

PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
for
WPPX-TV
Wilmington, Delaware
for
SECOND QUARTER ENDING JUNE 30, 2016

In accordance with Section 73.3526(e) (11) (i) of the Federal Communications Commission's rules, The following, in the opinion of WPPX-TV, are the problems and needs of the community for The period noted above. They are not necessarily listed in order of importance. Each is identified by significant public affairs and/or public service programming in response to these needs.

Issues:

1. How to make nutritious health bars
2. How to cope with Alzheimer's Disease
3. What is proper care for pets
4. How to receive proper mental health care
5. The help available to single parent families
6. The many benefits the Wilmington Fire Department gives
7. How the growing rate of Autism affects families
8. How to get basic English skills either as a second language or just increasing current skills
9. How to make tasty, healthful snacks for a fun party
10. How to create cheese fondue

A detailed summary of each program's content, including guests, affiliations and date of broadcast is included in this report.

Windows on Wilmington is a one hour community affairs program covering issues and affairs that are important to the Wilmington, De area. It reaches out to interview non-profit, corporate and community organizations as well as individuals to explore topical issues of local interest.

Living Well is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness and helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 406
Air Date: Tuesday, April 5, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh with Anna Olsen, Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Guests: Fresh With Anna Olson: Host Anna Olson
Loving Spoonfuls: Host David Gale
Guests: Nina Witkowski

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh With Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. In this episode Anna makes food to fuel competing rowers that are in town. Anna makes granola bars packed with seeds and nuts, tofu skewers with walnut pesto and potato vegetable samosas with mango chutney. She also visits Grimo's Nut Nursery where we learn about different types of walnuts.

Loving Spoonfuls is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. In this episode David visits the home of Nina Withkowski, who is a Polish Grandmother. Together they make ushka, sernik and borscht from fresh beets in Nina's garden.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 032316
Air Date: Thursday, April 7, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Alzheimer's Disease, Latino Art, Proper Pet Care, Local Theatre, Local Arts Programs
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Dr. James Ellison, Heather Campbell Coyle, Greg Munson, Jennifer Brown, Mark Fields and Tina Betz

Dr. James Ellison from The Swank Memory Care Center at Christiana Care opened the show, discussing the approximately 26,000 people across Delaware coping with Alzheimer's disease or a related disorder. The Swank Memory Care Center at Christiana Care is Delaware's first and only comprehensive outpatient office for patients with memory disorders and their families. This facility provides support services, adult daycare and other options for families who are coping with a family member who suffers from memory loss. Next, Heather Campbell Coyle from The Delaware Art Museum discussed The Latino Presence in American Art exhibit. This art presents the rich and varied contributions of Latino artists in the United States since the mid-20th century. Then Greg Munson and Jennifer Brown from the Delaware Humane Association discussed how each year, hundreds of animals end up in the Delaware Humane Association where they receive care, good meals and the chance to go to a new home. They also discussed ways to donate and volunteer in addition to events that will take place. Next, Mark Fields from the Grand Opera House/The Playhouse discussed the shows that will run at The Playhouse. He also talked about how the next season will be different from this season and how folks can enjoy both venues if they buy specific show line-ups. Finally, Tina Betz from Light Up the Queen Foundation discussed the collaboration with Delaware Institute for Arts In Education and meeting Delaware music and dance standards Light Up the Queen Foundation and World Cafe Live at The Queen present In School Arts Residencies programs that enrich children through arts education.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 407
Air Date: Tuesday, April 12, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh with Anna Olsen, Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: Ion Life
Issues Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Guests: Fresh With Anna Olson: Host Anna Olson
Guests: Michael Olson, Charlie Parker
Loving Spoonfuls: Host David Gale
Guests: Anja Karpinnen

