MEET THE PRESS (6am Sundays on KING)

2015 4th QUARTER MEET THE PRESS TOPICS

Chuck Todd is NBC News Political Director and the moderator of "Meet the Press," the flagship Sunday Morning public affairs program and longest-running broadcast in television history.

COMING UP ON "MEET THE PRESS WITH CHUCK TODD" 10/4/15: SIT DOWN WITH DONALD TRUMP, NEW NBC NEWS/MARIST POLL NUMBERS FROM IOWA & NH

THURSDAY'S TRAGIC SHOOTINGS IN OREGON

As more details continue to emerge on Thursday's tragic shootings in Oregon, the United States turns again to a conversation focused on gun control and mental illness. President Obama immediately politicized the shootings to reignite the national debate, calling for action on gun safety legislation, while 2016 presidential contenders responded to the tragedy on the campaign trail. Chuck and the panel examine the ongoing national conversation and the likelihood of follow through in Washington.

ONE-ON-ONE SIT DOWN: PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE DONALD TRUMP

Republican presidential frontrunner Donald Trump released his tax plan earlier this week, making headlines with its estimated cost of $12 trillion over 10 years -- a direct counter to his pledge that the plan "doesn't add to our debt and deficit." Trump also reversed his earlier support of welcoming Syrian migrants to the United States, stating this week that they are "going back" because they "could be ISIS." Chuck talks with Trump in person about all of this and more.

NEW NBC NEWS/MARIST POLLS NUMBERS FROM IOWA & NEW HAMPSHIRE

"Meet the Press" will have the first look at new poll numbers out Sunday on where 2016 presidential contenders stand in the two earliest states: Iowa and New Hampshire.

RUSSIA BEGINS AIRSTRIKES ON SYRIA

On Wednesday, Russia began strategic airstrikes in Syria in the fight against ISIS, warning the U.S. to steer clear of Syria's airspace. The bombings have come under question from U.S. officials on whether the strikes are also targeting rebels trying to overthrow Russia's longtime ally President Bashar Assad. What does this mean for the U.S. and its strategy? Chuck talks with two former presidential advisers, Stephen Hadley and Michael McFaul, on the developing situation overseas.

Stephen Hadley

Former National Security Advisor to President George W. Bush

Michael McFaul

Rep. Charlie Dent joins Chuck to discuss chaos in the House and how his Republicans are strategizing around the Speaker race, which was upended on Thursday with an abrupt exit from House Majority Leader Kevin McCarthy.

"Well it's pretty obvious what happened. The same members who wanted to take down John Boehner, I always said, would try to frag the next guy. Well, they just fraged Kevin McCarthy."
– Dent on MSNBC Thursday

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: REP. DAVE BRAT (R-VA)

Rep. Dave Brat, the man who topped former House Majority Leader Eric Cantor and rode into Congress on a wave of Tea Party support, talks with Chuck about how House Republicans are reacting to Rep. McCarthy's decision.

"It seems to me our group is putting up somebody who's principled and could work with both sides, be fair to both sides." - Brat, a member of the Freedom Caucus, on its support for Rep. Webster for Speaker

ONE-ON-ONE WITH PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE SEN. BERNIE SANDERS (I-VT)

With his first presidential debate this Tuesday, Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-VT) joins Chuck in-studio to discuss his stance on trade, employment, the United States' role in Syria, his fellow 2016 contender Hillary Clinton, and who he would name as a running mate.

"There are more than a few Republicans for Bernie Sanders out there." - Sanders on MSNBC's "Morning Joe" this week

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: GOV. JOHN KASICH (R-OH), PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

Earlier this week, Kasich proposed a new government agency to push Judeo-Christian values around the world, but yesterday, he moved away from the proposal, saying a “new agency” isn’t necessary. Kasich discusses his rhetoric -- and the overheated rhetoric on the campaign trail this week -- with Chuck as well as his foreign policy positions.

“The idea that someone would have to register with the federal government because of their religion strikes against all that we have believed in our nation’s history.” - Kasich’s response to Trump’s proposal of creating a mandatory database to track Muslims

THE WEEK IN POLITICS

There’s been a wide range of responses this week to last Friday’s terror attacks in Paris, including a bill passed on the Hill and several state governors opposing Syrian refugees relocating to the U.S. The roundtable discusses all of this and more from the week in politics.

UPDATED: COMING UP ON “MEET THE PRESS” 12/20/15: TRUMP, SANDERS; SUNDAY EXCLUSIVES WITH SPEAKER RYAN, CLINTON CHAIRMAN PODESTA

INTERVIEW: PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE DONALD TRUMP

Republican presidential frontrunner Donald Trump joins the show by phone to discuss the state of his presidential campaign, including his comments on Russian President Vladimir Putin, his Iowa strategy and more.

Tweet from Trump on Saturday - @realDonaldTrump: See, Sanders backed Hillary on E-mails at the debate, hurting himself, and then she threw him under the bus (but failed). Disloyal person!

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: HOUSE SPEAKER PAUL RYAN (R-WIS.)

After congressional Republicans cut a deal with Democrats and the Obama White House on a $1 trillion-plus spending bill, the conservative right has been pretty quiet. Had former Speaker Boehner and/or Rep. McCarthy cut the same deal, would the right have revolted? Chuck speaks exclusively with House Speaker Ryan on Capitol Hill to discuss his early win on the spending bill and the latest in the 2016 presidential race.

“We are not here to smooth things over. We are here to shake things up.” - Speaker Ryan’s address at the Library of Congress earlier this month

INTERVIEW: PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE SEN. BERNIE SANDERS (I-VT)

Fresh off Saturday night’s Democratic debate, Sen. Sanders will join the show from New Hampshire to discuss his debate performance, this week’s campaign data breach and the state of his presidential campaign.

“The leadership of the Democratic National Committee is now actively attempting to undermine our campaign.” - Jeff Weaver, Sanders 2016 campaign manager, on the data breach in a statement on Friday

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: JOHN PODESTA, CHAIRMAN OF 2016 HILLARY CLINTON CAMPAIGN

John Podesta, chairman of the 2016 Clinton campaign, joins “Meet the Press” exclusively this Sunday to discuss Clinton’s Saturday night debate performance, her campaign’s preparation for the Iowa caucus and the New Hampshire primary, and more.

“He has gone way over the line, and what he’s saying now is not only shameful and wrong, it’s dangerous.” - Hillary Clinton discussing Donald Trump on “Late Night with Seth Meyers”

THE WEEK IN POLITICS

How are donors reacting to the Team Cruz v. Team Rubio immigration battle? Will Martin O’Malley get any movement from Saturday’s Democratic debate? Is the passage of the spending bill by 150 House Republicans a sign of confidence in their new Speaker? The panel discusses all of this and more from the week in politics.
