

KQIS ISSUES & PROGRAMS 2017

Jan, Feb, Mar 2017

1-22-17

Members of the radio station participated in a special photo shoot promoting the "Gentlemen's Challenge" which was an effort to promote positive images concerning the local minority community.

3-22-17

Local business owner Phil Mason and his staff joined us on air to discuss an effort to promote literacy in the community by including a special section in his barbershop where books are available to read.

Apr May, Jun 2017

4-4-17

Student Mike Hairston came in studio to talk about his passion for providing inspiration by using the "The Beezy Band" which he created as a tool to spread a positive message throughout his community and school.

4-7-17

Dr. Carey joined us on air to talk about career opportunities and scholarships available for the local Northwest Arkansas community.

4-14-17

Local business owner Nate Walls joined us to feed the community while supplies were available.

5-4-17

Dr. Denise Hoyer joined us in studio to discuss opportunities for children who need alternative schooling and educational opportunities through the ALPS program.

6-29-17

Marcus Monk talked on air about his program "AR Hoops" which provides unique opportunities to the youth in our area to play basketball and learn about how they can prepare for success in their lives.

Jul, Aug, Sept 2017

8-2-17

Along with local non-profit Fayettevillage we hosted a back to school backpack giveaway. Free food and prizes that were donated by local businesses were also given out.

8-11-17

Local entrepreneur Eric Jones joined the afternoon show as a co host to promote positive images for the community and talk about how to persevere in challenging times.

9-16-17

Local boxing coach Kevin Lightburn joined the afternoon show to discuss how boxing is helping people with mental and physical disabilities improve their life through a special free program that his gym provides.

Oct, Nov, Dec 2017

11-11-17

Along with Lifesource and Anytime Fitness we promoted and participated in a canned food drive to help feed those in need throughout the holidays

11-16-17

We held our annual turkey giveaway that aims to help ensure families have a turkey on thanksgiving.

12-20-17

The station held its annual toy drive that once again helped provide hundreds of children with toys for the holiday.

Provided by: Noel Sosa, Program Director