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olsen" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. The local jazz and blues fest is in full swing, and Anna has planned the perfect picnic with Michael and their friends Bob and Jean. Stop by the local honey apiary Charlie-Bee with Anna and get a tour from Charlie himself. Anna uses the fresh honey in her Club Sandwich Roll and rounds out the meal with a Wheat Berry Vegetable Salad, and a Jazzy Platz dessert before packing it up for a music infused picnic lunch.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. This episode brings the laughs when Finnish grandmother Anja Karpinnen dares David to eat the eye of the salmon and David dares Anja back.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 032316
Air Date: Thursday, April 14, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Alzheimer's Disease, Latino Art, Proper Pet Care, Local Theatre, Local Arts Programs
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Dr. James Ellison, Heather Campbell Coyle, Greg Munson, Jennifer Brown, Mark Fields and Tina Betz

Dr. James Ellison from The Swank Memory Care Center at Christiana Care opened the show, discussing the approximately 26,000 people across Delaware coping with Alzheimer's disease or a related disorder. The Swank Memory Care Center at Christiana Care is Delaware's first and only comprehensive outpatient office for patients with memory disorders and their families. This facility provides support services, adult daycare and other options for families who are coping with a family member who suffers from memory loss. Next, Heather Campbell Coyle from The Delaware Art Museum discussed The Latino Presence in American Art exhibit. This art presents the rich and varied contributions of Latino artists in the United States since the mid-20th century. Then Greg Munson and Jennifer Brown from the Delaware Humane Association discussed how each year, hundreds of animals end up in the Delaware Humane Association where they receive care, good meals and the chance to go to a new home. They also discussed ways to donate and volunteer in addition to events that will take place. Next, Mark Fields from the Grand Opera House/The Playhouse discussed the shows that will run at The Playhouse. He also talked about how the next season will be different from this season and how folks can enjoy both venues if they buy specific show line-ups. Finally, Tina Betz from Light Up the Queen Foundation discussed the collaboration with Delaware Institute for Arts In Education and meeting Delaware music and dance standards Light Up the Queen Foundation and World Cafe Live at The Queen present In School Arts Residencies programs that enrich children through arts education.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 408
Air Date: Tuesday, April 19, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh with Anna Olsen, Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Guests: Fresh With Anna Olson: Host Anna Olson
Loving Spoonfuls: Host David Gale
Guests: Loza Stavroff

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. Michael's nephew Chris and his wife Anna are in town for the weekend and they've been invited over for a lazy and relaxing brunch. Anna gets a head start on the Blueberry Sticky Buns the evening before, and stops by the Muileboom Greenhouse for fresh tomatoes and cucumber for her fabulous Huevos Rancheros (with bacon) first thing in the morning. The meal is rounded out with three fabulous Fruit Antipasti platters.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. Loza Stavroff makes two different flaky Banitsas, and teaches David to dance a Horo.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 041316
Air Date: Thursday, April 21, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Mental Health, Elderly Care, Autism, AARP, Health Awareness
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Sen. Bethany Hall-Long, Edwina Bell, Amy Milligan, Maria Miller, David Woods, Sheila Grant, Helen Tang Yates, Alyson Lang and Gail Council

Senator Bethany Hall-Long and Edwina Bell discussed The State of Delaware Behavioral & Mental Health Task Force which was formed in 2015 to address a growing concern in Delaware with mental health. The task force wants to address the gaps that exist in receiving treatment for mental illness and substance abuse. Secondly, Amy Milligan and Maria Miller discussed how St. Francis LIFE is a Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly. This unique model of care helps seniors live safely at home with assistance from a team of compassionate healthcare experts. Next, David Woods from Autism DE discussed how Autism affects 1 in 68 children and 1 in 42 boys and Autism prevalence figures are growing. Autism is one of the fastest-growing developmental disorders in the U.S. and costs a family $60,000 a year on average. Then, Sheila Grant and Helen Tang Yates from AARP discussed how AARP is dedicated to enhancing quality of life for adults as they age. AARP leads positive social change and delivers value to members through information, advocacy and service. Finally, Alyson Lang and Gaye Council from the Wilmington Health Planning Council discussed The 14th Annual Wilmington Wellness Day. This event aims to raise awareness with a variety of health issues and educate people on the importance of making healthy life style changes.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 409
Air Date: Tuesday, April 26, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh with Anna Olsen, Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Host(s): Anna Olson and David Gale
Guests: Carry Katherine-musician and Anna's Olson's niece
Don-drummer
Rudolpha Hood- Grandmother

