- 09/08/23 48 HOURS: “The Brighton Ax Murder” (10:17 – 11:00p) – a reedited, abbreviated and updated rebroadcast of “The Brighton Ax Murder” (OAD: 02/25/23), a report on the murder of 29-year-old wife and mother Cathy Krauseneck of Brighton, NY, which remained unsolved for four decades. The case, dubbed the Brighton Ax Murder, was one of the oldest, coldest murder cases in America. On February 19th, 1982, her husband, Jim Krauseneck, said he found Cathy dead in their bed with an ax in her head, after he returned home from his job as a Kodak company economist. Aspects of the crime scene did not sit right with investigators; police believe it was staged to look like a burglary to cover up the real crime – the intentional murder of Cathy by her husband, who left town shortly after speaking with police. The case sat for decades until 2019, when authorities in Monroe County, NY hired forensic pathologist Michael Baden to investigate. Baden believed Cathy was killed around 3:30 am; for prosecutors that meant Jim would have been home at the time. Jim was indicted on November 1st, 2019; he voluntarily surrendered to authorities a week later. The case went to trial in 2022; Jim was found guilty of second-degree murder and sentenced to 25 years-to-life behind bars. Jim intends to appeal his conviction. Cathy’s father would like to move her remains from Jim’s family plot but needs her daughter Sara’s permission to do so. 09/08/23 UPDATE: Six months after Jim Krauseneck was sentenced, he died of cancer in prison. Sharon, Sara and Jim’s legal team are appealing the verdict, hoping to clear his name. Original on-screen text graphic: Cathy’s family and Sara haven’t spoken since the trial. 48 HOURS (continued)

09/16/23

48 HOURS: “The Gilgo Beach Serial Killings” (9:00 – 10:00p) – the fourth follow-up report to “Long Island Serial Killer”. In May 2010, Shannan Gilbert, who worked as an escort, disappeared. The search for Gilbert led to the discovery of ten bodies in 2010 and 2011, in the scrub brush along Gilgo Beach, on Long Island, NY. Police suspected the work of a serial killer. Four of the women were identified as Maureen Brainard-Barnes, Melissa Barthelemy, Megan Waterman and Amber Costello. Like Gilbert, all were in their twenties, petite and were online escorts. Three of the four were wrapped in burlap. The victims became known as the Gilgo Four. In February 2022, Suffolk County police and the district attorney formed a new task force to investigate the murders; six weeks later, Rex Heuermann was identified for the first time as a suspect. Using the description provided by Costello’s roommate of one of her persistent clients and the vehicle he drove, investigators were able to tie Heuermann to the crime. DNA collected from a pizza slice he tossed in a Manhattan trash can came back as a match with hair found on the victims. In July 2023, Suffolk County police announced the arrest of 59-year-old Rex Heuermann and charged him with killing Melissa Barthelemy, Megan Waterman and Amber Costello; he is the prime suspect in the death of Maureen Brainard-Barnes. He pled not guilty and is being held in a Suffolk County jail. None of the other bodies found in 2011 along Ocean Parkway have been linked to him. Heuermann, an architect in Manhattan, lived about 20 minutes from Gilgo Beach, in Massapequa Park, with Asa Ellerup (his second wife of more than 25 years), stepson Christopher Sheridan and daughter Victoria Heuermann. Ellerup, who is battling breast and skin cancer, has filed for divorce from Heuermann. Additionally, investigators have identified strands of female hair found on two of the victims: Megan Waterman and Amber Costello. The DNA profile is consistent with Ellerup; she has not been charged or named a suspect in any of the murders. No on-screen text graphic for this broadcast. This broadcast is 48 HOURS’ sixth edition of the investigation into the Gilgo Beach serial murders and contains interviews from prior broadcasts. Interviewed: Dominick Varrone, former chief of detectives, Suffolk County Police Department; Missy Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes’ sister; Muriel Henriquez, worked at Heuermann’s company, RH Consultants & Associates, spoke exclusively to 48 HOURS (2023); Mary Shell, worked with Heuermann in the summer of 2010 (2023); John Parisi; grew up with Heuermann (2023); Antoine Amira, hotel food and beverage manager - Heuermann appeared on Bonjour Realty, Amira’s YouTube interview show (2023); Ray Tierney, district attorney, Suffolk County (2023); Lynn Barthelemy, Melissa Barthelemy’s mother (2011); Steven Cohen, then Barthelemy family attorney (2011); Liliana Waterman, Megan Waterman’s daughter (2020); Dave Schaller, Amber Costello’s roommate (2011); Rodney Harrison, police commissioner, Suffolk County (2023); Bob Macedonio, Asa Ellerup’s attorney (2023); Nikkie Brass, hairdresser, former escort who claims she was solicited by Heuermann, but fled from the restaurant where they met (2023); John Ray, attorney representing Nikkie Brass and the family of Shannan Gilbert; and Sherre Gilbert, Shannan Gilbert’s sister (2011). Gilbert’s body was found in December 2011, in the marsh not far from Gilgo Beach, but investigators don’t believe she was murdered. - 09/16/23 48 HOURS: “The Night of the Idaho Student Murders” (10:00 – 11:00p) – a follow-up report to “The Idaho Student Murders”, detailing the latest developments and inside details surrounding the November 13th, 2022, murders of four University of Idaho students, as well as the case against Bryan Kohberger, charged with murdering Kaylee Goncalves, Ethan Chapin, Xana Kernodle and Madison Mogen. The four victims were all stabbed with a large knife in their off-campus home in Moscow, ID. DNA found on the knife sheath was tested against Kohberger’s father’s DNA, obtained from trash outside the Kohberger family home in Pennsylvania; results indicated a high probability of belonging to the biological father of the person who left their DNA on the knife sheath. The murder weapon has never been found. The judge entered a plea for Kohberger of not guilty. In August 2023, six weeks before the murder trial was set to begin, Kohberger waived his right to a speedy trial. On-screen text graphic: Bryan Kohberger’s trial date has not been set. Interviewed: Steve and Kristi Goncalves, Kaylee’s parents and sister Alivea Goncalves, who offer new details about the night of the murders and their own investigation; Jazzmin Kernodle, Xana’s sister and father Jeffrey Kernodle, in their first interview together; Howard Blum, investigative journalist who has written about the murders for Graydon Carter’s online magazine, “Air Mail” and is now writing a book on the case; and Bryanna Fox, professor of criminology, University of South Florida, CBS News consultant, and former FBI agent. - 09/30/23 48 HOURS: “The Betrayal of Linda Slaten” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a report on the murder of Linda Slaten, who was sexually assaulted and strangled, and how decades later, detectives and a DNA genealogist were able to catch her killer. On September 4th, 1981, 15-year-old Jeff and 12-year-old Tim Slaten were awakened by Lakeland, FL police and told that their mother had been murdered. Investigators collected a rape kit and lifted a palm print from the windowsill where the killer had entered. They questioned a slew of suspects, including her abusive ex-husband Frank Slaten and a boyfriend, but no one was charged. The case went cold. In 2019, nearly 40 years later, advances in DNA technology and a carefully stored rape kit revealed Linda’s killer: Joseph Clinton Mills, known as Coach Joe. Prior to and after Linda’s murder, Coach Joe would regularly drive Tim to and from football practice. He was a role model for Tim, who proudly hung up his football team photo in his room where Coach Joe stood right behind him. On December 12th, 2019, Joe Mills was arrested and claimed that his encounter with Linda was consensual. To avoid a trial and a possible death sentence, he pleaded guilty to all charges and was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole in February 2022. Original on-screen text graphic: The Slaten brothers often visit their mother’s grave. 09/30/23

