ISSUE: COVID RESPONSE INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAMMING

In late March all schools in Southern California were closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Los Angeles Unified School District stepped forward with numerous initiatives to facilitate the continuing education of over 700,000 K-12th grade students. The District arranged for wifi connectivity and devices for online learning for every student. KLCS rescheduled all programming from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday to age appropriate Curriculum Related Programming. Additionally KLCS provided this programming over the air and live via it's website for online access.

TITLE	DATE/TIME	LENGTH	DESCRIPTION	AGE RANGE and Subject
BizKid$	Mon. – Fri. 2:30 p.m. (Jan. Only)	0:30	A series where kids teach kids about money and entrepreneurship. Created for school-aged children, each half-hour episode features several young business owners and philanthropists who share their success stories. Whether it's a skateboard designer, a candy store owner, or a hip-hop music producer, the kids on the series inspire young viewers. Throughout the series, kids learn about saving, budgeting, investing and giving back to the community. Spoofs of old TV shows and comedy sketches performed by a humorous cast of characters make the series a hit with both kids and parents alike.
Camp TV	Mon. – Fri. 3:00 p.m.	1:00	A day camp experience in your living room! An enthusiastic head counselor, played by Zachary Noah Piser, guides "campers" as they learn through play. Content partners include the New York Public Library, the New Victory Theater, Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, Bedtime Math, Wildlife Conservation Society, the Memphis Zoo, and more.
Cat In The Hat Knows A lot About That	Mon. – Fri. 1:00 p.m.	0:30	Whisks pre-schoolers off on a voyage of scientific discovery. "The Cat in the Hat Knows a Lot About That!" features six-year-olds Sally & Nick, best friends and next door neighbors, who are transported on magical journeys to all corners of the globe where the natural world becomes their playground. With the Cat as their guide, his two energetic helpers, the zany duo, Thing One and Thing Two and the enigmatic Fish along for the ride, every outing becomes an unpredictable adventure. In each episode, Sally and Nick head off with the Cat in his one-of-a-kind custom vehicle, the Thinga-ma-jigger, a quintessentially Seussian contraption that instantly transforms from plane to boat to submarine with just a flick of the jigger-ma-whizzer or a honk of the shrinkamadoodle. They go everywhere from the ocean bottom, to a rainforest, or to the centre of a beehive. The Cat in the Hat "knows a lot" but he doesn't know everything making him the perfect guide for learning and fun.