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. In this episode Anna organizes a fundraising concert featuring the music of her niece Carry-Katherine who is a recording artist. Before heading over to the event, Anna prepares finger foods for a family visit while her niece warms up for the performance with her drummer. The menu centers around a rotisserie chicken served with four different sauces and bases along with potato mushroom bruschetta.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. In this episode David visits the home of Rudolpha Hood who is from the Island of Nevis. Rudolpha shares stories of the past while preparing Johnny Cakes and codfish with David.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 041316
Air Date: Thursday, April 28, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Mental Health, Elderly Care, Autism, AARP, Health Awareness
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Sen. Bethany Hall-Long, Edwina Bell, Amy Milligan, Maria Miller, David Woods,
Sheila Grant, Helen Tang Yates, Alyson Lang and Gail Council

Senator Bethany Hall-Long and Edwina Bell discussed The State of Delaware Behavioral & Mental Health Task Force which was formed in 2015 to address a growing concern in Delaware with mental health. The task force wants to address the gaps that exist in receiving treatment for mental illness and substance abuse. Secondly, Amy Milligan and Maria Miller discussed how St. Francis LIFE is a Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly. This unique model of care helps seniors live safely at home with assistance from a team of compassionate healthcare experts. Next, David Woods from Autism DE discussed how Autism affects 1 in 68 children and 1 in 42 boys and Autism prevalence figures are growing. Autism is one of the fastest-growing developmental disorders in the U.S. and costs a family $60,000 a year on average. Then, Sheila Grant and Helen Tang Yates from AARP discussed how AARP is dedicated to enhancing quality of life for adults as they age. AARP leads positive social change and delivers value to members through information, advocacy and service. Finally, Alyson Lang and Gail Council from the Wilmington Health Planning Council discussed The 14th Annual Wilmington Wellness Day. This event aims to raise awareness with a variety of health issues and educate people on the importance of making healthy life style changes.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 410
Air Date: Tuesday, May 3, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh with Anna Olsen, Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Host(s): Anna Olson and David Gale
Guests: Mike & Tina Papp-Anna's Friends, Zorka Jovancevic –Grandmother

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. In this episode Anna cooks a summer supper as a thank you to her friends Mike and Tina for giving her leftover vegetables from their garden. Anna incorporates the vegetables into her menu and makes Super Burgers, chili sauce, pickled green tomatoes and tiramisu pudding.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. In this episode David visits the home of Zorka Jovancevic from Yugoslavia. Zorka shares stories with David, while making cabbage rolls, noodles and poppy seed cake.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 042716
Air Date: Thursday, May 5, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Behavioral Challenged People, Benefits of Active Children, Opera, Jazz, Wilmington Parks
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Kendra Johnson, Kim Chitty, Liz Baldwin, Brendan Cooke, Kenny Briscoe, Shawn Baker

First, Kendra Johnson from Elwyn discussed how they are one of the nation's oldest private non-profit organizations serving people with intellectual, developmental and behavioral challenges. She also discussed Elwyn's employment services and fund raising events. Secondly, Kim Chitty and Liz Baldwin from Girls on the Run discussed how this program inspires girls to be joyful, healthy and confident using a fun, experience-based curriculum which creatively integrates running. They also talked about their community project that they are working on in conjunction with the Food Bank. Next, Brendan Cooke from Opera Delaware discussed how this company is the only professional opera company in the state of Delaware and the 11th oldest in the country. It is a source of economic revitalization and a source of arts education for many schools in the area that have none. Then, Kenny Briscoe from the Department of Cultural Affairs talked about The 2016 DuPont Clifford Brown Jazz Festival which kicks off on Tuesday, June 21st and runs until Saturday, June 25th in Rodney Square in downtown Wilmington. Kenny also discussed the local talent that will be featured in the jazz festival as well as events that will take place after the festival. Shawn Baker from the City of Wilmington Parks & Recreation Department talked about the number of activities that are underway at parks & rec for the entire family. He also discussed the need for additional lifeguards at the pools and he talked about the pool opening schedules.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 411
Air Date: Tuesday, May 10, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh With Anna Olson, Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Guests: Fresh With Anna Olson: Host Anna Olson
Loving Spoonfuls: Host David Gale
Guests: Hyun-Joo Cho

