

Face the State

QUARTER 4: OCTOBER 1st- DECEMBER 31st

SUNDAYS 9:30A/30 MINUTES

10/7 Children's Programming

10/14 Children's Programming

10/21 9:30am Repeat the Senatorial Debate

10/28 9:30am Repeat the Gubernatorial Debate

11/4 9:30am KRTV

The FTS I'm putting together this week is just a compilation of Marnee's campaign profiles.

11/11 Children's Programming

11/18 9:30am KPAX Host: Dennis Bragg

Guests: Marty Whitmore NWS Warning

Coordinator Ray & Nickless Hydrologist

Meteorologists from the National Weather Service discuss this winter's long-range outlook, and how the lack of an "El Nino" weather pattern will make it difficult to forecast the long term weather patterns. NWS Warning Coordinator Marty Whitmore and Hydrologist Ray Nickless also discuss this summer's fire season and record drought, winter preparedness and the installation of new "dual pole" radar equipment in Missoula and Great Falls to aid forecasting of storm events.

11/25 9:30am KBZK Host: Donna Kelly

Guest: Dr. David Parker.. MSU Political professor

Assistant Professor Jeremy Johnson, Carroll College

After election conversation..some Monday morning quarter backing and looking ahead.

The Senate race between Jon Tester and Denny Rehberg.

How it played out..Parker at Tester headquarters night of election.

New book Battle for the Big Sky Parker is writing that will be out in about a year.

The polls.. how accurate and paid attention to.

Governor Schweitzer..what's next for him. Run for President. Can he do it? What does he need to do.

Money and Rolodex people . He's hired a national person already.

Fiscal Cliff.. will it happen.. politically who will benefit and what compromises could happen.

12/2 Children's Programming

12/9 Children's Programming

12/16 9:30am KTVQ Host: Jay Kohn

Guests: Mt. Sen. Jeff Essmann R-Billings, Mt. Rep.
Margie MacDonald D-Billings

Today's program featured two leaders of the 2013 Legislature, looking ahead at the session that convenes in Helena January 7th. Sen. Essmann will serve as the President of the Montana Senate, while Rep. MacDonald will be one of two minority whips in the Montana House. Major topics on today's program included an overview of the upcoming session and some of the top priorities for both parties, including education funding, oil & gas revenues and impacts, and property tax relief. We also discussed the impact of term limits on the legislature, and proposed changes to the term limit law.

12/23 9:30am KRTV Host: Heath Heggem

Guests: Maj. Thomas Butler/ Montana Highway Patrol
Erin Inman/Montana Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor
Leo McCarthy/ Mariah's Challenge Founder

They discussed the statistics of DUI's in Montana and the dangers of driving under the influence. They also discussed Mariah's Challenge Foundation and the challenge to prevent underage drinking in Montana.

12/30 9:30am KBZK Host: Ted Dawson

Guest: Rob Ash MSU Football Coach

Montana State football coach Rob Ash "faces the state" this Sunday. Ash is the current "Coach of the Year" in the FCS and is a finalist for the award again. On this week's edition of MTN's Public Affairs program, "Face the State" Ash reveals for the first time some of the motivation for his coaching career, the mentors who have guided his coaching philosophy, and his future plans. With host Ted Dawson, Face the State will also delve into the reason Ash has been so successful in recruiting and winning with Montana High School players.