Series: Rich in Love (Cont'd)

Wednesday, October 1 — Through His Love

Their first year of marriage was a huge mess, and many of the years that followed weren't much better. But when Domingo and Irene Garcia gave their lives to Christ, miracles happened. Domingo and Irene share how God filled their hearts to the brim!

Series: A Christ Centered Wedding

Thursday, October 2— What Should a Wedding Be?

Wedding planning is big business. But a wedding itself is so much more than that. Catherine Strode Parks and her mother, Linda Strode, talk about the Christ-centered wedding - a wedding that reflects the gospel to all in attendance.

Friday, October 3 — Focusing on Christ

Should a believer's wedding look different than an unbeliever's? Mother-daughter team Catherine Strode Parks and Linda Strode encourages couples to be intentional about their marriages, beginning with the wedding. Together they give some practical advice on creating a wedding experience that reflects a couple's faith.

Series: Forgiving Our Fathers and Mothers

Monday, October 6 — Finding Freedom from Hurt and Hate

A grandfather and his grandchildren. The thought conjures up a sweet picture of love to most. Award-winning author Leslie Leyland Fields recalls the first time she packed up her six kids and traveled from Alaska to Florida to visit her estranged father. She had prepared them not to expect much; after all, he hadn't been much of a father to her, so why would he be interested in his grandchildren? Leslie talks about this bittersweet visit, as well as her childhood growing up with a mentally ill father.

Tuesday, October 7— Baby Steps to Forgiveness

Forgiveness is never easy. Author Leslie Leyland Fields talks to Dennis Rainey about forgiving her father after years and years of estrangement. Leslie shares what prompted her to seek her father out after so many years of neglect and what God taught her about forgiving those who love us least.

Wednesday, October 8 — Taking on the Heart of Forgiveness

Are you estranged from your mother or father? Leslie Leyland Fields has been there. Leslie reflects on her own journey of forgiveness which began one Sunday when the words of the Lord's Prayer penetrated her heart like an arrow: "Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us."

No Series

Thursday, October 9— Family Matters

What factors contribute to a child's success or failure? Brad Wilcox, the Director of the National Marriage Project at the University of Virginia, talks about the impact that single parents are having on our communities.

No Series

Friday, October 10 — A Dangerous Calling

Being a pastor has its benefits, as well as its challenges. Bible counselor Paul David Tripp talks about the pitfalls unique to pastors and those in vocational ministry. Tripp recalls the struggles he experienced early in his ministry when the chasm between his life as a pastor and his real life as a husband and father became wider and wider.

Series: A Loving Life

Monday, October 13 — Pressing Into Christ

What's the best way to learn about love? Dive in! Paul Miller, executive director of see Jesus, opens up the Book of Ruth to illustrate the meaning of hesed love, a steadfast kind of love and commitment that knows no exit strategy.

Tuesday, October 14— Suffering as the Crucible for Love

We must embrace Christ in His suffering. Best-selling author and father of six, Paul Miller, is joined by his autistic daughter, Kim, 32, as he talks about joining into Christ's fellowship of suffering.

Wednesday, October 15 — Loving in the Crucible

We learn things in the crucible of life that we won't learn anywhere else. Author Paul Miller returns to the Book of Ruth to teach us a lesson about love.

Series: Sex, Dating and Relationships

Thursday, October 16— Sexually Involved—Yes, No, Maybe?

How far is too far? Pastors Gerald Hiestand and Jay Thomas share a biblical theology of dating aimed at persuading a new generation of Christians to get serious about honoring Christ with their sexuality.

Friday, October 17 — Dating Friendships

Is dating that beneficial? Not really, says Pastors Gerald Hiestand and Jay Thomas. Instead of dating, they encourage singles to establish dating friendships, getting to know someone gradually over time, and then making their intentions of marriage known before beginning to date exclusively.

Series: Manhood

Monday, October 20 — Men as Husbands

How would your wife rate you as a husband? Hear a message by Matt Chandler, pastor of The Village Church in Highland Village, TX, on what it means to be a man who initiates, nourishes, and cherishes his wife.

Tuesday, October 21— Men as Fathers

Dads are the burden bearers of the household. Pastor Matt Chandler talks to men about the responsibilities they bear as fathers. Hear him explain why fathers shouldn't provoke their children to anger, and how the discipline of the children squarely falls on the father's shoulders.

No Series

Wednesday, October 22 — Quiet Strength

In the midst of incredible success as the Indianapolis Colts head coach, Tony Dungy experienced heart wrenching loss when his teenage son, James, committed suicide. Hear how the family survived the loss and what he leans on to see him through.

No Series

Thursday, October 23 — Lead Me: An Interview with Sanctus Real

After seven years, their marriage had hit a wall. Christian recording artist Matt Hammitt, the lead singer of Sanctus Real, talks to Dennis Rainey about the moment his wife told him what she honestly needed from him. For once, instead of making excuses, Matt finally "got it," and wrote a song that reflected the changes he planned to make for his marriage. Hear more from Matt, and the song he wrote

No Series

Friday, October 24 — My Battle with Porn

Some habits are hard to break. Clarence Shuler talks about his past struggles with pornography. Exposed to illicit images when he was young, Shuler tells how he tried to shake off the habit, especially during his seminary studies and the ministry that followed. He explains that it wasn't until he exposed his sin to the light and confessed his addiction to others that he found deliverance from this enslaving habit.

Series: What Do You Think of Me?

Monday, October 27 — Who is God? Who Am I?

Our desire to be loved runs deep. Biblical counselor Ed Welch explains that our desire for love isn't evil, but that in some instances we want it too much; so much so, in fact, that we can be controlled by what others think.

Tuesday, October 28 — