Series Title: INSIGHTS ON PBS HAWAI‘I
Program Title: Rescue Fees
Distributor: PBS Hawai‘i
Date: 04/13/2023 7:30:00 PM
Length: 60
Description: Beautiful hiking trails are among the many attractions Hawai‘i has to offer. Every year, dozens of people are rescued from these trails for varying reasons. In many cases, those being rescued should never have been on the trail in the first place because the trail was closed to the public or otherwise off limits. A bill making its way through the Legislature would require government entities to seek reimbursement for some or all of the cost of the rescue.

Guests:

REP. DAVID TARNAS (D), NORTH KONA, SOUTH KOHALA, NORTH KOHALA
AARON LOWE, DNLR – DIVISION OF FORESTRY AND WILDLIFE
JOHN BRAUM, HAWAI'I TRAIL AND MOUNTAIN CORP.

Program Title: #1418
Distributor: PBS Hawai'i
Date: 05/16/2023 7:30:00 PM
Length: 30
Description: On this special episode of HIKI NŌ on PBS Hawai'i, find out which schools produced the winning entries of the HIKI NŌ on PBS Hawai'i 2023 Spring Challenge, with host Dillon Catlett, a senior at Wai'anae High School.

Students had just five days to answer the call for stories that met the prompt “A Blessing in Disguise.” They conducted interviews and edited their stories without any hands-on help from teachers and no mentoring from industry professionals.

During the normal, non-competitive HIKI NŌ on PBS Hawai‘i production cycle, students have several weeks and sometimes months to complete their projects. They also receive one-on-one mentorship help from HIKI NŌ on PBS Hawai‘i mentors.

Scores were given based on how well the stories met the prompt, production and storytelling criteria.

This episode also includes a special segment that takes viewers behind the scenes to meet the student hosts of the 2022-2023 HIKI NŌ season, who represent middle and high schools on Maui, Kaua‘i, and O‘ahu.

Length: 30

Description: In this special episode of HIKI NŌ on PBS Hawai‘i, watch the stories that wowed the judges at the national 2023 Student Television Network Competition held in Long Beach, California — the contest that many consider the Olympics of youth media.

Students from elementary, middle and high school grade levels from Hawai‘i schools collectively took home 47 awards at the competition, outdoing Hawai‘i’s previous record by 7 awards!

This was the first time students from Hawai‘i participated in person since the COVID-19 pandemic threw a wrench in their plans back in 2020. Last year, Hawai‘i students were able to compete in the annual media competition, but remotely from a hub on O‘ahu.

Emi Sado, a junior at Maui High School, hosts from the PBS Hawai‘i studio on O‘ahu and presents the winning entries, showcasing the impressive talent among Hawaii’s New Wave of Storytellers.
