October/ November/ December 2022

It is our endeavor to serve the public interest. Here on KQIS Kiss 105.3, we continuously broadcast issues of concern to Bethel Height and the surrounding listening to the public. The following is a brief description of these issues that were addressed during the 4th quarter.

Ro Bailey came by and talked about community programs for future fashion designers. She discussed the impact of fashion and art to the NWA community.

Firuze Soltani talked to D. Sewell about what the community can do to support the women and Iran. Soltani informed us about the protest going on in Iran.

Stacey Harper talked about her health journey and how she survived cancer. She shared her holistic approach to beating the disease and she also talked about the systematic disparity for minority women fighting breast cancer.

Christopher Chukwecka and Tenisi Davis discussed the importance of the Detroit uprising in 1987 and what we can learn from those events that can help us today.

Stacy Seger from the Northwest Arkansas Women's shelter gave information on how the community can get involved and support the shelter. She also gave advice for Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Chef Nate Walls came by to talk about the community Friendsgiving event that feeds the public during the holiday season. Nate gave us info on how to donate and where people could go to get free food for the holidays.
