WOKV 104.5 - October/ November/December

October 5 – Following the devastation of Hurricane Ian on the west coast of Florida and the north Atlantic coast of Florida, WOKV and other CMG radio television station in Florida organized a Day of Giving, “Neighbors Helping Neighbors” all day October 5th to raise funds for the American Red Cross for relief efforts. The company raised $56,000 in one day.

October 6 – In an effort to address domestic violence awareness, CMG’ Jacksonville’s DE&I committee hosted a Domestic Violence symposium for the CMG Jacksonville staff with a representative from Hubbard House. The 90 minute question and answer session spoke of the work the Hubbard House does to protect domestic violence victims in the Northeast Florida region.

In addition, Jacksonville’s Morning News on 104.5 WOKV hosted the Executive Director of the Northeast Florida region of the American Red Cross for a full hour in studio, to discuss the organization’s outreach to those affected by Hurricane Ian. WOKV-FM continued to air “text to donate” messages in a heavy rotation throughout the week (October 4-October 9) to continue awareness of contributing to the outreach of the American Red Cross.

October 21 – For a Thanksgiving, we promoted and as a cluster and station looking for donations to Basket Brigade Florida, in which we delivered baskets of food to those in need before Thanksgiving. We ran 40 promos a week up until November 17th.

October 24 – Carried the live Florida Gubernatorial debate on WOKV without commercial interruption from 7p-8p and followed that with a one hour debate special in which we took calls from listeners and did instant analysis of debate between Democrat challenger Charlie Crist and Republican Governor Ron DeSantis.

November 8 – Expanded coverage of the mid-term elections on WOKV. We began our election returns coverage at 6pm election night and continued until 1am reporting on the mid-term election results both locally and nationally.

November 9 – Wall-to-wall coverage of Hurricane Nicole starting at 4am and continuing through 8pm reporting on flooded areas and severe weather conditions in Northeast Florida. Pre-empted regular programming for our special severe weather coverage.

December 13 – Seven CMG Jax employees volunteered to help organize an in-shelter toy store for kids and parents to shop for their Christmas gift exchange as a follow up to contribute to the cause of the Hubbard House domestic violence center.
