committed acts of physical violence against her. In 1986, Karen broke up with Mark. On the evening of December 26th, an intoxicated Mark climbed a tree and entered Karen’s apartment in an attempt to reconcile; she refused. Mark retrieved a rifle from his car and killed her and then himself. Elsewhere in the county, Eva Baisey -- a 20 year old nursing student at Fairfax Hospital -- needed a heart transplant. At the time, it was illegal to perform the surgery at any Washington D.C. area hospitals. Dr. Ed Lefrak, chief of cardiac surgery at Fairfax Hospital, recruited celebrated surgeon Dr. Christiaan Barnard to lobby the state health commissioner on Lefrak’s behalf. Barnard was successful -- all that was left was to wait for a donor. On December 27, 1986, a viable heart became available from Mark Willey, whose suicide had left him braindead, but his heart was still beating. The next day, Dr. Lefrak replaced Eva’s heart. Though her procedure was successful, Eva was told she would never be allowed to work in healthcare due to fears over her susceptibility to disease. However, as Eva’s life expectancy projection climbed, that restriction was removed and she was able to begin a career in nursing. Eva continues to have a celebratory anniversary call with her transplant team every December 28th. She finally learned the source of her heart when Gene Weingarten published his book in 2019; Eva expressed remorse and gratitude toward Mark’s family. Rich Lieb was happy that Karen Ermer’s death allowed Eva to live. On-screen text graphic: To sign up to be an organ donor visit the National Donate Life Registry at Registerme.org. Interviewed: Gene Weingarten, writer for The Washington Post; Detective Tommy Lee, Fairfax Police; Rich Lieb, friend of Karen Ermer; Dr. Ed Lefrak, chief of cardiac surgery, Fairfax Hospital; Mary Dellinger, surgical nurse; Deidre Carolan Doerflinger, Eva’s primary care nurse; Eva Baisey, heart transplant recipient; Mary Beth Maydosz, transplant coordinator; Antonio Baisey, Eva’s son. 48 HOURS: “The Troubling Case Against Kevin Cooper” (10:00 - 11:00p) – an update to a 2019 report on the controversial murder case against California death row inmate Kevin Cooper, who was convicted of the 1983 murder of Doug and Penny Ryen, their daughter Jessica, and friend Christopher Hughes in Chino Hills, California. Eight-year-old Josh Ryen, though seriously wounded, survived the attack. 48 HOURS has been investigating Kevin Cooper’s case ever since he wrote to Erin Moriarty two decades ago, proclaiming his innocence. After the June 4, 1983 murders, Josh indicated to police three white people were responsible. Police eventually decided Josh was wrong with his identification and recent prison escapee Kevin Cooper seemed to fit the bill because he had hidden near the Ryen home. Cooper was paraded before cameras and the trial became racially charged because Cooper is black. Blood evidence, but none of Cooper’s fingerprints, were found at the scene. The trial was moved to San Diego and Josh testified by video, but his memory was hazy and he no longer remembered the attackers. Cooper, who always denied the murders, was convicted and sentenced to death. Dr. Mary Howell, Josh’s grandmother, was not convinced that Cooper was guilty. By 2000, Cooper was still on death row. Questions remained and Josh, then eighteen-years-old, was still unsure Cooper was there. Private investigator Paul Ingels felt the case deserved a second look; his investigation led to a number of new leads, including potential suspect Lee Furrow, who the police initially discounted. Furrow denied responsibility. In 2001, an agreement was made for additional DNA testing, but the 2002 post-conviction DNA test results did not exonerate Cooper, and significant issues were raised regarding the process. In 2008, Dr. Mary Howell died. After the state of California agreed to DNA testing, the lab results all pointed to Cooper, but many maintain the evidence was tampered with. After nineteen years on death row, the 9th Circuit federal appellate court stayed Cooper’s execution. New York Times journalist Nicholas Kristof wrote an Op-Ed article about the case and former FBI agent Tom Parker was hired by Norman Hile, Cooper’s defense attorney, to re-investigate. New attention was given to Lee Furrow, following information from witnesses that three white men splattered with blood, were seen in a nearby bar on the night of the crime. At the end of 2018, Governor Jerry Brown ordered new DNA testing and a retired judge was appointed to make sure the tests are done properly. 