- Food Insecurity
- Support for education
- Support for non-profits, supplementing under-funded governmental services
- Public health/recreation
- Public safety

Just a Minute (Produced public affairs segments)

ISSUE: Environmental protection/preservation/sustainability

PROGRAM: Curb It Pros

Dates: 7/15-7/31

About two dozen trained volunteers with the City of Boise, called Curb It Pros, have been setting up tables, speaking at neighborhood gatherings, meetings, and schools to spread the word about how to recycle plastics. The system changed when China and other countries stopped accepting many items that normally went into the blue recycling bins. Now, discretion is needed, and more sorting, along with the orange energy bag option for plastics labeled 4 through 7. Tips from Curb it Pros Katie Best and Kari Filson.

“ONE MORE THING”

Series of produced public service announcements.

Public Health/Low Income Assistance

Through August 9th, the Idaho Foodbank’s Picnic in the Park program brings free, healthy lunches – five days a week – to nineteen Boise area locations, ensuring access for low income families when school’s out. Kids up to 18 are free, adults pay a small fee. For locations & more, see IdahoFoodbank.org/picnic.

Wassmuth Center for Human Rights/Tours

Tuesdays through October, take a guided walk through Boise’s Anne Frank Memorial; learn not just the history of the memorial, but the history of human rights in Idaho and the work the Wassmuth Center for Human Rights is doing to make the ideas of dignity and respect a part of the fabric of Idaho. 45 minute drop-in tours start Tuesdays at 12:15 at the Anne Frank statue, with more at AnneFrankMemorial.org.

Education/Non-Profit Support

Looking for a new experience? Or to use experience you have to help someone else? VolunteerMatch puts passionate people and deserving non-profits together. Just enter your city, and explore the possibilities at VolunteerMatch.com.

Public Health/Recreation – Eagle Fun Days

What’s fun, and in Eagle? That’d be the 48th annual Eagle Fun Days, July 6th and 7th. Food trucks to fire trucks, cornhole to corn on the cob. Spend time with your family & your neighbors at this “everyone’s welcome” summer classic.

Public Health – IdahoQuits.com/Tobacco-free Idaho Alliance

If the ashtray’s filling up, maybe that’s a sign. For help pushing back from the pack, find free resources all in one place. Stress management, counseling, even starter supplies of nicotine patches, gum or lozenges, it’s all at IdahoQuits.com.

Public Health/Recreation – Twilight Criterium

For the 33rd year, professional cyclists will converge on downtown Boise for the Twilight Criterium. In addition to athletes, the Fan Expo in Capitol Park has even more to see, do and ... eat! Coordinated by the Downtown Boise Association.

Public Safety – Fireworks Cautions/Warnings

You can buy ‘em, but you can’t light ‘em. Remember, aerial fireworks aren’t legal in Idaho – and NO fireworks are legal in the foothills or national forests. Cones, sparklers, wheels & whistles are okay, as long as they stay within 20 feet of where you light them.

Low Income Assistance/Education

LeadersOfThePack208, a licensed 501C3, are giving up to 5,000 backpacks to students who need them – free for the taking - August 3rd from 4 ‘til 8 at Fairmont Junior High! Games, vendors and fun are also part of the day. With DOLLAR donations accepted via the link at www.j105.com.

Low Income Assistance/United Way hygiene kits/fundraiser

The United Way’s 12th annual pancake feed is Thursday August 8th in the Basque Block from 7:30 ‘til 10am. Suggested donation, $10 for adults, $5 for kids. And we’re building hygiene kits for homeless students. Start the day helping. And. Eating.
