PSA-12

Shelby County Master Gardeners will host the first in a series of free garden talks Thursday, March 14, at the Amos Memorial Public Library in Sidney. Local Master Gardener Volunteer, Jim McCracken, will present "Grow Your Own." He will explain all you need to know to start your own plants from seed. The one-hour program starts at 6:30 in the lower-level meeting room and is free to the public. Refreshments and a door prize will be offered. No pre-registration is needed.
