

ISSUES & ANSWERS

3rd Quarter 2023

Sundays 6am WBHQ, WNZF & WAKX

WNZF originates and broadcasts content live Friday 9am prior

DATE AIRED	ISSUE	ANSWER	NOTES GUESTS
7/2/23	July weekend festivities creating traffic and beach congestion	Sheriff & Flagler Beach police explain plan	Sheriff Rich Staly & FB Chief Matt Doughney
7/9/23	Struggling Arts Programs Often Compete with each other.	Bring together on air all area arts leaders.	Amelia Fulmer - Nancy Crouch – John Sbordone – Jerry Berry
7/16/23	Drowning a leading cause of death with kids	PC Parks & Rec promoting free swimming event	Kim Palm Coast Parks Rec Director
7/23/23	Consumers confused about benefits of solar energy in homes.	FI Solar Energy Industries explains net metering & taxes	Bill Gallagher Pres Solar Fit and FI
7/30/23	African American Community Needs Support At Carver Gym	Community Cook out to introduce sports programs	Shelley Ragsdale NAACP invites and explains activities and purpose to get word out.
8/6	Controversy in public schools with new school board members.	School Board member and new superintendent answer questions.	School Board Sally Hunt Superintendent Lashaka Moore
8/13	Recent rash of traffic fatalities	Crackdown on distracted drivers campaign	Sheriff Rick Staly warns of stepped up patrols looking for people on phones.
8/20	Shortage of workers for upcoming season.	Job Fair	Palm Coast Asst City Managers asks local biz and workers to participate
8/27	Propane is viable energy source, many unaware.	Peoples Gas explains benefits	Sylvia Vega Peoples Gas
9/3	Many veterans moving to area unaware of resources locally	Flagler Veterans Affairs explains how to tap into resources	Dave Lyden County Veterans Affairs Officer.
9/10	Palm Coast running short of money, needs tax increase.	Councilman explains we are not short.	Palm Coast City Councilman Ed Danko "Rather drink antifreeze than raise taxes."
9/17	Local food bank stressed with inflation.	Awareness that $1 can buy $5 of food.	Pastor Charles Silano director local Grace Community Food Pantry
9/24	Local youth need way to learn vocations & business.	Flagler JR Chamber holds job fair for 8 th graders	President Bryan Soudrain invites biz and parents to involve kids.	