

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration Minutes	Description of Program/Segment
Water Testing Kits Available for Richland County	WRCO News	04/04/19	08:00 AM	4:00	Richland County Conservationist Cathy Cooper was interviewed about the availability of water testing kits for local residents which will be transported to UW Stevens Point for testing by the Richland County Land Conservation Committee.
Encouraging Entrepreneurs to Create Businesses to Support the Community	WRCO News	04/08/19	08:00 AM	4:00	WRCO News interviewed Kelly Hohnecke of the Southwestern Wisconsin Community Action Program about a six-week workshop series providing hands-on, step-by-step instruction to help entrepreneurs create a business and marketing plan, build financial projections, explore finance opportunities, and expand their business network. `
Encouraging Music Students to Grow and Mature as Musicians	WRCO News	04/09/19	08:00 AM	4:30	WRCO News interviewed Eric Brewer of the UW Platteville Richland Music Faculty about the first ever Middle School Honors Band program, allowing the young musicians to spend the day learning music, exploring the campus, and performing a concert for the public.
Dealing with Emerald Ash Borer in the City of Richland Center	WRCO News	04/15/19	08:00 AM	3:00	The City of Richland Center's ongoing efforts against the Emerald Ash Borer, an invasive wood boring beetle that infects ash trees throughout the state and the Midwest, continues this spring after the removal of many of the City's infected trees. Dave Fry, the Richland Center City Forester, was interviewed about the efforts to cut ash trees and deal with the issue.
Paying Proper tribute to Veterans and Creating Awareness About Badger Honor Flight	WRCO News	04/16/19	08:00 AM	3:30	WRCO News interviewed Brian Ziegler, the Badger Honor Flight Chairman Emeritus of the Board about the upcoming Badger Honor Flight to Washington DC. Badger Honor Flight has flown over 3,000 veterans on its prior 34 flights and is looking to serve eligible veterans.

Local Produce Creating Opportunities for Local Students	WRCO News	04/18/19	08:00 AM	3:00	Dana Neumann, Director of Business Services and Building & Grounds at Weston School was interviewed about the Weston Community Supported Agriculture program run by students. Those who purchase a share support students in the program who have a chance to earn a scholarship.
New Educational Opportunities at UW Platteville Richland	WRCO News	04/22/19	08:00 AM	4:30	To offer students more educational opportunities and to help meet the region's workforce demands, the University of Wisconsin-Platteville is offering new associate degrees at its branch campuses. Beginning this fall, students can work towards a new two-year Associate of Science degree at the University of Wisconsin Platteville Richland. Dr. Brandon Fetterly and Dr. Micheal Compton were interviewed.
Raising Funds to Feed Children Worldwide	WRCO News	04/17/19	08:00 AM	2:30	A fundraiser for Feed My Starving Children will be held in Richland Center Sunday April 28 at Peace United Methodist Church. Feed My Starving Children is a member of Global Impact's charity alliance. Volunteers hand pack scientifically formulated meals for undernourished children, which are distributed to a network of over 80 partners in over 60 countries. WRCO News interviewed members of the music groups participating to help raise awareness.
Raising Support for the Richland Center Sister City Project in Nicaragua	WRCO News	04/16/19	08:00 AM	2:30	The Spring Fling is a fundraiser for both the Kickapoo Valley Reserve and the Richland Center Santa – Teresa Sister City Project. Jane Furchgott, a member of the Richland Center Santa – Teresa Sister City Project Board of Directors was interviewed about the event and the use of the profits.
Drug Take Back Day in Richland County	WRCO News	04/27/19	08:00 AM	3:30	Betsy Roesler was interviewed about Drug Take Back Day. The Richland Center Police Department in conjunction with the Richland County Children and Family Advocacy Council is hosting a Drug Take Back event. It is a national initiative to get all unused prescription and over the counter drugs out of your medicine cabinet and safely destroyed.

