* * * * *

The political file includes final orders by candidates to buy particular schedules (including programs or dayparts), amounts of time (including spot or program lengths), and classes of time for particular days (such as preemptible spots, Monday-Friday rotations, runs of schedule or specific placements), and the charges made, if any.

Final orders in the political file are periodically updated with reconciliation information, including the times spots actually aired and details such as any make goods for preempted time, rebates, or credits issues. Consistent with the FCC's policy, the station will, upon request, provide immediate assistance and access to political file reconciliation information in person, by-email, or over the phone.

If you have any questions about the materials in the political file, please contact:
