I`m Bob LaBonte from Savoy.

In 2005 my son Brandon was the victim of a homicide. My wife Barbra and I were devastated by the loss of our son.

That was when we met Paul Caccaviello. He met with us constantly keeping us updated on the investigation. Brandon`s body was never found, but an arrest was made. Paul was very honest with us and we knew it would be difficult to get a conviction.

Paul was honest, caring and soft spoken. He never gave up. The jury found my son`s killer guilty. It is unusual for someone to be convicted when the body had not been found.

When my wife died, Paul attended the wake.

I want you to know the truth about Paul from someone who knows him.

Experience matters.

Please join me in voting for Paul on September 4th.

My name is Paul Sinopoli.

I met Paul Caccaviello when he was assigned to prosecute a case involving the theft of money from elderly residents of a local Nursing Home.

After reviewing numerous documents, it was determined the defendant took $170,000 from victims. Many of those victims had no family to question money missing from their accounts. The thefts occurred over a three year period.

I was impressed by Paul's determination. He spent countless hours going over the records that I and my staff had assembled as well as the defendant's bank records and used that information to prove her guilt.

What I saw was a man determined to protect the elderly victims of this crime. He was patient and thorough in his preparation of a very complex case. The defendant was convicted and sent to jail.

Please join me in voting for Paul on September 4th.