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own.

Anna has been asked to judge a pie baking contest for the town's local food festival, and this episode of Fresh is all about pie inspired recipes! Anna stops by the Williams Apple Orchard to pick ingredients for her Country Apple Pie. Next she creates a Potato Bisque with bacon and cheddar and her specialty, Anna's Tourtiere.

Anna delivers her meal to her fellow judges before the pie tasting begins!

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. Hyun-Joo Cho practices spiritual self-healing through her cooking. Cold vegetarian salads and some warm apple wontons are for dinner.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 042716
Air Date: Thursday, May 12, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Behavioral Challenged People, Benefits of Active Children, Opera, Jazz, Wilmington Parks
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Kendra Johnson, Kim Chitty, Liz Baldwin, Brendan Cooke, Kenny Briscoe, Shawn Baker

First, Kendra Johnson from Elwyn discussed how they are one of the nation's oldest private non-profit organizations serving people with intellectual, developmental and behavioral challenges. She also discussed Elwyn's employment services and fund raising events. Secondly, Kim Chitty and Liz Baldwin from Girls on the Run discussed how this program inspires girls to be joyful, healthy and confident using a fun, experience-based curriculum which creatively integrates running. They also talked about their community project that they are working on in conjunction with the Food Bank. Next, Brendan Cooke from Opera Delaware discussed how this company is the only professional opera company in the state of Delaware and the 11th oldest in the country. It is a source of economic revitalization and a source of arts education for many schools in the area that have none. Then, Kenny Briscoe from the Department of Cultural Affairs talked about The 2016 DuPont Clifford Brown Jazz Festival which kicks off on Tuesday, June 21st and runs until Saturday, June 25th in Rodney Square in downtown Wilmington. Kenny also discussed the local talent that will be featured in the jazz festival as well as events that will take place after the festival. Shawn Baker from the City of Wilmington Parks & Recreation Department talked about the number of activities that are underway at parks & rec for the entire family. He also discussed the need for additional lifeguards at the pools and he talked about the pool opening schedules.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 412
Air Date: Tuesday, May 17, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh With Anna Olson, Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Guests: Fresh With Anna Olson: Host Anna Olson
Loving Spoonfuls: Host David Gale
Guests: Regine Frankel

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own.

For the past eight years Anna has participated in the Eat to the Beat breast cancer fundraiser event. This event is all about healthy foods like Anna's Blueberry Muffins, and elegant hors d'oeuvres like Turkey and Trimming Pinwheels, and Squash and Cheddar Soufflés. See Anna in her full chef whites as this stunning event unfolds.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. Regine Frankel tells riveting tales of surviving World War 2 as a Jew in France and sharing his recipe for vegetarian meatballs.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 042716
Air Date: Thursday, May 19, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Behavioral Challenged People, Benefits of Active Children, Opera, Jazz, Wilmington Parks
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Kendra Johnson, Kim Chitty, Liz Baldwin, Brendan Cooke, Kenny Briscoe, Shawn Baker

