

Quarterly Report
Jan, Feb, Mar (1st qtr)
2019

2-20-19

Airic Hughes was interviewed on air to talk about the importance of people understanding their rights and different programs available locally to help educate and empower the community.

3-1-19

AAO (Arkansas Athlete Outreach) were in studio to talk about the importance of building a bridge between the community and local law enforcement. AAO focuses on using sports as a platform to make that connection a reality.

3-9-19

The station partnered with AAO for the annual Community Block Party. Helping to further efforts to establish a healthy and positive relationship between local law enforcement and the community. We participated in highlighting and promoting friendly communication and activity between all parties.

3-13-19

Members of The Matt Adams Foundation joined us on air to talk about how the Opioid epidemic is effecting people around the nation and especially right here in our community. They mentioned that through their foundation, they offer free help, counseling and medicine to help fight the fight against opioid addiction.