Edge of the Everglades: Big Cypress National Preserve	Mon. 8:30 p.m. (9/27)	0:30	Tells the story of the massive, mysterious marshland that continues to inspire deep passions for - and bitter debate about - one of the last great wild places in the world. On the western edge of the Everglades, beyond the sawgrass prairies of the famed River of Grass, lies the cypress-studded marshland known as the Big Cypress Swamp. The vast wet wilderness - a mosaic of marshes, cypress trees, pinelands and prairies once slated to house the world's largest jetport - now stands as a testament to compromise. In 1974, unlikely allies - conservationists and hunters - brokered a controversial deal which attempted to satisfy both environmental and recreational interests.	Peter Thomas - Narrator

Protecting Paradise: The Western Everglades	Mon. 8:00 p.m. (9/27)	0:30	In 1947, the same year President Harry S. Truman established Everglades National Park, work began on a complex system of drainage canals that would change south Florida - and the swamp - forever. However, this threat to the cypress-studded marshland on the western edge of the Everglades inspired a groundswell of grassroots conservation efforts and propelled Collier County to the forefront of an environmental battle that would stretch all the way to the Supreme Court. PROTECTING PARADISE: THE WESTERN EVERGLADES tells this story through historic photographs, vintage footage and interviews with leaders of the early conservation movement and biologists and environmentalists.	Peter Thomas - narrator
Ray Bandar: A Life with Skulls	Thurs. 10:30 p.m. (9/2)	0:30	This story begins on Ocean Beach in San Francisco, when a number of marine mammal bodies appear, skull-less, on the beach. The director, Beth Cataldo, is intrigued by this mystery and, in pursuit of an answer, finds a local legend who's been collecting skulls for more than 50 years. This humorous movie captures Ray's obsession for collecting skulls from local beaches, road kill, zoo animals and on field trips to Mexico, Australia and around the US. A LIFE WITH SKULLS investigates Bandar's history as a skull collector, showing many of the thousands of skulls he has accumulated over the years, talking to Alkmene, his resilient wife, and touring the awe-inspiring Bone Palace. You will also see the Bug Case, where skulls are defleshed by living beetles. A LIFE WITH SKULLS is an inspiring look at the life of a man who has a special tie to the natural world. You will be motivated to go out and explore it for yourself.

American Experience	Various	2:00	As television's longest-running, most-watched history series, American Experience brings to life the incredible characters and epic stories that helped form this nation.
As Long As I Remember: American Veterans	Tues. 9:00 p.m. (9/7) Sun. 5:00 p.m. (9/12)	1:00	Examines the steep personal toll and enduring legacy of the Vietnam War on three artists from south Texas: visual artist Juan Farias, author Michael Rodriguez and actor/poet Eduardo Garza. Through the personal histories and experiences of these Chicano veterans, the film examines the role art plays in the sorting of memories, post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), activism and the current conflict in Iraq. AS LONG AS I REMEMBER chronicles their upbringing in the Mexican-American community, their military service in Vietnam, and their lives after the war. Farias, Rodriguez and Garza's poignant and powerful recollections illuminate the minority experience in the U.S. Army and U.S. Marine Corps at a time when Mexican Americans accounted for approximately 20 percent of U.S. casualties in Vietnam, despite comprising only 10 percent of the country's population.

Insular Empire	Tues. 8:00 p.m. (7/27) Sun. 3:00 p.m. (8/1)	1:00	Six thousand miles west of California, the Mariana Islands include the U.S. Territory of Guam and the U.S. Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI). For generations, these islands' indigenous Chamorro and Carolinian people have been second-class Americans - fighting and dying under the stars and stripes, with no voting representation in Congress, and no vote for their commander-in-chief. Today the US military is planning a massive buildup of these small, strategic islands, with no input from the people of the Marianas. Yet the Chamorros and Carolinians remain steadfastly patriotic - more loyal, in fact, than many mainland communities.

Raising Hope: The Story of the Equal Voices Campaign	Mon. 8:00 p.m. (7/19) Sun. 1:00 p.m. (7/25)	1:00	A poignant and honest look at the state of equality in the United States. Acclaimed filmmaker Maria Bures creates an intimate, compelling portrait of individuals who are living below the poverty level and their efforts to improve their lives by taking part in the Equal Voice for America's Families Campaign. This year-long effort raises awareness of the issues facing working and poor families across the country.
Still Waiting: Life After Katrina	Mon. 8:00 p.m. (8/24) Sun. 1:00 p.m. (8/29)	1:00	Draws viewers into the painful and uplifting story of one post-Katrina African American/Creole family and the bayou culture they cannot give up, despite the odds. Can life as they knew it survive one the worst disasters in US history? The unusual size and interconnectedness of this 155-member family seem to promise hope. Surviving through large, deeply rooted families has always been a cultural truth in the New Orleans area. As the story of their evacuation to Dallas gives way to the story of their return to their small bayou community, unexpected difficulties compromise the experience of home as they knew it.

Time for Champions	Tues. 8:00 p.m. (7/13) Sun. 3:00 p.m. (7/18)	1:00	Charts the influence of St. Louis' immigrant community, amateur leagues and college teams on the development and increased popularity of soccer in the United States. The story is told through archival footage, still photos and interviews with baseball legend Between 1959 and 1973, St. Louis University won 10 NCAA titles in the first 15 years of the program, an unprecedented string of victories, establishing it as the nation's first college soccer dynasty. These teams consisted almost exclusively of homegrown talent who had been playing together since their days in Catholic Youth Council's soccer league. Bringing a fierce pride of neighborhood and parish, they came together at the university level and put old rivalries aside to compete against the best teams in the country, which consisted largely of foreign-born players.	Yogi Berra Bob Costas - NBC sportscaster Dan Flynn - U.S. Soccer Federation president Joe Baum - Michigan State coach Jerry Yeagley - Indiana University coach Former players of St. Louis University and members from the 1950 World Cup championship team.

Veiled Voices	Tues. 10:00 p.m. (8/10) Sun. 5:00 p.m. (8/15)	1:00	Women across the Arab world are redefining their role as leaders in Islam. VEILED VOICES investigates the world of Muslim women religious leaders through the eyes of these three women in Lebanon, Syria, and Egypt. Shot over the course of two years, VEILED VOICES reveals a world rarely documented, exploring both the public and private lives of these women. The stories featured in the film give insight into how Muslim women are now increasingly willing to challenge the status quo from within their religion, promoting Islam as a powerful force for positive transformation in the world. Each triumphs over difficult challenges as they carve out a space to lead - both in Islam and in their communities. VEILED VOICES profiles three influential women - along with their families and the communities they serve: Ghina Hammoud in Lebanon; Dr. Su'ad Saleh in Egypt; and Huda al-Habash in Syria.

With one of the most diverse ethnic populations in the country balanced programming of current world affairs and politics are of high interest to the station's viewers.
