

KZYZ 90.7 FM & KZYZ 91.5 FM
PO Box 1
Philo, CA 95466

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

Quarterly Report: January - March 2024

During the 1st quarter of 2024, KZYZ & KZYZ provided coverage of issues of importance to Mendocino County and adjacent communities in Northern California. Examples of programming that address important issues are listed below.

ISSUE	PROGRAM TITLE & DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME	DURATION
Politics and Government	KZYZ's News Director Sarah Reith hour-long individual interview with the candidates for the County Board of Supervisor. second candidate interview with the candidate Jacob Brown.	1/8/24 9am	59min
Medicine and Health	jDr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health Program. Discussion with Dr. Marvin Trotter and Dr. Duncan Johnston about respiratory illnesses	1/9/24 9 am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Ecology Hour this week, we replay a great discussion from June 2022 with Dr. James Harvey of the Moss Landing Marine Laboratory, who gave us a great overview of their lives and their fantastic migrations.	1/9/24 7 pm	59min
Politics and Government	TKO host Karen Ottoboni takes a look at hot topics in local politics. This week's guest is the head of the Mendocino County Planning and Building Department, Julia Krog.	1/10/24 9am	59min

Politics and Government	TUC Radio host Maria Gilardin presents: The Unsustainable Green Transition - Simon Michaux - Part TWO of TWO Simon Michaux is associate professor at the Geological Survey of Finland. He and his team advise the Finnish government on how to phase out fossil fuels. As former mining engineer Michaux warns that we just don't have enough minerals and materials in the Earth's crust to develop a fully renewable economy along the standards we have come to expect and he offers solutions..	1/10/24 3pm	29min
Agriculture and Environment	Mushroom Foraging and other ancestral skills practices. Johanna's guest will be Wilder Herbertson of Human Becoming. They will talk about an upcoming local mushroom forage and dye retreat, foraging practices, sustainable harvest of plants and mushrooms, land connection, right relationship with our earth, and ancestral skills practices, such as wild fermentation. They will also explore what it means to be non-binary in the world.	1/11/24 9am	59min
Politics and Government	Forthright Radio, Intercept journalists Jon Schwartz and co-author Elise Swain, discuss their recent articles in the Intercept, such as MERRY CHRISTMAS! WE ALL BELONG IN PRISON AT THE HAGUE; HOW MUCH OF MY US	1/12/24 9am	59min

	TAXES IN 2023 WENT TO ISRAEL'S GAZA WAR,
Politics and Government	KZYX's News Director Sarah Reith interviewed the candidates for the County Board of Supervisor. interview with Trevor Mockel, candidate for 1st district supervisor.	1/15/24 9 am	59min
Politics and Government	KZYX's News Director Sarah Reith interviewed the candidates for the County Board of Supervisor. Interview with Maureen Mulheren, candidate for 2nd district supervisor.	1/16/24 9 am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	host Chad Swimmer for Disquiet Voices Ecology Hour. He'll be talking to Author Richard W Halsey of the Chaparral Institute and Ecologist Will Russell of San Jose State for an in-depth look at California's massive Vegetation Treatment Program and the litigation against it	1/16/24 7 pm	59min
Politics and Government	KZYX's News Director Sarah Reith interviewed the candidates for the County Board of Supervisor. interview with Carrie Shattuck, candidate for 1st district supervisor.	1/17/24 9 am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Host Elizabeth Archer will be joined by Landrace farmer Julia Dakin for their annual check-in show. If you're interested in seed saving, seed exchanges, and the kind of gardening that lets you more or less ignore your plants	1/18/24 3 pm	59min
Politics and Government	Corporations and Democracy this Thursday, from 7-8 p.m., Steve &	1/18/24 7 pm	59min

