

Date	Time	Duration	Issue	Program/Segment	Narration of type and description of the program/segment.
Thursday, January 5th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Yates County Chamber of Commerce	Chamber Talk/Open Mic	Jessica Bacher with the Yates County Chamber discussed the Yates County Bicentennial celebration for 2023, Business After Hours, the Return of the Wing Walk to downtown Penn Yan in March and outlook for 2023 tourism in Yates County
Tuesday, January 10th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Human Trafficking	Open Mic	Melissa Gilbert and Brandy Meeder from Safe Harbors of the Finger Lakes discussed Human Trafficking and how youth in the area are subject to different types (i.e. revenge porn, grooming, apps). Melissa promoted an event in January that will help parents and teens address the issues
Thursday, January 12th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Seneca Lake Wine Trail	Open Mic	Brittany Gibson, President of the Seneca Lake Wine Trail, discussed upcoming events on the Wine Trail, including Chocolate and Wine Weekend, and Seneca Lake Wine and Experience Auction. Brittany also discussed their campaign "Winter is a Great Time to Visit" designed to combat misconception that wineries are not open during the supposed off-season.
Tuesday, January 17th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Schuyler Hospital	Open Mic	Michelle Benjamin, Executive Director of Marketing and Communications for the Hospital discussed in detail the new Schuyler EMS ambulance service available to Schuyler County residents. It is part of Cayuga Health Transport. An open house for county residents is scheduled for January 30th.
Thursday, January 19th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Finger Lakes Economic Development	Open Mic	Steve Griffin from the Finger Lakes Economic Development Center joined us to talk about the Governor's State of the State address and its impact on Yates County and the Finger Lakes. In particular, we talked about the housing needs, and climate agenda
Tuesday, January 24th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Slow Moving Vehicle Think Tank	Open Mic	John Kriese and Larry Lewis from Yates County Farm Bureau discussed an upcoming Think Tank on Slow Moving Vehicle safety and awareness. In addition, they spoke about Farm Bureau and what it does for farmers in Yates County

Thursday, January 26th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	The Living Well	Open Mic	Jessica Cornell from the Living Well discussed the need for volunteers, Dream Catchers, Snack Shack and a February Special event that is planned for kids during winter break. Also discussed how residents can access Emergency Assistance Funding to avoid utility shutoffs.
Tuesday, January 31st	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Cornell Cooperative Extension	Open Mic	Arlene Wilson, Executive Director of CCE Yates, discussed upcoming workshops and efforts to recruit volunteers for monitoring for spotted lantern fly in the region. She also discussed Lake Friendly Living tips and a Cornell program designed to help local highway department superintendents
Thursday, February 2nd	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Yates County Chamber and Watkins Glen Area Chamber	Open Mic	Jessica Bacher, Yates County Chamber President, discussed the Bicentennial events planned for Yates County, as well as the return of the Wing Walk part of the Downtown Business Council. Nigar Hale, CEO of the Watkins Glen Chamber, discussed the annual Gala returning in early March as well as the Chamber's new event page on its website

Tuesday, February 7th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Alzheimer's Association of Roc/Finger Lakes region	Open Mic	Thera Blasio, Director of Professional Education, Alzheimer's Association and Lauren Snyder, Programs Volunteer, discussed the local chapter. Lauren has two support group meetings for Alzheimer care givers held twice a month in Yates County. Also holding a recruitment event on Feb 14th. Thera discussed the annual Walk at Watkins Glen International planned for later 2023
Tuesday, February 14th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Penn Yan School District	Open Mic	David Mulberger, Dir of Transportation for PY School District, Cyndi Davis, Liz Catlin, bus drivers with the school discussed the need for bus drivers and monitors in the school district. Steve Griffin discussed a recent open house he attended at Greenidge regarding their newly installed screens; Steve also addressed the need to build the specialty workforce in Yates County and previewed an upcoming job fair to be held at Keuka College on February 28th.
Thursday, February 16th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Finger Lakes Economic Development	Open Mic	Director Sandi Perl was joined by Keuka College student Alena Florez, who is interning this semester with the Living Well. Alena discussed her interest in social services and experience working with those in need in Yates County. Sandi discussed the return of Flavor Fest this summer and the expansion of their after-school Dreamcatchers program in Dundee
Thursday, February 23rd	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	The Living Well	Open Mic	Arlene Wilson, Exec. Director of CCE Yates, discussed upcoming pesticide trainings and symposiums. 4H is hosting virtual "Animal Crackers" sessions teaching kids about different animals and the 2nd annual Pollinator March Madness brackets/tournament begins March 1st.
Tuesday, February 28th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Cornell Cooperative Extension of Yates Co	Open Mic

Thursday, March 2nd	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Yates County and Watkins Glen Area Chambers	Open Mic	Jessica Bacher from the Yates Chamber discussed the weekend's Wing Walk, Business After Hours and the Chamber's seeking non-profits for the September community dinner. Nigar Hale from the Watkins Chamber talked about the weekend's annual gala, a job fair later this month and a new event coming to WG in May featuring Corvettes Dr. Doug Sinclair, the new Public Health Director of Yates County joined us. He explained his vision for Public Health moving forward. Emily End, Public Health educator spoke of colorectal cancer, ticks and lyme disease and rabies clinics planned throughout the county.
Tuesday, March 7th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Yates County Public Health	Open Mic

Thursday, March 9th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Seneca Lake Wine Trail	Open Mic	Brittany Gibson discussed the final three weeks of bidding on the Seneca Lake Wine Experience auction. Auction proceeds will benefit the New York State Children's Alliance
Thursday, March 16th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Finger Lakes Economic Development Center	Open Mic	Steve Griffin with the Finger Lakes Economic Development Center discussed how PILOT positively impacts property values and business in Yates County. He also addressed an upcoming job fair at Keuka College and provided an update on the field house expansion at the Yates Community Center in Penn Yan
Tuesday, March 21st	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Schuyler Hospital	Open Mic	Michelle Benjamin, Communications Director for Schuyler Hospital, discussed two awards Cayuga Health will be presenting to staff based on community input.
Thursday, March 23rd	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	Watkins Glen High School	Open Mic	Tim Benjamin was joined by Watkins Glen High School students Sarah Schaffner, Nicholas Brusso and Kai Lees discussed the weekend high school spring musical production of the Wizard of Oz. The students discussed their roles and what its been like to put on a well-known production like the Wizard. Tim addressed adding a new age group of students, 5th and 6th graders, to this year's production
Thursday, March 30th	8:35 a.m.	25 minutes	The Living Well	Open Mic	Nikki Beechner with the Living Well discussed the reopening of Paul's Place, which is a drop-in respite program in Yates County for community members diagnosed with early stage Alzheimer's and/or dementia to allow their caregivers time for errands, appointments, or just a break.
Friday, March 31st	8:35 a.m.	15 minutes	Penn Yan Middle School	WFLR Morning Show	Jillian Healey, Penn Yan Middle School teacher and three fifth grade cast members of the Middle School musical ""The Most Epic Birthday Party Ever" discussed the Friday night production.