Curious Crew	Mon. – Fri. 2:00 p.m. (Jan. only)	0:30	Rob Stephenson and inquisitive kids take a hands-on approach to scientific exploration.
Cyberchase	Mon. – Fri. 11:30 a.m.	0:30	Energizes kids ages eight to eleven with math power. Full of cyber-mysteries with eye-popping animation and a sly comic flair CYBERCHASE sends the message that math is fun - it's about problem solving and, boy, does it come in handy. Each episode takes the kids on a thrilling adventure driven by a different math concept - from tackling time in ancient Egyptian tombs to cracking codes in creepy caves or making sense of numbers in a fractured airy world.	Pre K – 3 (Math)
Elinor Wonders Why	Mon. – Fri. 11:00 a.m.	0:30	This animated series for preschoolers aims to encourage children to follow their curiosity, ask questions when they don't understand and find answers using science inquiry skills. The main character Elinor, the most observant and curious bunny rabbit in Animal Town, introduces kids ages 3-5 to science, nature and community through adventures with her friends Ari, a funny and imaginative bat, and Olive, a perceptive and warm elephant. As kids explore Animal Town, they meet all kinds of interesting, funny, and quirky characters, each with something to teach us about respecting others, the importance of diversity, caring for the environment, and working together to solve problems. Let's Go Luna	Mon. – Fri. 7:30 a.m.	0:30	Set in a world populated by anthropomorphic animals, focuses on three friends—Leo, a wombat (from Australia), Carmen, a butterfly (from Mexico), and Andy, a frog (from the United States)—who travel around the world with their parents' traveling performance troupe "Circo Fabuloso". Along their stops, Luna the Moon, depicted about 5 feet (1.5 m) tall with arms, legs and a face, and wearing a straw hat and red boots, occasionally comes down to Earth to teach them about local languages, music, food, and other customs. When they meet her, the children sing "Luna, come and play, show us the world, lead the way". Two half-hours, consisting of two segments each and four in total, takes place at a single country where the gang stop at, learn about, and meet friends around the world. With a team of cultural anthropologists on board, Let's Go Luna! is "meticulously researched to ensure cities and regions are authentically and respectfully portrayed".	Pre K – 3 (Social Studies)
Math Park	Mon. – Fri. 6:00 a.m.	0:30	A fast-paced interactive series for students in grades 2-5. An energetic cast of characters help make learning math concepts and skills an exciting experience. As the characters find themselves in interesting math predicaments, they ask the home viewers to talk back to the television. This helps make Math Park an active rather than passive viewing and learning experience. All segments are based on state and national mathematics learning standards, including the Common Core Standards.	K – 3 (Math)
Molly of Denali	Mon. – Fri. 8:00 a.m.	0:30	This series follows the adventures of Molly, a feisty and resourceful Alaska Native girl, as she helps her parents run the Denali Trading Post in their Alaskan village. Viewers are introduced to the rich history and modern-day experience of family life in the heart of the Alaskan tundra through the More or Less eyes of Molly, her parents, and her friends. Designed to help kids develop skills around informational text such as using a map and following an instruction manual, this is the first nationally distributed children's series in the U.S. to feature an Alaska Native lead character. Craftsman's Legacy	Sat. 7:00 p.m.	0:30	Goes on a quest to discover the true craftsmen in today's world. Traveling across the country, Gorges interviews the men and women responsible for carrying the tools, trades and traditions of fine craftsmanship into the 21st century. From a glass blower to a guitar maker, a weaver to a potter, every episode explains the history of a traditional craft and the importance of that craft in the United States today. Other tradespeople include: a woodworker, a snowshoe maker, a knife-maker, a boat-maker, a saddle-maker, a stone carver and a blacksmith. Gorges, a welder by trade, meets and interviews master craftsmen, and learns why they chose their craft, where they learned their skills, how they live using their talents, and the challenges and importance of keeping that tradition alive in a modern-day world. He then takes on the role of apprentice on a project under the guidance of the master craftsman. In these inspiring segments, Gorges proves that, with the right tools and careful direction, a person with no experience can learn the basic skills of a craft to create something of lasting value. As owner of Voodoo Choppers, Gorges creates custom motorcycles and stylish works of art for high-end restaurants and luxury homes. Amen! Music of the Black Church	Tues. 10:00 p.m. (2/23)	1:00	Explore the authentic spiritual experience of African American gospel music in the one-hour performance documentary. Taped before a live audience at the Second Baptist Church congregation in Bloomington, Indiana, Rev. Dr. Raymond Wise guides viewers on an educational and uplifting learning experience while leading the Indiana University African American Choral Ensemble in a performance of sacred music deriving from African traditions. The unique performances incorporate praise and worship with contemporary influences from secular genres to breathe new life into the music that played a major role in helping African Americans overcome adversity. Much of the African American experience has been encapsulated through the rich Gospel music used to express a wide range of emotions through hundreds of years of marginalization. Speaks to the optimism and triumph embodied in this musical genre. The film employs meaningful vignettes throughout the performances, narrative interviews with historic highlights, and stylized visuals that give context to the music featured in the program.

Rick Steves' Fascism In Europe	Tues. 8:00 p.m. (1/26)	1:00	Travels back a century to learn how fascism rose and then fell in Europe - taking millions of people with it. He traces fascism's history from its roots in the turbulent aftermath of World War I, when masses of angry people rose up, to the rise of charismatic leaders who manipulated that anger, and the totalitarian societies they built. In addition, Rick chronicles the brutal measures the leaders used to enforce their ideologies, and discusses the horrific consequences of genocide and total war. And yet despite all this, inspiration can be found by those who resisted. Along the way, Rick visits poignant sights throughout Europe relating to fascism, and talks with Europeans whose families lived through those times. The goal is to learn from the hard lessons of 20th-century Europe, and to recognize that ideology in the 21st century.
Stories I Didn't Know	Tues. 9:00 p.m. (3/23)	1:00	Examines an ugly reality at the heart of a Minnesotan family legend. While her family members have always been proud to say that their ancestors once owned Pike Island, a beautiful piece of land in Minnesota, the story of its acquisition is far less glorious than its profitability. Rita attempts to understand what happened and why leads her on a journey that requires facing the complicated legacy of westward expansion in the United States.
Swimming in Auschwitz	Tues. 9:00 p.m. (1/26)	1:00	Interweaves the stories of six Jewish women imprisoned inside the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp during the Holocaust. The women maintained a spiritual resistance against their Nazi aggressors through prayer, community, music and even humor. They speak of camp families and faith, uplifting one another while trying to retain their humanity. Their compelling
