Fourth Quarter 2013

Except as noted below, KETK complied with the commercial limits of the Children's Television Act, serving the educational and informational needs of children ages 12 and under, by limiting commercial time to no more than 10.5 commercial minutes per hour.

On October 12, 2013, the closing credits for "Lazytown," an educational and informational program supplied to the NBC Network by Sprout for the "NBC Kids" Saturday morning E/I block, inadvertently included a fleeting (one-half second) display of the URL for a web site (www.lazytown.com) that did not conform to the FCC's commercial limits rules for web site displays in children's programming. Even though the display of the URL was fleeting, and therefore barely discernible by viewers, it is possible that the FCC would consider this a violation of the commercial limits rules.

As a standard practice the network formats and airs identified children's programs so as to comply with the statutory limit on commercials.

The programs for this quarter to which this applies are as follows (regularly scheduled times on Saturday mornings from 9:00am-12:00pm):

October 1, 2013 through December 31, 2013

9:00am	The Chica Show
9:30am	Pajanimals
10:00am	Justin Time
10:30am	Tree Fu Tom
11:00am	LazyTown
11:30am	Make Way for Noddy
