EXHIBIT A — CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Wichita Eagle's National Career Expo—Wichita, KS

(1) Payments: Quantum Expositions International (QEI) is not required to provide any booth space unless this signed Contract is received by QEI, Exhibitor completes its booth at least one hour prior to the opening of the Expo, and QEI receives Exhibitor's payment no later than 15 days prior to the first day of the event. There will be no refunds on exhibit deposits or payments. If The Eagle's National Career Expo is canceled for reasons unrelated to the Exhibitor's conduct, QEI will refund the entire amount of Exhibitor's deposit to Exhibitor. Exhibitor will not be entitled to recover any damages or costs other than such refund. Exhibitor will pay for any costs for collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, accrued interest (18% per annum) and returned check expenses -- for any amounts not paid by Exhibitor to QEI when due. If no notification in writing of cancellation has been received 30 days prior to event, Exhibitor will be held financially responsible for the space rental. In the event any taxes or other impositions are due to any governmental authority related to the exhibit of Exhibitor, such payments shall be the sole responsibility of Exhibitor. Exhibitor shall promptly pay any such payments.

(2) Limitation on Liability: Exhibitor expressly releases QEI from any liability and waives any and all demands, claims, and causes of action in law or in equity, related to: a) any defect, deficiency, failure or impairment of utilities or other facilities, including water, heating, electricity, ventilation, refrigeration or other mechanical systems failure; b) the conduct, negligence or claims of any exhibitor or attendee; and c) any fire, flood, strike, weather or other act beyond the control of QEI.

(3) Exhibit Space: QEI reserves the right to reposition location of Exhibitor booth in advance of the event for any reason it deems necessary, although QEI will attempt to fulfill any reasonable requests for booth location.

(4) Booth Installation: Booth setup is the full responsibility of the Exhibitor. Exhibitor's booth loading vehicles must be removed from loading areas as soon as unloaded. All exhibits must remain assembled and staffed throughout exhibit hours until the official closing time, since disassembling exhibitor displays prior to event closing is disruptive to the event. Exhibitor shall be solely responsible for Exhibitor's display & Exhibitor's personal property, including but not limited to Exhibitor products, furniture, equipment, records, written materials, computers, exhibits, and signs.

(5) Insurance: Exhibitor shall have and maintain in force, at Exhibitor's expense, replacement cost insurance for all Exhibitor's personal property located anywhere at or near event site. Such insurance shall provide for loss, damage or injury due to theft, fire, act of God and any other casualty. QEI shall not have any liability for the protection, care or maintenance of any property belonging to Exhibitor.

(6) Booth Authorized Representative: Exhibitor must designate one person as its authorized representative at the booth, such that any written or verbal notices given to the authorized representative shall be deemed received by Exhibitor. Technically trained people must staff the booth of the Exhibitor.

(7) Indemnification: Exhibitor assumes all liability for all content, including text, design, characters, software, representations, and illustrations of its advertising and booth, and hereby indemnifies and holds QEI harmless from any damages, costs, liability or claims related thereto, including but not limited to claims of defamation, libel, slander, copyright infringement, trademark infringement, patent infringement, unfair competition, fraud, or false advertising. Exhibitor indemnifies QEI from any damages, costs, or liability related to the conduct or negligence of any contractor, employee, guest, or representative of Exhibitor. Exhibitor shall indemnify and hold harmless QEI from any claims, damages, costs and liability asserted by third parties who are attending the booth of the Exhibitor. In addition to indemnifying and holding QEI harmless, Exhibitor hereby covenants and agrees that any claims it may have against QEI except for intentional and reckless, wanton or malicious acts by QEI shall be limited to the amount which Exhibitor has paid for the purpose of exhibiting under the Contract.

(8) No Guarantee of Results: QEI does not warrant or guarantee any particular results of the The Eagle's National Career Expo, nor does it guarantee a particular number of attendees or exhibitors.

(9) Dispute: In the event of any dispute to the terms of this Contract, the parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the District Court of Sedgwick County, Kansas, where venue will be proper. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover costs and attorney's fees. This Contract shall be interpreted and construed pursuant to the laws of the state of Kansas.

(10) Complete Agreement: This Contract incorporates and constitutes the full understanding of the parties and supercedes any and all prior agreements, understandings, or representations. The parties hereby agree that there are no other understandings or agreements between the parties which are not contained in this Contract.

(11) Notices: All notices between QEI and Exhibitor shall be in writing and shall be deemed delivered when actually received by hand delivery, fax transmission, or by United States certified mail, return receipt requested.

(12) No Partnership: This Contract shall not be construed to create a partnership between QEI and Exhibitor or otherwise to create any relationship or agency. Exhibitor may not act on behalf of QEI without first receiving written authorization.

(13) QEI Authority: QEI shall have the right and authority to modify various conditions of The Eagle's National Career Expo including the times and content of the various seminars (if applicable) and the times during which attendees may view booths. Furthermore, QEI may determine, in its discretion, that the content of Exhibitor's booth is detrimental to the The Eagle's National Career Expo, in which event Exhibitor shall comply with all reasonable directions of QEI on changes and modifications. In no event will QEI be required to modify or require closure of any booth.

I have read the Contract for The Eagle's National Career Expo and agree with all its terms.

I agree to pay the amount indicated on Page One of this Agreement.

Tommy Castor visit to Cowley College-3/14/2012

On Wednesday, March 14th, I traveled to Arkansas City, Kansas to speak at Cowley College to a communications class. There were approximately 20-25 students plus a professor and a couple of guests in the class. I was asked to come to the college to speak to the students about my position in radio, the current state of the radio industry, and also tips on how to get a job in media. The talk lasted for about 45 minutes and I took questions afterwards. The questions mainly regarded internship prospects for the students. At the end of the talk, I offered up my business cards to any interested and I had conversations with about 7 students who were interested in internships and wanted to know about how to go about getting a job in broadcasting after graduation.

I was on 30 minute skype call today talking with Media students at Sterling College about careers in radio.

I'm also heading up the new advisory board for their new student radio station. That involvement should start next month.

Let me know what you need from me.

Thx!
