The Jacobsons reflect on a particularly difficult time in their marriage-the birth of their fifth child, who was born with brain damage after suffering a stroke in utero. The long days in the hospital's ICU, along with starting a new company and caring for four other children at home, put a strain on their marriage. Matt explains what it means to "act like a man," and love and protect your wife and children in difficult times.
Family	Family Life Today	5/4/21	5:30 pm	25 mins	What does God's love look like? Authors Aaron and Jamie Ivey share that just as two different colors can add depth and beauty to a canvas, a marriage of two people is a painting that can speak the truth about God to those who experience it.

Dramatic market fluctuations and unprecedented government intervention has left many investors wondering "Where are we now?" Rob welcomes investing expert Mark Biller to help answer that.
Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	5/6/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	"If I just made a little more money, I could probably save more too?" Have you ever thought that? You might be surprised to learn that how much you save doesn't have much to do with your salary. Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	5/11/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	These days, people focus on two things when buying goods and services: how fast can I get it and how much does it cost. What folks don't often consider is that the first one has a big impact on the second. But it's important to consider just how much they'll have to pay for convenience, because it certainly isn't free. We'll talk about that on this MoneyWise.
Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	5/18/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	2 Corinthians 9 tells us, "Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." And He probably also appreciates a smart giver. Christians are commanded to be generous toward God's Kingdom and there's no wrong way to do it. But some ways may be better than others. We'll talk about one of those ways on MoneyWise.
Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	5/24/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	With the Fed increasing the money supply and massive government stimulus spending the economy is showing signs of inflation. Investors are rightly concerned about it, but is the fear really warranted? There are many reasons to be wary of inflation but there's at least one factor that should keep investors from hitting the panic button. Investing expert Mark Biller joins us to talk about that.
Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	6/3/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	As the economy continues to recover, employers in many sectors are scrambling to find workers and to hang onto the ones they have. Does that mean it's time to ask for a raise? Several factors indicate that employers should be more receptive to giving raises, but how you ask for one can really improve your chances of getting it.
Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	6/10/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	Hebrews 12:11 tells us, "For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it." We're more than ready to accept God's blessing, but we should be just as willing to accept discipline when we need it. We'll talk about that on this MoneyWise.
Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	6/15/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	It's a question we're asked a lot, "When should I start taking my Social Security benefits? Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	6/23/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	Most people don't think of author Mark Twain as a financial advisor, but he did occasionally weigh in on investing. One of his pithiest quotes is, "Buy land, they're not making it anymore." While many a fortune has been made investing in real estate, it's also an easy way to lose money if you don't know what you're doing. Real estate expert Sanford Coggins gives us a crash course on this MoneyWise.
Economy/ Finances	MoneyWise	6/29/21	12:30 pm	25 mins	1 Corinthians 10:31 sets a high bar for how Christians are to act in this world. Jason Myhre joins us today to talk about the history of faith-based investing and, spoiler alert, it goes back further than you think.
