

In the fourth quarter of 2016, WUSR continued to provide daily programming in collaboration with the United Way and the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind. The Pell Radio Reading Service began broadcasting July 1, 2009 doing daily readings from the Scranton Times-Tribune newspaper for the benefit of the blind community. The program is staffed by United Way volunteers and one paid part-time employee.

The program aired Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 10:00 am all quarter long except for federal holidays.

WUSR continued live coverage of University of Scranton basketball games, for both men's and women's teams.

WUSR also resumed broadcasting the Northeast Intermediate Unit Scholar of the Year program which broadcasts interviews conducted with students who excel in their studies. The program airs Sundays from 12:00 pm to 12:15 pm
