

Quarterly Report
Jul, Aug, Sept (3rd qtr)
2018

It is our endeavor to serve the public interest. Station KQIS Kiss 105.3 7 1340 broadcast programming responsive to issues of concern to the state of Arkansas and it's listening public. The following is a brief description of these issues and the station's most significant programming treatment of them:

7-24-18

Members of the Dream Big Charity Gala joined us on air to talk about helping guide local youth through their teen years and how to provide young people with opportunities for success.

7-25-18

In efforts to promote going back to school and pursuing proper education, The station participated in a free public event where haircuts were provided by local barber college students.

7-26-18

Local business owners Vicky and Alma with Variety Insurance came in to the studio to talk on air about a free public event that focused on giving back to the community through an annual back to school supply give away.

7-28-18

The station participated in a back to school bash that gave out around 900 backpack filled with school supplies. Other services such as haircuts and health screenings were also provided for free to the public.

8-2-18

The Station sponsored and participated in another back to school charity event that gave out school supplies and provided other services to local families. Members of the staff also participated in a charity basketball game that went along with the festivities.

8-22-18

The station participated in an event that was free for local college students and was aimed at helping the incoming class get to know the area and become familiar with certain career and employment opportunities in the local community.

9-18-18

In efforts to raise awareness, The Northwest Arkansas Center For Sexual Assault came into to studio to talk on air about the very real threat of sexual assault.