Healthcare's Future in the State of Wisconsin	WRCO News	4/29/19	08:00 AM	5:30	Wisconsin Department of Health Services Secretary-Designee, Andrea Palm, visited in Richland Center. Palm touched on the budget and how broadband would help healthcare services to the rural areas and talked about the efforts to curb substance abuse.
Electronics and Tire recycling for Richland County	WRCO News	4/30/19	08:00 AM	3:00	Richland County Recycling Coordinator Carla Doudna was interviewed about the 2019 Richland County Tire & Electronic Recycling Event in May, giving people time to prepare.
Dealing with the Threat of Measles	WRCO News	4/30/19	08:00 AM	3:00	WRCO News interviewed Wisconsin Department of Health Secretary designee Andrea Palm about Wisconsin's vaccination policy and Wisconsin Gov. Tony Evers support for a bipartisan bill in the state Legislature designed to increase the number of children who get required vaccinations. The bill removes a personal conviction exemption that allows parents to opt their children out of getting the required vaccinations. It comes as the nation grapples with the highest number of measles cases in decades.
Dealing with a Struggling Dairy Industry in Wisconsin	WRCO News	5/2/19	08:00 AM	3:00	State Senator Howard Marklein of the 17th State Senate District and Representative Travis Tranel of the 49th Assembly District introduced legislation to establish a Dairy Innovation Hub. Senator Marklein was interviewed about the bill says the bill is focused on helping a struggling industry with new programs at three Universities..
Promoting Awareness for Groundwater Quality	WRCO News	5/3/19	08:00 AM	3:00	WRCO News promoted a community forum for Richland County residents and any others in the area who are interested in knowing what's in their water. Connie Champnoise, the Project Coordinator for the Richland Stewardship Project, was interviewed about the forum.

Wage Fairness at the State Prison in Boscobel	WRCO News	5/3/19	08:00 AM	2:00	WRCO News featured comments from State Representative Travis Tranel regarding the Wisconsin Department of Corrections announcement of a five dollar per hour add-on to Correctional Officers and Sergeants at every prison with maximum security in the state, except for the Wisconsin Secure Program Facility in Boscobel.
Saving Money for Higher Education for Children	WRCO News	5/2/19	08:00 AM	2:30	Chelsea Wunnicke, the Family Living Agent for University Extension – Richland County, was interviewed about the benefits of a universal child savings program for higher education and how it can be achieved in Richland County. The Child Savings Accounts Provided at Birth open forum was promoted.
Raising Funds for Research for Juvenile Diabetes	WRCO News	05/06/19	08:00 AM	2:30	Darlene Turnmire was interviewed about a special fundraiser for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. The day helps raise funds and also helps educate people about diabetes.
Dealing with the Aftermath of Hail Damage in Richland County	WRCO News	5/8/19	08:00 AM	3:00	WRCO News reported on the Richland County Board Personnel and Finance Committee meeting where supervisors were tasked with deciding how to proceed with disagreements on the replacement of roofs to county buildings damaged in April of 2018's hail storm.
Filling Local Food Pantries with Food	WRCO News	05/10/19	08:00 AM	3:00	Resa Norwood, the Postmaster for Richland Center, was interviewed about the annual National Association of Letter Carriers Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive. Postal customers were advised that this year, special bags will not be distributed. Food is retained by local food pantries.
Raising Funds to Assist Local Cancer Patients	WRCO News	05/16/19	08:00 AM	2:45	WRCO News interviewed June Nee of Greater Richland Area Cancer Elimination about the annual fundraising event that helps fund local cancer patient assistance and research in both Madison and LaCrosse.

Groundbreaking for the New Richland Center Aquatic Center	WRCO News	05/17/19	08:00 AM	3:00	WRCO News promoted and then attended and covered the ground breaking for the new Richland Center Aquatic Center. Park Board Chair Pat Elliott and Mayor Mike Kaufman were interviewed about the project that was approved earlier in the year after being rejected in 2018 because of unfavorable bids.
Understanding Global Warming and Climate Change	WRCO News	05/16/19	08:00 AM	3:00	The Richland County Chapter of the Citizens Climate Lobby hosted 27 Storm Track Chief Meteorologist, Bob Lindmeier for a discussion about solving the climate challenge. WRCO News interviewed Lindmeier about the program and his thoughts on climate change.
Seeking Public Input for the Administration Study for Richland County	WRCO News	5/21/19 - 5/28/19	08:00 AM	1:00	WRCO News provided reminders on a variety of newscasts that any Richland County resident wanting to provide input to the Ad-Hoc committee studying county administration should do so before the deadline of May 28.
Supporting the Dairy Industry at the Crawford County Dairy Breakfast	WRCO News	05/28/19	08:00 AM	3:00	WRCO News interviewed Wisconsin's Alice in Dairyland Kaitlyn Riley about the Crawford County Dairy Breakfast to be held June 1 at her family's dairy farm. Riley talked about the importance of the dairy industry to the local area and the State of Wisconsin.
Gaining an Appreciation for the History of Education in Richland County	WRCO News	05/29/19	08:00 AM	3:30	WRCO News interviewed Dr Jerry Bower of the Richland County Historical Society about the 2019 opening of the Akey School Museum. Akey is a restored one room school in Richland County that includes a collection of items from many one room schools.

