HOT PURSUIT

The chase is on... for sticky fingered would-be felons in search of a big score. Tony Bennett may have left his heart in San Francisco, but if you leave anything else lying around the city, will you get it back? ABC News Correspondent Gio Benitez and a team of "20/20" producers, with the help of a professional tracker and San Francisco Police, decide to find out.

CHILD OF INFAMOUS SERIAL KILLER

Melissa Moore grew up with an adoring dad. But behind the loving facade was a violent killer with a secret that would only be revealed years later – her dad, Keith Jespersen, was one of the nation's most infamous serial killers, known as the "Happy Face Killer," for the anonymous confession letters signed with a whimsical smiley face logo. Jespersen's notorious five year, five state murdering spree resulted in the deaths of eight women. Juju Chang reports.

Friday, July 17, 2015

STRANGER THAN FICTION

"20/20" goes inside the stranger than fiction story that prompted unkind comparisons to the movie "Gone Girl," a bizarre abduction plot. When Aaron Quinn reported that kidnappers broke into his home, abducted his girlfriend Denise Huskins, and demanded a ransom, their story garnered national attention. The couple was initially accused by some investigators of staging the whole thing and Vallejo, CA police eventually dismissed the case as an elaborate hoax. Just this week, in a shocking twist, police have arrested Matthew Mueller, a disbarred Harvard-educated lawyer and US marine veteran who is now being linked to a crime with similarities in Dublin, CA to that in Vallejo, CA. As more bizarre twists and turns emerge in the headlines every day, is there a widespread kidnapping ring? Are there more victims who have not come forward? Cecilia Vega reports.

Friday, July 24, 2015

MANHUNT

It was a scene out of a blockbuster movie – two men sentenced to life in prison for murder escaping through a hole in a pipe, emerging to freedom from a manhole. Yet, there were no cameras rolling, and no director to yell "cut." Instead, this real life prison break captivated the nation last month and kept a small upstate New York town on edge until convicted murderers Richard Matt was shot and killed and David Sweat was shot and captured. With exclusive and unprecedented access to the hunt for Sweat and Matt, "20/20" details the most complete picture of how the felons successfully executed the brazen prison break and how the manhunt played out. Gio Benitez and Linzie Janis report.

Friday, July 31, 2015

JEWEL HEIST

A gang of daring jewel thieves is on a nationwide crime spree, masquerading as a shopping spree. They ask to be shown the biggest and best diamond rings money can buy – except they have no money. All they have are nerves of steel as they steal millions in diamonds. Can anyone stop them? Two Portland detectives will attempt to reel in the robbers. Matt Gutman reports.

But the alleged shooter Billy Woodward claimed he did nothing wrong – he was just defending his family from his neighbors' alleged months-long harassment. Woodward claimed his Titusville, Florida neighbors made him and his family prisoners in their own home, threatening him to the point that he believed his shooting spree wasn't murder, but legally justified under Florida's controversial Stand Your Ground law. Deborah Roberts reports.

OJ SIMPSON TAPES

Football legend OJ Simpson was found not guilty of murdering his ex-wife Nicole Brown Simpson and her friend Ron Goldman in his criminal trial 20 years ago next week. In that famous televised trial, Simpson evoked his right against self-incrimination by not taking the stand. Yet, in the civil trial brought against him, Simpson was forced to testify under oath for the first time on tape. Those tapes, part of a treasure trove of almost 150 boxes, have been stored under lock and key for almost 20 years. One hundred and fifty million people watched the criminal trial verdict – hardly anyone has seen these tapes...until now. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

BOSTON EMS

Viewers will ride along with the proud men and women of the Boston Emergency Services, one of America's most seasoned team of first responders: the first step in the chain of trauma care. It was this same group that answered the desperate calls of runners and spectators two years ago when the bombs went off at the Boston Marathon. Treating the injured and ferrying the wounded to hospitals, the Boston EMS earned the gratitude of a shell-shocked and grief-stricken city with their cool-headed professionalism. Meet some of the heroes of that terrible day as they answer new calls and respond to a daily dose of trauma and mayhem.

Saturday, July 25, 2015 (Premiere – 9:00PM ET)

- Cameras arrive at a harrowing scene of a car accident that has left a bicyclist dead and a driver having fled the scene. Paramedics remove from the wreckage a critically injured passenger. The young man pleads with them to tell him whether the bicyclist on the street survived or not – an answer they know but can't reveal.
- A man pulls himself out of a crashed car before it erupts into flames; a pair of accommodating EMTs surprise a barefoot homeless man with an unexpected gift; a tearful woman confides to an EMT about the devastating loss of her boyfriend whom it turns out he has a connection to; and it's all hands on deck as first responders scour the pitch-dark train tracks for a possible patient hit by the Acela express.