First, Kendra Johnson from Elwyn discussed how they are one of the nation's oldest private non-profit organizations serving people with intellectual, developmental and behavioral challenges. She also discussed Elwyn's employment services and fund raising events. Secondly, Kim Chitty and Liz Baldwin from Girls on the Run discussed how this program inspires girls to be joyful, healthy and confident using a fun, experience-based curriculum which creatively integrates running. They also talked about their community project that they are working on in conjunction with the Food Bank. Next, Brendan Cooke from Opera Delaware discussed how this company is the only professional opera company in the state of Delaware and the 11th oldest in the country. It is a source of economic revitalization and a source of arts education for many schools in the area that have none. Then, Kenny Briscoe from the Department of Cultural Affairs talked about The 2016 DuPont Clifford Brown Jazz Festival which kicks off on Tuesday, June 21st and runs until Saturday, June 25th in Rodney Square in downtown Wilmington. Kenny also discussed the local talent that will be featured in the jazz festival as well as events that will take place after the festival. Shawn Baker from the City of Wilmington Parks & Recreation Department talked about the number of activities that are underway at parks & rec for the entire family. He also discussed the need for additional lifeguards at the pools and he talked about the pool opening schedules.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 413
Air Date: Tuesday, May 24, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh With Anna Olson and Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Host(s): Anna Olson and David Gale
Guests: Andrew Vegetato- Italian Ice Cream
April Horncastle- Pastry Chef/Bride-To-Be
Heidi Kuhner- Swiss Grandmother

Commented [CD1]: Adjust duration where applicable

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

"This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. In this episode, Anna throws a wedding shower lunch for her pastry chef, April. Anna makes Beet and Buttermilk Soup, Luncheon Sandwich Torte and an Ice Cream Layer Cake.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. In this episode David visits the home of Swiss grandmother Heidi Kuhner, where he learns how to make Cheese Fondue, Linzer Torte and a Mushroom Soufflé.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 051116
Air Date: Thursday, May 26, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Fire Department Benefits, Mental Health Services, Education, Blood Drive,
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Joey Leonetti, Bruce Schweinger, Susan Cycyk, Cathy Parsells, John Williams, Michael Waite, Perry Davis and Ronald Kinard

First, Joey Leonetti and Bruce Schweinger from the Wilmington Fire Department discuss how throughout the year the WFD Union is involved with multiple events that benefit and support the City of Wilmington. These include coats for kids, Turkey drives, softball tournaments for charitable organizations and much more. Secondly, Susan Cycyk from The Division of Prevention and Behavioral Health Services discuss how this program provides a statewide continuum of prevention services, early intervention services, and mental health and substance abuse (behavioral health) treatment programs for children and youth. Then Cathy Parsells and John Williams from The Kalmar Nyckel Foundation discuss how the foundation is a non-profit educational organization dedicated to "preserving and promoting the cultural and maritime heritage of Delaware for the education and enrichment of all. Next, Michael Waite from The Bank of Delmarva discusses how the BBD serves our community by meeting the needs of patients, hospitals, and members for safe, high quality blood products and related services. He also talked about the Summer Blood Challenge which kicks off soon. Finally, Perry Davis and Ronald Kinard from The Maintenance Apprenticeship Program discussed how this program provides training for youth ages 14 to 18 with basic employable skills. These areas are basic plumbing, electrical, dry wall, carpentry and much more. They also discussed the Prayer Chain Foundation and how people can get involved with this.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 414
Air Date: Tuesday, May 31, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh With Anna Olson and Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Host(s): Anna Olson and David Gale
Guests: David Irish- David Irish's Farm
Evelyn Koop- Grandmother

Commented [CD2]: Adjust duration where applicable

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. In this episode Anna delivers a working lunch for a meeting in progress at a local college. She puts together a scrumptious vegetarian menu including Vegetable Salad Rolls with a Cashew Cream, Honey Yogurt Cheesecake with Fresh Mango and a Roasted Garlic Vegetable Tart.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. In this episode David visits the home of Estonian Grandmother Evelyn Koop, who introduced rhythmic dancing to the Olympics. Evelyn shows David how to make Rollmops and Rosolje.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 052516
Air Date: Thursday, June 2, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Children's Needs, Building Homes for Hope, Adult Literacy, History of Business, Theater and Performing Arts
Female Empowerment, Science Competition for Middle Schoolers
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Dr. Michelle Shaivitz, Andria Keating, Kevin Smith, Cindy Shermeyer, Jessica Eisenbrey, Mark Fields