Local Tourism and Community Promotion	WRCO News	05/29/19	08:00 AM	3:30	WRCO News interviewed Lon Arbegust, Richland Center Tourism Coordinator, about the annual community celebration known as “Wright of Spring” in honor of Frank Lloyd Wright. Arbegust also discussed the contract with Discover Wisconsin to promote the community. Discover Wisconsin will be starting filming the community during “Wright of Spring.”
Making the Community a Destination for International Students	WRCO News	06/04/19	08:00 AM	3:00	Both Richland Center High School and the UW Platteville Richland area seeking host families for international students for the next school year. Kathy Fry, Jessica Vodvarka and Kathy Rooney were all interviewed about the rewards and opportunities of being a host and they promoted a special open house to help educate the community.
Dealing with Road Funding a Repair Issues in Wisconsin	WRCO News	06/05/19	08:00 AM	3:00	WRCO News shared details on a proposal put forth by State Senator Howard Marklein to pay for repairs to county and town roads. Funds would be distributed by the Department of Transportation (DOT) directly to counties and municipalities. Comments from Senator Marklein were featured.
Helping Senior Afford Fresh Fruits and Vegetables	WRCO News	06/07/19	08:00 AM	2:45	The Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program offers eligible low-income seniors the opportunity to purchase fresh, locally grown fruits, vegetables and herbs from certified farmers. WRCO news provided details on the local distribution of vouchers.
Documenting Local History in Avoca	WRCO News	6/11/19	08:00 AM	3:00	2020 will be a special year for the village of Avoca as the community will celebrate its sesquicentennial. As preparations for a September 2020 celebration continue to be made, community members have also been working on a special project to mark the historic year. Shelly Miess and Diane Nachtigal of the local committee were interviewed about the need to submit information now to be included in a history book.

Water Quality Hearings Continue in Wisconsin	WRCO News	6/11/19	08:00 AM	4:30	The State Speaker's Task Force on Water Quality was created to gather information and make policy recommendations to better assess and improve the quality of both surface water and ground water in Wisconsin. Representative Todd Novak serves as the chair of the Task Force. WRCO News interviewed Rep. Novak about the next hearings scheduled for Mauston and LaCrosse.
Understanding the Dairy Margin Coverage Program	WRCO News	6/12/19	08:00 AM	3:00	WRCO News promoted a local program for dairy farmers. The Farm Service Agency (FSA) and the University of Wisconsin-Extension Office will host the informational meeting for dairy farmers at the UW-Extension Office in Richland Center. JoAnn Cooley, County Executive Director for Richland and Crawford County, USDA - Farm Service Agency was interviewed about changes to the Dairy Margin Coverage Program in advance of the local program.
Helping Local Veterans Access Medical Care	WRCO News	6/12/19	08:00 AM	2:50	WRCO News provided information about the Richland County Disabled American Veterans Van. It's a free service for veterans that allows access to the VA in Madison. Veterans Service Officer Karen Knock, Larry Marshall – Commander of the local Disabled American Veterans and veteran Scott Sawle were all interviewed about the opportunities.
World Elder Abuse Day	WRCO News	6/13/19	08:00 AM	3:30	WRCO News interviewed Michelle Reinen, the Director of the Bureau of Wisconsin's Department of Consumer Protection. The day serves as an opportunity to consider the risks that are posed to seniors, and to take steps to help them stay protected from fraud and identity thieves. According to the Wisconsin Department of Consumer Protection, seniors who have reported falling victim to scams say they are losing significantly more money than younger consumers despite falling victim less often.

Avoiding Scams & Vacation Issues	WRCO News	6/15/19	12:00 PM	6:40	WRCO News interviewed Michelle Reinen, the Director of the Bureau of Wisconsin's Department of Consumer Protection. Reinen detailed the current utility scam; one-ring telephone calls; helping children be safe and responsible online; and Safe Online Surfing.
Supporting Relief Efforts in Haiti	WRCO News	6/19/19	08:00 AM	4:00	WRCO News interviewed Darwin Hostetler about the fifth annual Gospel to Haiti Benefit and Auction which uses every dollar raised to support the Gospel to Haiti Mission and its health and education programs for the country.
Single Payer Healthcare System; Affordable Health Care	WRCO News	6/20/19	08:00 AM	3:15	WRCO News interviewed Marilyn Martin, Dr Mark Neumann and Kevin Kane of Citizen Action Wisconsin about an affordable health care forum to be held in the community. The forum will close with a question and answer session with State Representative Lisa Subeck, who is a member of the state assembly's health committee. Subeck will answer questions and discuss the status of health care issues as they pertain to the legislature.