Saturday, August 1, 2015

- An eleven-year-old boy sprints for the school bus and becomes a casualty of a hit-and-run driver. An EMT – who is a mother of five -- arrives at the scene to comfort the boy's crying mom who needs as much attention as her injured son.
- A cyclist is pinned under an SUV and is lucky not to pay the ultimate price for not wearing a helmet -- and the gloves are on as EMTs transport a woman in labor and debate who gets to deliver the baby if they don't reach a hospital in time. Paramedics wrestle with how to break the news to an accident victim that his friend is worse off than he is, and EMTs race through rush hour traffic only to get blown off by a patient who declines treatment so he can search for his missing phone.

Saturday, August 8, 2015

- A driver going through a personal crisis deliberately crashes into a highway railing. A paramedic at the scene says this is more common than one might think.
- Also in this episode, a man avoids a spray of bullets and escapes with a single gunshot wound. When EMTs discover an old wound, they are less impressed by his luck and more concerned about his future. And a homeless man, hoping to spend the night in a warm hospital bed, decides to sit naked in a crowded Boston street. Elsewhere, EMTs responding to a young woman in the midst of a seizure discover that her service dog has answers to some of their questions. Finally, a woman suddenly falls ill and crashes her car into a house and a paramedic ends up in the middle of a parking lot fight.

Saturday, August 22, 2015

- A man jogging to the gym gets struck by a car that badly injures his leg, but he seems more upset about missing his workout; a drug addict gets a harsh scolding from an EMT concerned about the neighborhood children who could find one of his dirty needles in the grass. Finally, an old school EMS supervisor makes new friends at Boston's gay pride parade.

Sunday, July 19, 2015 (Premiere – 10:00PM ET)

- Cameras follow two young men who are gunned down on Main Street in the close knit Charlestown neighborhood of Boston. EMS evacuates the two victims to Massachusetts General Hospital where top surgeons wage a heroic battle to save the life of a 17-year old boy. The case takes an unexpected twist that even doctors can't anticipate.

Waiting for his patient to be medevaced to the helipad on the roof of Massachusetts General Hospital is Dr. David Fink, one of the nation's top trauma surgeons. Fink knows that time equals life and this patient is running out of both. The man's family is counting on Fink to work his magic.
- A teenager at a church gathering decides to hide in the bell tower during a game of hide and seek. What she couldn't know was that the floorboards would give way dropping her 25 feet on to a church pew; elsewhere, a man puts his arm through a glass window following an argument with his girlfriend and gets both stitches and relationship advice from a young doctor; outside the Boston Garden EMS personnel demonstrate tact and restraint when confronted by a spitting Bruins fan; and it takes the muscle of three orthopedic docs to get a volleyball player's dislocated ankle back into place.

Sunday, August 2, 2015

- A teenage boy's hand is severed in a shocking car accident on a rural Vermont road. Despite the trauma, he summons help from a neighbor while a police officer locates the missing hand. Even if he can reach Massachusetts General Hospital, a successful reattachment surgery is a long shot. But, beating the odds is why hand surgeon Dr. Johnathan Winograd comes to work each day.
- Also in this episode, a Boston firefighter slips from the roof of a burning building and finds that what hurts most is his wounded pride. And a bad day gets worse when the local news reports that his wife is pregnant with the couple's third child – and they haven't told her parents yet! Two more tales round out the hour -- a bullet to the chest causes a young man to see the silver lining--a second chance to be a dad to four adorable kids who need him to stick around, and finally a man who just won't believe his car hit a tree, "it's just a branch, it's just a branch," he swears.

- A medical student rides thirty feet on the hood of the car that struck her while she was biking. If her boyfriend's daughter hadn't lent her a helmet, the outcome would have been very different. Elsewhere, a woman allergic to latex begins to suffocate after eating food prepared by kitchen workers wearing rubber gloves. The standard antidote is epinephrine, a drug sold at pharmacies that is easy to self-inject from an EpiPen. Those who suffer from anaphylaxis are often advised by doctors to never leave home without their "pens," but in this case, the patient forgot.
- An ER doctor keeps his cool when a patient becomes physically aggressive and has to be restrained. And two overdose cases highlight the incidence of heroin addiction among a group of veterans who served in America's wars in Afghanistan and Iraq.

Sunday, August 16, 2015

- A man is visiting his daughter in the hospital is wracked by escalating chest pain that he has been dismissing as just an extreme case of heartburn. - A man tries to save his wife from falling down a flight of stairs, but ends up tumbling down with her. They reunite in the ER.
