Narrative:

Even though job opportunities with our stations have been very limited over the years due to our small staff size, we have tried to be available, and recruit and encourage an interest in broadcasting. In the past WXRC, WAIZ, and WNNC have made available internships and scholarships to broadcasting schools to help create an interest in broadcasting.

Recruitments Initiatives this period:

11-week Internship for Lenoir-Rhyne University student (G.T.) This student, with an interest in broadcasting, spent 15 hours per week in observing and learning the overall operation of our stations.