First, Dr. Michelle Shaivitz and Andria Keating from The Delaware Association for the Education of Young Children discussed how the organization acts on behalf of the needs, rights and well-being of children from birth through age eight and their families in Delaware. Second on the show was Kevin Smith from Habitat for Humanity NCC describing how it brings people together to build homes, communities and hope. He also talked about their current build and how families can become home owners. Then, Cindy Shermeyer from Literacy Volunteers Serving Adults discussed how the organization has provided free tutoring services for all Delawareans who want to learn how to read and write, or learn basic English language skills for over 30 years. She also discussed the need for volunteers and how this program changes lives. Next, Jessica Eisenbrey from the Hagley Museum and Library talk about how the museum and library has educated millions of visitors and scholars on the history of business, industry and innovation through educational exhibits and world-class research collections. She also talked about current exhibits and tours. Finally, The Grand Opera House & The Playhouse on Rodney Square offer a variety of shows. Mark Fields who is the Executive Director of the Grand and the Playhouse talked about the upcoming season and different ways you can enjoy shows at a cost effective price.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 415
Air Date: Tuesday, June 7, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh with Anna Olson and Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Guests: Fresh With Anna Olson: Host Anna Olson
Loving Spoonfuls: Host David Gale
Guests: Luzia Nunes

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. Anna's friend Susan is having an important birthday and is looking forward to an elegant dinner with a few of her close friends. Anna starts by preparing a Slow Roasted Prime Rib with a rich mushroom jus (brandy). She then heads to her friend Cheryl's farm stand to get fresh ingredients for a Warm Squash and Ricotta Salad. She finishes the meal with a Honey Walnut Torte – a classic Viennese birthday cake.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. Luzia Nunes left her home in the Azores to teach David how to cook authentic Portuguese-style fish stew and reveals why she's called "Crazy Luzia".

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 052516
Air Date: Thursday, June 9, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Children's Needs, Building Homes for Hope, Adult Literacy, History of Business, Theater and Performing Arts
Female Empowerment, Science Competition for Middle Schoolers
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Dr. Michelle Shaivitz, Andria Keating, Kevin Smith, Cindy Shermeyer, Jessica Eisenbrey, Mark Fields

First, Dr. Michelle Shaivitz and Andria Keating from The Delaware Association for the Education of Young Children discussed how the organization acts on behalf of the needs, rights and well-being of children from birth through age eight and their families in Delaware. Second on the show was Kevin Smith from Habitat for Humanity NCC describing how it brings people together to build homes, communities and hope. He also talked about their current build and how families can become home owners. Then, Cindy Shermeyer from Literacy Volunteers Serving Adults discussed how the organization has provided free tutoring services for all Delawareans who want to learn how to read and write, or learn basic English language skills for over 30 years. She also discussed the need for volunteers and how this program changes lives. Next, Jessica Eisenbrey from the Hagley Museum and Library talk about how the museum and library has educated millions of visitors and scholars on the history of business, industry and innovation through educational exhibits and world-class research collections. She also talked about current exhibits and tours. Finally, The Grand Opera House & The Playhouse on Rodney Square offer a variety of shows. Mark Fields who is the Executive Director of the Grand and the Playhouse talked about the upcoming season and different ways you can enjoy shows at a cost effective price.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 416
Air Date: Tuesday, June 14, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh with Anna Olson and Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Guests: Fresh With Anna Olson: Host Anna Olson
Loving Spoonfuls: Host David Gale
Guests: Andrea Vincent

"Living Well" is a one hour community affairs program that is dedicated to active lifestyles, wellness & helpful information that leads to a more empowered life. The featured shows in "Living Well" are "Fresh with Anna Olson" and "Loving Spoonfuls".