03/21/20 UPDATE: In March 2019, new California Governor Gavin Newsom ordered additional DNA testing, including a vial that contained Cooper’s blood; he also suspended all state executions. The tests were carried out, however the DNA on the items -- except for on an orange towel -- was too degraded to provide conclusive results. The results from the towel did not match Cooper, Lee Furrow, or anyone in the CODIS national database. Defense attorney and DNS specialist Bicka Barlow discovered the vial containing Cooper’s 1983 blood sample was empty. Investigator Tom Parker found two new witnesses who claim Furrow confessed to the crime. Cooper’s defense team has asked Governor Newsom to look into their claims of evidence tampering. On-screen text graphic: Further test results are expected within the next few months. Interviewed: Paul Ingels (private investigator); Dr. Mary Howell Josh Ryen’s maternal grandmother); Floyd Tidwell (former San Bernardino County Sheriff); Josh Ryen (survivor, interviewed as a 28-year old); Dale Sharp (Deputy Sheriff); Dennis Kottmeier (District Attorney); Norman Hile (Cooper’s defense attorney); Lee Furrow (suspect); Diana Roper (Furrow’s former girlfriend, now deceased); Christine Slonaker and Mary Wolfe (witnesses at the bar); Nicholas Kristoff (journalist, The New York Times); Tom Parke (former FBI Agent); Judge William Fletcher; Michael Ramos (current District Attorney); Dr. Paul Krane (DNA expert); Kevin Cooper (telephone interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty); and Bicka Barlow (Defense attorney / DNA specialist) (See also: (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "A Grandmother's Mission", OAD: 10/26/00; 1st rebroadcast: 08/03/01; 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Truth", OAD: 09/17/03 - a follow-up to “A Grandmother’s Mission”; and 48 HOURS: “Letter from San Quentin” (9:00 - 10:00p) and “Was Kevin Cooper Framed?” (10:00 - 11:00p), OAD: 01/26/19 - a two-part report.) 48 HOURS: “Lizzie Borden Took an Axe...” – a report detailing the 1892 murder accusations against Lizzie Borden and a mock trial with modern forensics experts, attorneys, and jurors. The Borden family lived in Fall River, Massachusetts. Despite his wealth, Andrew Borden was known to be very frugal. He lived in a house that lacked indoor plumbing and gas lighting, with daughters Emma and Lizzie, and second wife Abby. On August 4th, 1892, Lizzie alerted her neighbor that her father had been killed. The neighbor noted that there was no blood on her. When police arrived, they found Andrew in the sitting room and Abby in an upstairs room – both had been hacked to death. Emma had been away visiting friends and was not at the house. Five days later, Lizzie was able to give her version of events during the police inquest. Police were able to construct a timeline for the murders and when looking for a motive, focused on how Lizzie and Emma begrudged their father for his frugality and for buying a house for his wife’s sister, rather than the two of them. Other than around the bodies, the only blood found in the house was a spot on one of Lizzie’s undergarments and the bloody rags in the basement. Lizzie explained both were the result of her menstruating, and the primitiveness of forensics at the time did not allow for further testing. Police were also suspicious that the day after her father’s funeral, Lizzie burned a dress in the stove and claimed it was ruined from paint. Initially lacking a murder weapon, police later found a hatchet head covered with ash in the basement; the handle appeared to have been freshly broken off. Witnesses claimed to have seen Lizzie’s failed attempt to buy prussic acid, a powerful poison. Lizzie was arrested for murder at the close of the inquest. On June 5, 1893, Lizzie’s trial began in New Bedford, MA. Over the course of a week, the prosecution laid out their case with expert witnesses and medical testimony, but the judge did not allow them to mention Lizzie’s attempt to buy poison. The defense teams spent two days attempting to raise reasonable doubt. After two hours of deliberation, the all-male jury returned with a not guilty verdict. Following her acquittal, Lizzie and Emma used their inheritance to buy a large house in the rich part of town, however, Lizzie was shunned from the church that had brought her solace and Emma too eventually left her. She lived as a recluse until her death in June of 1927. Emma would pass away nine days later. Both were laid to rest near Andrew and Abby. Nevertheless, popular culture has cast Lizzie Borden as one of America’s most notorious killers. Los Angeles author Cara Robertson first became interested in Lizzie Borden when searching a subject for her college thesis; thirty years later, Simon & Schuster published her book, “The Trial of Lizzie Borden.” Using a jury recruiting firm and paid jurors, a modern Lizzie Borden trial is staged with Anna-Sigga Niccolazzi as prosecutor; Matthew Troiano for the defense; and Erin Rubas and Andrew Schweighardt as expert witnesses. Both attorneys would only be able to use evidence presented at the original trial. The eight jurors deliberated, with attorneys allowed to listen in. After one hour, a vote was taken: on the first count, the murder of Abby Borden, it was a hung jury with only one juror voting not guilty; on the second count, the murder of Andrew Borden, it was again a hung jury, with two not guilty votes. Interviewed: Cara Robertson, author; Anna-Sigga Niccolazzi, former prosecutor, Brooklyn district attorney; Matthew Troiano, defense attorney; Erin Rubas, crime scene investigator, former homicide detective; and Andrew Schweighardt, criminalist, New York City Office of the Chief Medical Examiner.
