This week on In Focus with IRSC Public Media we talk about death with dignity. Tony Ray is the founder of Florida Death With Dignity. The organization wants to make it possible for Floridians with a terminal illness the choice to end their lives, with dignity. He founded the organization after witnessing the pain suffered by several family member who died without that right. They're seeking passage of a medical aid in dying law in Florida, similar to such laws in other states. Then we'll hear from Stacy Benezra, the Community Impact Coordinator for the United Way of Indian River County. She'll tell us about the return of their Day of Caring event, coming up on Saturday October 15th. It's a chance for local County agencies and non-profits in need to take advantage of some free manpower provided by United Way volunteers who can help those organizations get some work done around their offices or grounds.

| This week on In Focus with IRSC Public Media, a conversation with Susan Mehiel, the communications officer for the Alliance for Safe Trains. The Alliance has launched a petition drive to postpone Brightline's plans to start testing its trains at 110 MPH through Martin and St. Lucie Counties. The testing is scheduled to begin Monday October 17. The Alliance wants assurances that everything possible has been done to ensure that its safe to run trains at that speed through the Treasure Coast. Then we'll turn to the Florida's Home insurance market after Hurricane Ian. We spoke with Mark Friedlander, the Communications Director for the Insurance Information Institute. The Institute projects that Ian will end up being the second-largest property loss event in U.S. history, with more than $60 million dollars in losses. Florida's home insurance market was already in crisis before the hurricane and it's in worse shape now. Friedlander expects to see more insures go bankrupt and worst of all, home insurance rates in Florida are likely to surge again next year, possible by as much as 40%. | 10/7/2022  | 10/8/2022  | 10/8/2022  |

| This week on In Focus with IRSC Public Media we welcome Jerome Gayman, the President of the Grand Bassa County Association of North America. The Association will be celebrating the Bi-Centennial of Liberia with a symposium here on the campus of Indian River State College on Friday October 28 and a gala dinner at the Pelican Yacht Club on Saturday October 29th. Jerome will tell us about that, and about Liberia, the African country where he was born and the unique story of its founding back in 1822. Then we talk with Gigi Suntum, the Executive Director of Caring Children Clothing Children, otherwise known as the 4-C's. They got started more than 25 years ago providing clothing to school aged children, for free. Gigi will tell us how they got started making a difference in children's lives and about their annual fundraiser, the 26th Annual Caring Children Clothing Children Golf Tournament on October 22.   | 10/14/2022 | 10/15/2022   | 10/15/2022 |

| This week on In Focus, with IRSC Public Media, Brightline from both sides. We start off with Katie Mitzner the Director of Brightline Public Affairs. She'll tell us about the start of 110 mph testing by Brightline along the treasure coast which began this week and the steps they've taken to ensure safety. Then we'll hear from Susan Mehiel of the Alliance for Safe Trains. The Alliance has launched a petition drive to urge the Governor and the Florida Department of Transportation to take steps to curb Brightline's speeds and make safety a top priority. Then a conversation with Tracey Dean, the President and CEO of Conservation Florida, a statewide land conservancy whose primary focus is the protection of the Florida Wildlife Corridor. The corridor runs from the keys to the panhandle. Its purpose is the preservation of an unbroken path of open land, wilderness, farm and grazing land to help preserve the flora and fauna of our state, and it was discovered by a wandering bear. | 10/21/2022     | 10/22/2022  | 10/22/2022     |

This week on In Focus with IRSC Public Media, we'll hear about the First St. Lucie Youth Con, an opportunity for youth voices to be heard. Its taking place on Saturday December 10 from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in Port St. Lucie at the IRSC Pruitt Campus STEM Center. Kevin Singletary the Project Coordinator for the Kids at Hope Project tells us that he believes "this conference will impact the youth of this community for years to come." Singletary is joined by Jovil Wharton, the Project Coordinator of Drug Free St. Lucie, another one of the many community partners in the Roundtable of St. Lucie County. Then we'll hear about the Carnival of Lights at the Martin County Fairgrounds, it gets underway this weekend. This is the second annual Christmas time spectacular featuring Christmas lighting displays in all kinds of shapes, as well as 'A Castle Christmas', which is a digital light show featuring music and singing trees. The Carnival of Lights is a fund raiser needed to help pay for the Martin County Fair's big plans to move from their cramped quarters in Stuart out to Indiantown. Jay Spicer, the Director and Manager of the Martin County Fair joins us to talk about the big plans the Fair has once they raise enough money to move to the new site.

| This week on In Focus, with IRSC Public Media, 'Remember for Change' an organization founded by Melanie Trewyn who lost a daughter to a drunk driver less than two-years ago. She's turned her grief into a campaign to get tough on underage drinkers and the bartenders who serve them. Joining her is Devin Davis, a Senior from Fort Pierce Central High School. He's also president of the school's Leo Club and he's recruiting some students to join the 'Remember for a Change' rally on February 7. Then we'll talk about 'HealthyU', a public health outreach program created by Pat Roberts, who is the Deputy Director at the City of Port St. Lucie's Parks and Recreation Department. She established the program after losing her son to fentanyl. The aim of 'HealthyU' is to connect those suffering from emotional or physical trauma with the support services they need to enhance their quality of life. | 12/16/2022 | 12/17/2022   | 12/17/2022 |