Description:

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. Anna's parents are visiting and she's preparing a traditional Sunday Supper. In order to make a wholesome, hardy meal, she pairs a Whole Roasted Pork Loin in a mustard marmalade glaze with Roasted Root Vegetables in a warm vinaigrette. For desert, Anna heads to Whitty Farm to get fresh pears for her Spiced Chocolate Pear Tart.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. Hungarian grandmother Andrea Vincent tells heart-wrenching tales of life and love while making Sour Cherry Soup and a Wine Cream.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 052516
Air Date: Thursday, June 16, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: Children's Needs, Building Homes for Hope, Adult Literacy, History of Business, Theater and Performing Arts
Female Empowerment, Science Competition for Middle Schoolers
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Dr. Michelle Shaivitz, Andria Keating, Kevin Smith, Cindy Shermeyer, Jessica Eisenbrey, Mark Fields

First, Dr. Michelle Shaivitz and Andria Keating from The Delaware Association for the Education of Young Children discussed how the organization acts on behalf of the needs, rights and well-being of children from birth through age eight and their families in Delaware. Second on the show was Kevin Smith from Habitat for Humanity NCC describing how it brings people together to build homes, communities and hope. He also talked about their current build and how families can become home owners. Then, Cindy Shermeyer from Literacy Volunteers Serving Adults discussed how the organization has provided free tutoring services for all Delawareans who want to learn how to read and write, or learn basic English language skills for over 30 years. She also discussed the need for volunteers and how this program changes lives. Next, Jessica Eisenbrey from the Hagley Museum and Library talk about how the museum and library has educated millions of visitors and scholars on the history of business, industry and innovation through educational exhibits and world-class research collections. She also talked about current exhibits and tours. Finally, The Grand Opera House & The Playhouse on Rodney Square offer a variety of shows. Mark Fields who is the Executive Director of the Grand and the Playhouse talked about the upcoming season and different ways you can enjoy shows at a cost effective price.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 417
Air Date: Tuesday, March 22, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh With Anna Olson and Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Host(s): Anna Olson and David Gale
Guests: Ann Bering-White Meadows Maple Syrup Farm
Winifred Field-Grandmother
Janet-Winifred's Daughter

Commented [CD3]: Adjust duration where applicable

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. Anna prepares a special meal that both adults and children can enjoy for her guests who have kids. She makes Sweet Onion Dip with Veggies, Three Cheese Pasta Bake, Maple Garlic Roasted Chicken and Very Vanilla Cupcakes that everyone can decorate themselves. Anna also visits White Meadows Maple Syrup Farm.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. In this episode David visits the home of British Grandmother Winifred Field who is from London, England and a decorated war hero. While Winifred talks about her life in England and Canada, they make Classic Steak and Kidney Pie and Poor Man's Trifle. Winifred's daughter Janet also gives them a hand in the kitchen.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 060816
Air Date: Thursday, June 23, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: AIDS, Adoption, Thinking Healthy, Local Events and Jazz Residency
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Frank Hawkins, Lisa Johnson, Alyson Lang, Niki Robison, Tina Betz and Jonathan Whitney

First, Frank Hawkins from AIDS Delaware discussed the 2016 Delaware Teen Idol Auditions. He talked about how the showcase provides a positive outlet for the youth to be creative in the way of singing, dancing, spoken word or rap. Secondly, Lisa Johnson from Adopt-A-Family discussed how during a typical year, the Adopt-A-Family program, with assistance from the Human Services Councils of New Castle County and Kent/Sussex Counties, has provided urgently needed assistance to over 4,500 disadvantaged Delaware families totaling more than 15,000 individuals. Most of the beneficiaries are single parent households, children and senior citizens. Then, Alyson Lang from Each 1 Teach 1 talked about The 3rd Annual New Castle Avenue Health Hook-Up. She discussed how this event will promote a healthy lifestyle and will offer a variety of health screenings and fun events for the entire family. Next, Niki Robison from The Southbridge section of Wilmington discussed Southbridge Weekend. She talked about the events that will take place and how folks in the city and New Castle County can get involved. Finally, Tina Betz and Jonathan Whitney from The Light Up the Queen Foundation talked about the "Boysie" Lowery Living Jazz Residency which is modeled after the Kennedy Center's Betty Carter Jazz Ahead Residency Project. The "Boysie" Lowery Living Jazz Residency is a two-week performance and composition project for the next generation of jazz composers, who, with their talent and passion, are keeping jazz alive.

