Leading Josephine County in the right direction with American Values in mind. Hi, I'm Chris Barnett and I'm running for County Commissioner Position 2. I've been serving others my whole life in the military, As a business owner, law enforcement officer, volunteer and radio Personality supporting your community events and functions. I've been there helping Josephine County living, working and playing here. I've invested in the economic growth of our area and I'm stepping up to represent you the citizens of Josephine county as County Commissioner. I've already been in the field learning the job, visiting with your county departments that we oversee, seeing and talking about solving issues important to you like The homeless issues and drug problems. I want unity back in our communities and boost morale amongst each other. I want you the people to be represented well and have a voice at the table. Serving others is what this job is all about and running the county like a business. I'm well rounded in my education, job endeavors, team player and want to make a win for Josephine county. Let's win together and vote Chris Barnett for county commissioner position 2. (sfx: Claps and cheers).
Paid for by citizens for Chris Barnett for Commissioner w34444.
