

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Indigenous Guatemalan food in Minnesota	Indigeneity Rising	10/6/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	Amalia Moreno Damgaard is from MesoAmerica, (Latin Central America) now residing in and operating from Minnesota. She is a classically trained chef, food and cultural entrepreneur, culinary event consultant and award winning cookbook author and food writer. Moreno Damgaard shares her philosophy about food and hospitality that she calls, "gourmet cuisine with a cultural flair." Amalia has traveled widely, spoken extensively and consulted with multiple groups on this topic. She is the Author of, "AMALIA'S GUATEMALAN KITCHEN," and the forthcoming, AMALIA'S MESOAMERICAN TABLE . . ."
Stories on Immigration and Identity from an Indigenous Perspective	Indigeneity Rising	10/13/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	LEYA HALE (Dakota-Sisseton Wahpeton and Dine-Navajo) talks about her most recent honor for, "COMING TO MNI SOTA," stories of immigration and identity. Hale is a documentary filmmaker, cultural and gender storyteller, and most recently, a producer at TPT Twin Cities Public Television. Leya has received four Upper Midwest Emmys for her work including, "RECLAIMING SACRED TOBACCO." She is also a Merata Mita Sundance Institute Fellow.
Indigenous Representation in Electronic Music	Indigeneity Rising	10/20/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	BEAR WITNESS (Cayuga) and ZOOLMAN (Mohawk) of the hip hop, electronic, dance and powwow music duo, "THE HALLUCINATION."; their current North American tour, "ONE MORE SATURDAY NIGHT," and the stop in Minneapolis for their appearance at THE CEDAR (Cultural Center).; these members of the group formerly known as A Tribe Called Red.
Stories on Patrick Scully & Gay Activism	Fresh Fruit	10/21/2021	7:00 PM	60 mins.	Filmmaker, Director Mark Wojahn talking about two of his films documenting Minneapolis' well-known Gay performer and activist Patrick Scully. The world premiere of his latest work, "Leaves of Grass-Illuminated", a live performance documentary starring Scully as Walt Whitman with dancers, screens at the 2021 Twin Cities Film Fest Oct. 23 and online. And his upcoming film "The Dance is Not Over: The Patrick Scully Story";
Filipino American Representation at the 2021 Twin Cities Film Fest	Filipino American National News	10/24/2021	9:00 PM	30 mins.	The film No Dogs is one of the featured films at this year's Twin Cities Film Fest. Writer/Producer/Actor Georgina Tolentino, Writer Alex Fabros and Director Randal Kamradt Jr. spoke with Host Alan Bungue about the film centers around the race riots against Filipinos in Watsonville, California in the 1920's. A timely interview being that we are currently in the midst of Filipino American History Month and the subject matter has relevance to some of the violence against Filipino Americans today.
Indigenous Healing	Indigeneity Rising	10/27/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	Dianna Good Sky's life and work as an Author/Blogger, Inspirational Speaker, Cultural Advocate, Military Veteran and Daughter/Mother. Good Sky is the author of the best selling, "WARRIOR SPIRIT RISING," a chronicle of the life of her Father, well known healer, EUGENE GOOD SKY. Dianna will relate her Dad's "life after death" experience that set him on a different and new life path.

KFAI Quarterly Issues/Program - Q4 2021

Preserving Black Women's Voices	Conversations with Al McFarlane	11/2/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	The importance of preserving Black Women's Voices: comments by Dr. Irma McClaurin on the Black Feminist Archive at UMass Amherst; and Professor Mahmoud El-Kati on dismantling the doctrine of white supremacy.
Lead Poisoning Prevention	Somali Link Radio	11/9/2021	6:00 PM	60 mins.	Bihi welcomes Rachelle Peleska from the Sustainable Resources Center on-air, and she shares information about lead poisoning and its dangers to families, as well as how to see the signs and get professional and financial help fixing it.
Post-secondary Enrollment Option students (PSEO) experience in MN	Wave Project	11/14/2021	11:00 AM	60 mins.	Post-secondary Enrollment Option students (PSEO) and transitioning into undergrad studies, how PSEO compares to IB and AP, and how PSEO originated in MN and continues to enjoy bipartisan support at the Capitol.
Twin Cities Metro Arts & Disability Forum	Disability and Progress	11/18/2021	6:00 PM	60 mins.	Metropolitan Regional Arts Council. This Zoom event/radio special is a public conversation with four Twin Cities artists with disabilities. Panelists Teighlor McGee, Nicole M Smith, Minda Mae, and Nicole Noblet explore how people with disabilities are making, sharing, and experiencing art in the Twin Cities Metro region—and what we need to do next to fully include disability communities in the region's cultural fabric.
LGBTQ+ Community Centers & Libraries	Fresh Fruit	11/18/2021	7:00 PM	60 mins.	Claude Peck, writer and president of Quatrefoil Library. He is also a former Star Tribune arts and news editor and former Fresh Fruit host. He'll be talking about the non-profit LGBTQ+ library/community center
Casting the Blind in Entertainment	Disability and Progress	11/25/2021	6:00 PM	60 mins.	Ryan Strunk, President of National Federation of the Blind Minnesota joins Sam in the studio. He discusses the problem of the refusal of the entertainment industry to cast blind people in productions and suggests way to improve this situation.
Lung cancer & the Tobacco 21 national campaign	Disability and Progress	12/2/2021	6:00 PM	60 mins.	Dr. April Wilhelm talks about the U of M study on the Tobacco 21 policies and the use of tobacco products with adolescence. Dr. Wilhelm is a family medicine physician with the U of M medical school. and U of M Health Fairview. Also, we will discuss lung cancer and smoking with Dr.Amit Kulkarni, a medical oncologist with the U of M Medical School and Masonic Cancer Center.
Centennial celebration of Scandinavian culture shop in Minneapolis	MinneCulture Presents	12/8/2021	7:00 PM	9 mins.	As Ingebretson's marks its 100th anniversary, it's a time for celebration and a time for reflection at the shop. Britta Greene reports for KFAI's MinneCulture.
War in Aghanistan, and the anti-war movement	Northern Sun News	12/9/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	Anti-War Veterans Explain How US Lost Afganistan While Leaders Lied - Matthew Hoh & Danny Sjursen Interviewed by Aaron Mate on Push Back, The Gray Zone
Assistive Technology	Disability and Progress	12/09/2021	6:00 PM	60 mins.	Sam Jasmine talks with RAZ Mobility CEO, Robert Felgar about the accessible Lucia mobile phone, and RAZ Mobility.
Afghan Socialism	Northern Sun News	12/23/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	Vijay Prashad Killing Modernity: How the US & Britain Destroyed the Afghan Left: The Killing of Afghan Socialism Interviewed by Rania Khalek, Dispatches from Beirut, Lebanon

KFAI Quarterly Issues/Program - Q4 2021

Kim Potter Trial	Conversations with Al McFarlane	12/28/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	Local lawyers weigh in on the Trial of Kim Potter, a former police officer convicted of manslaughter in the murder of Daunte Wright
US Nuclear Weapons Power promotion	Northern Sun News	12/30/2021	1:00 PM	60 mins.	Don Olson speaks with activist John LaForge about Nuclear Power promotion in the US & Nuclear Weapons
Transwomen of Color in the Media	Fresh Fruit	12/30/2021	7:00 PM	60 mins.	Interview w/ Ashley Breathe, an afro-latina transwoman from NYC, founder of the transwomen of color media platform "t-time network"; also an artist, producer and queer advocate who will chat about this amazing platform