WPPX-TV, Wilmington, De
PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT
SECOND QUARTER, 2016

Program: Living Well Episode # 418
Air Date: Tuesday, June 28, 2016 6:00 am
Topic/Title: Fresh With Anna Olson and Loving Spoonfuls
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Human Interest
Source: ION Life
Issue(s) Addressed: Organic, healthy, local and culturally diverse cooking.
Host(s): Anna Olson and David Gale
Guests: Charles Baker- Stratus Winery
Maria-Angelica Enriquez- Grandmother
Gabriela-Maria- Angelica's Daughter

Commented [CD4]: Adjust duration where applicable

This inspirational series takes viewers inside Anna's world – a chef who truly lives food around the clock. Learn how you too can become inspired by fresh foods in your area, and watch as her enthusiasm motivates you to try new culinary creations of your own. Anna hosts a wine maker's dinner at a friend's winery. She builds a menu around particular wines using flavors that will go well with red wines. Anna makes Rosemary Roasted Rack of Lamb, Date and Pistachio Salsa, Three Onion Couscous, Parsnips Bakes with Moroccan Spices and Baked Figs with Honey and Yogurt.

This delightful cooking series is devoted to characters, cultures and food. Each week, host David Gale visits a different grandmother to cook, laugh and learn about her life. In this episode David visits the home of Chilean Grandmother Maria-Angelica Enriquez. They make Seafood Soup and Corn Pie. Gabriela-Maria's daughter gives them a hand. While they are cooking they talk about Gabriela-Maria's life in Chile and Canada.

Program: Windows on Wilmington Episode # 060816
Air Date: Thursday, June 30, 2016 6:00 am
Duration: 60 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: WITG Wilmington, De (Channel 22)
Issues Addressed: AIDS, Adoption, Thinking Healthy, Local Events and Jazz Residency
Host: Shannon Harris
Guests: Frank Hawkins, Lisa Johnson, Alyson Lang, Niki Robison, Tina Betz and Jonathan Whitney

First, Frank Hawkins from AIDS Delaware discussed the 2016 Delaware Teen Idol Auditions. He talked about how the showcase provides a positive outlet for the youth to be creative in the way of singing, dancing, spoken word or rap. Secondly, Lisa Johnson from Adopt-A-Family discussed how during a typical year, the Adopt-A-Family program, with assistance from the Human Services Councils of New Castle County and Kent/Sussex Counties, has provided urgently needed assistance to over 4,500 disadvantaged Delaware families totaling more than 15,000 individuals. Most of the beneficiaries are single parent households, children and senior citizens. Then, Alyson Lang from Each 1 Teach 1 talked about The 3rd Annual New Castle Avenue Health Hook-Up. She discussed how this event will promote a healthy lifestyle and will offer a variety of health screenings and fun events for the entire family. Next, Niki Robison from The Southbridge section of Wilmington discussed Southbridge Weekend. She talked about the events that will take place and how folks in the city and New Castle County can get involved. Finally, Tina Betz and Jonathan Whitney from The Light Up the Queen Foundation talked about the "Boysie" Lowery Living Jazz Residency which is modeled after the Kennedy Center's Betty Carter Jazz Ahead Residency Project. The "Boysie" Lowery Living Jazz Residency is a two-week performance and composition project for the next generation of jazz composers, who, with their talent and passion, are keeping jazz alive.