	Annie will discuss The Israel Lobby Versus The Innocents of Gaza, with Norman Solomon, Director of the Institute for Public Accuracy and author of “War Made Invisible: How America Hides the Human Toll of Its Military Machine” and twelve previous books, and Grant F. Smith, Director of the Institute for Research: Middle Eastern Policy and author of “How Israel Made AIPAC: The Most Harmful Foreign Influence Operation in America” and eight previous books.
Politics and Government	KZYX’s News Director Sarah Reit interviewed the candidates for the County Board of Supervisor. interview with Georgina Avila Gorman, candidate for 4th district supervisor.	1/22/24 9am	59min
Medicine and Health	Dr. Casey Johnston on Mind-Body-Health for a discussion with Laurel Near and Rachel Young from the Near & Arnold's School of Performing Arts and Cultural Education.	1/23/24 9 am	59min
Education	Michelle Hutchins, host for Inside Education, tonight at 7 pm as she summarizes a report on Why Rural Schools Matter and discusses the recent Governor's budget proposal with California School Boards Association professionals.	1/25/24 7 pm	59 min
Race, Identity and Culture	Good Ancestors and Local Treasures as she welcomes Key members of T.E.R.A, the Tribal Eco	2/5/24 9 am	59min

	Restoration Alliance. Patricia Franklin, TERA board member from the Scotts Valley Band of Pomo Indians and Jordan Reyes, TERA Field Coordinator of Middletown Rancheria, will be discussing the work that they do in land stewardship, fire ecology and community restoration.
Education	join host Julie McGovern for a conversation with Dean of Counseling Ingrid Larsen and Counselor Alicia Mendoza about the many services offered to students in the Counseling Center. We'll talk about academic counseling, career exploration and transfer planning, access to bilingual counseling in Spanish as well as mental health services, and referrals to campus and community resources..	2/6/24 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	"The recent storm took down many trees across Northern California, but how does this kind of disturbance affect our forests? Join Dr. Mike Jones and Kyle Farmer for the Ecology Hour on Tuesday from 7-8pm to learn how disturbance ecology changes our local ecosystems. We'll also visit with scorpion expert Prakrit Jain, who explains how a phone app helped him to identify two new species of California scorpion!	2/6/24 7 pm	59min
Politics and Government	KZXY's News Director Sarah Reith interviewed the candidates for the County Board of Supervisor. interview with Madeline Cline,	2/7/24 9 am	59min

Science and Technology	Elizabeth Garcia, your NASA Solar System Ambassador here to remind you to listen in on Wednesday, February 7 for the next all new Cosmic Radio. We have a great show this month. You'll find out what's up in the night sky in the month of February and we have an all new interview with Richard Reiber from the Jet Propulsion Laboratory. Richard is a Robotics System Engineer and he's going to tell us all about past, current and future robotics on Mars and beyond!	2/7/24 3:30 pm	29min
Agriculture and Environment	Johanna talks with local coast residents Scott and Tree Mercer, founders of the Mendonoma Whale and Seal Study and with Moe Flannery, Senior Collections Manager, Birds and Mammals at the California Academy of Sciences. According to the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration, the gray whale populations began a downward trend in 2019 that caused a 46% drop in population. Johanna and her guests talk about the causes, the role of whales for our eco system and global climate and what we can do to help whales survive and thrive.	2/8/24 9am	59min
Politics and Government	KZYG's News Director Sarah Reith interviewed the candidates for the County Board of Supervisor. interview with Carrie Shattuck, candidate for 1st district supervisor	2/8/24 3 pm	59min

Politics and Government	Forthright Radio host Joy LaClaire talks to Columbia Law Professor (Emeritus) Michael J. Graetz, discusses his latest book, THE POWER TO DESTROY: HOW THE ANTI-TAX MOVEMENT HIJACKED AMERICA, as well as his many decades of scholarship in the interest of balancing their impediments to rational budgeting, equality and opportunities for all.	2/9/24 9am	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	MendoLatino continues celebrating San Valentine's day, el día del amor y de la amistad. In this second program dedicated to self love and self care they interview Dilcia Molina and Leslie Moncada from Madre Tierra, an organization working on the East Coast with LGBTQI communities, and undocumented immigrants. Let's learn how latinos care for themselves by building community and working together. In the second part of the program they'll talk with Olivia Zamora and Nacho Ayala, respectively director and producer of Noche de Estrellas, a locally produced show. This year is a 100% live mariachi with "Cantares de mi Tierra", from the Luther Burbank Center for the Arts in Santa Rosa. Seven local artists will join the mariachi on March 16 at El Teatro del Pueblo, SPACE Theater in Ukiah	2/26/24 9 am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Women in Ecology hour host, Sue Magoo Coulter, interviews local educator, activist, visionary, farmer, singer, speaker, and mentor U'ilani Moore-Wesley. Hear all about what led Ui to becoming a part of healing change through the creation of Xa Kako Dile, (pronounced Ha-ka-ko-	2/27/24 9am	59min