48 HOURS: “The Game Show and the Murder” (10:00 – 11:00p) - A report on the investigation into the February 2023 murder of Becky Bliefnick and the May 2023 murder trial of her estranged husband, Tim Bliefnick. Becky, a 41-year-old nurse and mother to three young boys, was found murdered in her Quincy, IL home during the afternoon of February 23rd, 2023. She was discovered by her father, who went to check on her after being contacted by Tim. Police determined that the intruder entered Becky’s residence via an upstairs window and kicked in the door to her room. Becky attempted to call 911 on her cell phone before she ran to the bathroom, where she was shot fourteen times by a 9-millimeter handgun. None of her wounds were immediately fatal; spent shell casings and plastic shreds were found around her body. The Bliefnick children, not at home at the time of the murder, were with their father about a mile away. The Bliefnicks were in the process of getting a divorce; Tim filed in January 2021, after 11 years of marriage. According to divorce documents, Tim and Becky fought over money, the marital home and custody of their three children; both parties sought orders of protection against one another and, in both cases, they were not granted. Ultimately, a judge ordered Tim and Becky to stay away from one another’s residences, except when enforcing child visitation schedules. Also ordered was the return of a 9-millimeter handgun that Becky had given to Tim as a gift, but it was never returned and Tim claimed to not know where it was. Becky had expressed her fear of Tim to others and prosecutors claimed that their text exchanges demonstrated emotional abuse on Tim’s part. Video surveillance, as well as a blue Schwinn bicycle found near Tim’s home, and a fake Facebook account linked to Tim, resulted in his arrest. The case and arrest generated media attention when it was revealed that Tim appeared on “Family Feud” in 2019 with his parents and brothers and joked about regretting his marriage when asked a question related to the game. Held without bond, he opted for a speedy trial, which began on May 23rd, 2023. Investigators determined the plastic shreds found around Becky’s body were from Aldi grocery store bags and linked DNA found on a piece of the plastic shreds to Tim, as well as DNA found under Becky’s fingernails. Prosecutors argued that the timing of the murder was significant and uncovered court documents which revealed Becky wanted to keep her father-in-law away from her children because he allegedly had a history of abusing children. Numerous damaging web searches by Tim were also presented by the prosecution. The defense argued that the evidence was circumstantial and could be explained as coincidences; no witnesses were called. The trial lasted six days and the jury found Tim guilty of first-degree murder; the judge sentenced him to life in prison. The Bliefnick children live with Becky’s parents. On-screen text graphic: Tim Bliefnick has not been allowed any contact with his kids since his arrest. (This broadcast also contains an on-screen in memoriam card: In Memory of Jay Pedinoff). Interviewed: Tim Bliefnick, interviewed just over a month after his conviction; Josh Jones, Adams County prosecutor; Laura Keck, Adams County prosecutor; Casey Schnack, Tim’s former divorce attorney, now defense attorney; Sarah Reilly, Becky’s sister; Bret Reilly, Becky’s brother-in-law; Taylor and Taylor Heimann, husband and wife and next door neighbors of Becky’s, whose outside security camera captured video alongside Becky’s house; and Shannon Zanger, Becky’s friend.
