		interview informed the audience about what is hospice care, when should one start looking into it, (usually Dr. recommended), if insurance covers it, and what to expect from it. She also gave advice to nurses wanting to enter the field and gave some advice to caretakers of those who needs hospice. Lety Knight is one of the co-founders of the non-profit called "El Nido." This non-profit is extremely new but her and the other co-founder already have a large following of women. They are doulas and founded El Nido to help women here on the borderland with emotional support, lactation support, and empowering women throughout their "reproductive years." She explained how El Nido includes support that is especially important to women in this area because of the unique challenges posed to them on the borderland, including help

		for migrants and including many aspects of various cultures, especially Hispanic, into their practices.
Non-Profit, Law Enforcement	El Paso Public Forum 11-26	Evelyn Corral is the Director of Field Operations for the Boys and Girls Clubs of El Paso. She spoke about this non-profit organization and how it offers kids in the YISD, Canutillo, EPISD, Clint and San Elizario school districts after school programs. She spoke about how to get more info and what kind of programs they have, including tutoring; Sgt Sambrano is the law enforcement liaison for Crimestoppers of El Paso, (csep). Eric Zubia is the Board president for CSEP. November is their anniversary month, so they came on to talk about CSEP, what is it, debunk the "tattletale" stigma. They talked about their fundraising and where the money goes to, which includes tech and phones lines for running the program. Mr. Zubia also gave financial values	Evelyn Corral and Deon James, Sgt. Sambrano and Eric Zubia	11/26/2023 of how much money was recovered due to tips given through CSEP which includes $48,860,254 in narcotics recovered, 4,765 arrests and 6513 cases cleared.

Non-Profit	El Paso Public Forum 12-3	Deon James is the founder of the non-profit "You're Worth More" which is a faith-based organization in El Paso. He spoke about his rooftop concert series to benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs of El Paso. Their efforts are to raise money to help rebuild the B&GC building; Nikki Gonzales is the executive director for the Kaleidoscope Art Market. She spoke about her 7th annual "Krampus Fest" to benefit the Reynold's Home. She talked about its beginning, why she started it, how she started it, and talked about some of the events happening that day. She gave info on location and hours, and how people are encouraged to use this as a donation site for the Reynold's Home. She gave a list of highly needed items for	Deon James and Nikki Gonzalez with Star Lucero	12/3/2023

		them including trash bags, cleaning supplies, diapers, socks, and more. Star Lucero was on the show previously, she is the Community Outreach director for the Reynold's Home. She spoke about how the Reynold's Home helps women and children with temporary housing, helps find women get jobs and how to save their money, helps with childcare and transportation while the women work, helps women find jobs and has a diaper pantry open to the public.
Non-Profit, Fine Arts	El Paso Public Forum 12-10	Estela Reyes-Lopez is the media relations and Public Information Officer for the Centro de Salud Familiar La Fe, ("La Fe," for short). She talked about La Fe's beginnings as a non-profit starting in the Segundo barrio of El Paso by revolutionary women, and growing into multiple medical facilities, a school, and having numerous events for the community. The	Estela Reyes-Lopez, Dianiel Maciel &amp; John Levick, Marissa Thurman &amp; Georgina Luna	12/10/2023

		event she spoke about this time was the 2023 "Navidad De La Fe Luminarias." She gave the date, time and location and described the scene of going up through scenic drive and how it will be lined with thousands of luminarias, bonfires, a live manger scene, Christmas songs, and as you approach Santa, (everything from the comfort of your car), you give Santa canned and non-perishable foods for others; Daniel Maciel and John Levick are from the Gilbert and Sullivan Company of El Paso. Daniel is the artistic director and actor who played Jacob Marley, and John is the actor who played Bob Cratchit. Daniel spoke about the history of the G&amp;S Co. and gave dates and times for the performance. I asked both men about playing their character, and what the audience could expect from the performance. He told me it was operetta style, and dinner would be Chinese food;

		Marissa Thurman is the theatre director, and Georgina Luna is the 2025 class sponsor and assistance theatre director at Del Valle High school. They came on to talk about the upcoming Conquistador Christmas Fair. They gave details on date, time and location, performances, and vendors to be present, and explained that funding was for an upcoming theatre Disney trip and prom. They also said this was being put on by the theatre students.
Health, Non-Profit	El Paso Public Forum 12-17	Jacob and Courtney Boggs are co-founders with another family for the Cure Mito Foundation. Their daughter, Emma, has a rare mitochondrial disease, also known as Leigh Syndrome. Courtney was a Nurse Practitioner who quit her job to become a full-time caretaker for Emma. They spoke about what the disease is and gave info on how to donate for genetic research in finding a cure. They spoke	Jacob Boggs & Courtney Boggs, Debra Ruz	12/17/2023

		about their personal details on how young Emma was when they found out, and the difficulties of having to watch her regress; Debra Ruz is the founder of "It's a Debbie Thing" and president of "reach for a Star." Both non-profits are similar in how they help children. Reach for a Star grants last wishes to terminally ill children. "It's a Debbie Thing" grants wishes for mostly anyone who reaches out to her and involves children. She spoke about how it started, and a few recent events she did including helping a family with a young child whose father had chosen his death date due to his fatal illness. She explained how she needs the community's help to make these events happen and gave some examples of how the community has come together for her in the past.