	dee-lay) which means Water Through Meadow in northern Pomo. How this indigenous, women led and directed non-profit organization located on ancestral Pomo land at Fortunate Farm is decolonizing agriculture, healing the land and people.
Agriculture and Environment	TUC Radio, host Maria Gilardin presents: Microplastics Everywhere - in Water, Land and Air. Matt Simon traces how the plastic we are using and discarding breaks into ever smaller pieces that poison water, soil and the atmosphere. Scientists have found micro plastics in the deepest ocean trenches and in snow of the North and South Poles. They are in our food, and from there travel through our bodies. And most plastic is made from a mix of toxic petrochemicals.	2/28/24 3 pm	29min
Race, Identity and Culture	host Corine welcomes Kyle Bill tribal council member of the Kletsel De He Wintun Nation, Executive Director for Kno'Qoti Native wellness, Inc, and Jessica Brown traditional dancer, culture bearer and land protector of the Elem tribe as they discuss the amazing and groundbreaking things they are accomplishing in our local community.	3/4/24 9am	59min
Arts and Culture	host Blake More presents a celebration of Mendocino coast poet, longtime host of the Hill House Poetry Reading, and former KZYX classical music programmer Gordon Black. This living tribute show features the poetry of Gordon Black read by Dan Roberts, Joe Smith, Mike Edwards, Janferie	3/7/24 7 pm	59min

	Stone, Tom Roberdeau and Gordon himself..
Science and Technology	Ecology Hour, host Chad Swimmer dive into the electrical grid, with an interview with Matt Simmons about wind power in the Humboldt Bay, aging transmission lines, we'll hear from Sonoma Clean Power about what they offer--and who they are, give some resources for people aiming to improve their home's efficiency, and we will hear about a canceled Jackson Advisory Group Meeting.	3/19/24 7pm	59min
Agriculture and Environment	the Farm and Garden Show, listen to a live conversation between host Elizabeth Archer and Joshua Sternberg, agricultural instructor and garden manager at the Mendocino County Jail. Josh will catch us up on his work at the jail garden nearly two years after taking the helm	3/21/24 9 am	59min
Politics and Government	On Corporations and Democracy Thursday, Annie and Steve will celebrate the 20th Anniversary of the passage of Mendocino County's historic Measure H, the successful initiative campaign that prohibits growing GMO's, genetically modified organisms, in the County. Guests will be Els Cooperrider, Doug Mosel, Jonathan Frey, and special guest Assistant Professor Ignacio Chapela from UC Berkeley who will update us on the state of GMO technology.	3/21/24 7 pm	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	In our second program of March, MendoLatino continues celebrating Women's Month.	3/25/24 9 am	59min

	This Monday we interviewed Elisa Santillan and Celia Alvarez of Prospera. This organization in Oakland, CA. has a mission to work with Latina entrepreneurs to launch businesses that foster cooperation, economic independence and well-being in immigrant communities. We believe when women lead the local economy, the whole community thrives.
Medicine and Health	Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health show for a discussion with Lisa Silva, Claire Leenman and Cathy Sheehy of the Ukiah Senior Center.	3/26/24 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Women in Ecology. This month's guest is Karin Uphoff holistic health practitioner and educator in the Western Herbal Tradition, author of Botanical Body Care: Herbs &amp; Natural Healing for Your Body and former co-host of Holistic Health Perspectives	3/26/24 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	TKO, host Karen Ottoboni takes a look at hot topics in local politics. Karen's guest March 27th is Mendocino Sheriff Matt Kendall.	3/27/24 9am	59min
Education	Michelle Hutchins for Inside Education. Tonight at 7 pm she interviews the Executive Director of the Small School Districts Association and the United States Department of Education Rural School Engagement Director on the current state of public education	3/28/24 7pm	59min

