

KQIS Kiss 105.3 &1340
Bethel Heights, Arkansas
1st Quarterly Issues/Programming

January/ February/ March 2024

The following issues were identified as significant and addressed by KQIS radio to serve the community and act in the public interest as set forth by the Federal Communication Commission.

Description of Program Providing Most Significant Treatment of Community Issues

Program	Days	Times	Duration
The Day Party	Mondays	1pm-2pm	1 Hour

The above program is locally produced by the on-air talent in studio. Live in studio interviews are conducted with local people from the community talking about a host of issues and topics for our local listeners and residents.

Issues

The station has identified the following as significant issues facing the local community in this quarter:

1. Two local community programs with informative issues discussed.
2. Social Issues: Covered social issues and needs.
3. Politics: Covering local, state, and national politics.
4. Public Safety: Covered issues related to police, and crime.
5. Education: Covered issues related to education
6. Health: Provided information concerning health issues in the community.

January/ February/ March 2023

It is our endeavor to serve the public interest here on KQIS Kiss 105.3 & 1340 for the. We continuously broadcast issues of concern to Springdale/Bethel Height and the surrounding area listen to the public. The following is a brief description of these issues that were addressed during the 1st quarter.

Calvin Henderson discussed healthy lifestyles and how to use boxing to obtain health goals. Robyn Thomas talked about how to support female artists in northwest Arkansas and the importance of community shows. Jazzy Williams came by to talk about the Black Owned Business Expo and the importance of teaching ownership in the black community. Lindsey Leverett-Higgins came by and talked about the NWA MLK

Council and how people could get involved in the community for MLK day. Alice Guchazzo came to talk about community events in Springdale and different resources to help families in need. Michael Day spoke with DJ D. Sewell about the Arkansas Black Music and Film Expo. They also talked about their education initiative to help kids learn more about filming and producing.

Orson Weems and Greg Thompson talked about the Music Education Initiative and how they are helping kids learn the production side of putting events together.

Myron Jackson talked about the various programs UAPB has in place to help students with any types of needs. He also gave information to help parents with college students navigate through these tough times. Robyn Thomas talked about how to support female artists in Northwest Arkansas and the importance of community shows.