

From: Yenlys Hernandez
Sent: Thursday, August 29, 2013 11:40 AM
To: Carole Bird
Subject: Al Punto FCC August, 2013

Hi Carole

This are the FCC of Al Punto of the month of August, 2013

Thank you

Yenlys

FCC REPORTS for AL PUNTO, AUGUST, 2013

===08/04/2013===

Anthony Weiner (D), New York Mayoral Candidate

First interview after his latest sexting scandal

Time: 7:58

In his first national interview after his latest sexting scandal, Anthony Weiner talks exclusively with Despierta América News Anchor Satcha Pretto. Weiner, who is adamant about staying in the New York mayoral race, admits that his behavior was wrong. Is this the end of Weiner's scandals?

U.S. Representative Bob Goodlatte (R), Virginia's 6th District and Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee

Fate of the Immigration Reform Bill

Time: 7:00

The fate of comprehensive immigration reform is still, somewhat, up in the air. Virginia Congressman Bob Goodlatte visits Al Punto to talk about his step by step approach and to discuss why any immigration proposal may be subject to enforcement and border security. Goodlatte also discusses whether immigration reform will include a path to citizenship.

U.S. Representative Luis V. Gutierrez (D), Illinois' 4th District and a member of the bipartisan Group of Seven negotiating a House comprehensive immigration reform bill

Bipartisan support

Time: 7:00

Rep. Luis Gutierrez, one of the strongest advocates of immigration reform, returns to Al Punto this Sunday to tell us what to expect from the House of Representatives and how he will continue to work to build bipartisan support.

Carlos Gutierrez, Former Secretary of Commerce; Adolfo Franco, Republican Strategist; Alfonso Aguilar, Executive Director of the Latino Partnership for Conservative Principles

Strategy to pass an Immigration Reform in the House of Representatives

Time: 10:00

Around a hundred Republican donors sent a letter this week to Republican members of Congress urging them to pass immigration reform. The effort was organized by Carlos Gutierrez who was secretary of commerce under President George W. Bush and was the founder of "super PAC", Republicans for Immigration Reform. Gutierrez and a group of influential members of the party's establishment, like Adolfo Franco and Alfonso Aguilar join the discussion on Al Punto to present their strategy to increase the pressure in Congress.

Benjamin Medrano Quezada, (PRI) Elected Mayor of Fresnillo, Zacatecas, Mexico

First openly gay mayor in Mexico

Time: 6:00

Medrano will become Mexico's first openly gay Major and he will take office in a rough part of Zacatecas. The city of Fresnillo is known for unleashed violence and gang shootouts. Medrano will talk about his priorities to decrease violence, his stance on gay marriage and his future political aspirations.

===08/11/2013===

Andrés Manuel López Obrador, Mexican former Presidential Candidate

Energy Reform in Mexico

Time: 10:00

Mexico's President Enrique Peña Nieto plans to present his plan on energy reform next week, but López Obrador is already criticizing the President's plan. López Obrador returns to Al Punto to explain his position on this policy.

Jorge Castañeda, Mexico's Former Secretary of Foreign Affairs and Univision News Senior International Affairs Contributor and Carmen Fernández, General Director of Mexico's Youth Integration Center

Legalization of drugs

Time: 10:00

Mexico's Former Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Jorge Castañeda, and Carmen Fernández join Ramos separately to discuss their opposing views on the ongoing debate regarding the legalization of drugs.

Miguel Batista, Former Major League baseball player

Major League baseball scandal

Time: 9:00

In light of this week's Major League baseball scandal, Batista visits Al Punto to bring some understanding and analysis on the use of steroids by some of the highest paid players.

Lulú Martínez and María Peniche, released DREAMERs who crossed the border to raise awareness about deportations

Immigration Reform

Time: 9:00

Two of the nine DREAMERs released this week visit Al Punto to talk about their future and immigration reform.

===08/18/2013===

D.A. King, Pro-Enforcement Immigration Leader

In favor of stricter immigration rules

Time: 13:00

D.A. King is known for lobbying lawmakers in his state of Georgia in favor of stricter immigration enforcement measures and is now also known for his stands against immigration reform. Mr. King visits Al Punto to explain his position, which has earned him plenty of followers as well as critics.

General Romeo Vásquez, Honduran Presidential Candidate and former Chief of the Armed Forces

Run for office

Time: 7:00

Vásquez is running for President against Xiomara Castro, the wife of former President Manuel Zelaya. Zelaya accused Vásquez of being responsible for the military coup staged against him in 2009. Vásquez talks to Jorge Ramos about his decision to run for office.

Katherine Figueroa, Maria Bueno Hernández and Carlos Figueroa

Family reunited

Time: 8:10

After living in the shadows for more than a decade, this immigrant family is finally reunited and able to stay in the United States partly because of her courageous 13-year-old daughter Kristine, whom has become a pro-immigrant activist. The family visits Al Punto and tells Ramos their story.

Michael Sayman, Apple applications creator

The future of technology

Time: 7:46

When he was 13, Sayman created an Apple application that made it to the top 10 sellers on the App Store. He is now 16 and just launched a new application that keeps climbing the charts. Sayman visits Al Punto to talk to Ramos about what it means to be an entrepreneur while going to school as well as the future of technology.

Dr. Juan José Rivera, Univision Network News Chief Medical Correspondent

Debate about legalizing marijuana

Time: 5:00

There has been a new debate in the last few weeks about the pros and cons of legalizing marijuana. Dr. Rivera returns to Al Punto to talk about the realities and myths of marijuana from a medical perspective.

===08/25/2013===

Katherine Vargas, White House Hispanic Media Director

Immigration Reform

Time: 8:00

Does the White House have a Plan B in case the immigration reform bill doesn't pass in Congress? What other options does the White House foresee for the 11 million undocumented immigrants living in the U.S.? The recently appointed White House Hispanic spokeswoman, Katherine Vargas, visits Al Punto to talk about the different options President Obama might be willing to consider.

Rosario Marín, Former U.S Treasurer

Republicans and Immigration Reform

Time: 8:00

Marín believes immigration reform is needed and returns to Al Punto to give her perspective on what the Republicans in the House of Representatives are trying to accomplish.

Pedro Pierluisi, Resident Commissioner of Puerto Rico

"Puerto Rico Status Resolution Act"

Time: 7:00

Pierluisi presented the "Puerto Rico Status Resolution Act" to Congress in May. What is the Act's status? The commissioner returns to Al Punto to talk about the latest developments regarding the "Puerto Rico Status Resolution Act" in the House of Representatives and Puerto Rico.

Eugenio Derbez, Mexican actor

"Instructions not included"

Time: 9:00

Derbez debuts as film director with his new movie "Instructions not Included", in which he portrays a single father. The Mexican actor visits Al Punto and talks about his new release and about his life as an immigrant.

Luis Von Ahn, Guatemalan entrepreneur and Carnegie Mellon University Professor

New Projects

Time: 7:00

A computer science professor who became a millionaire at an early age after selling two companies to Google, Vohn Ahn talks to Jorge Ramos about his new project that aims to help people learn other languages for free.

===== END OF AUGUST REPORTS =====

Yenlys Hernandez | News Assistant | Al Punto | Univision Network | 9405 NW 41st Street, Miami, FL 33178
Direct: (305) 471-8278 | Mobile: (305) 332-5727 | yhernandez@univision.net | <http://www.univision.net>

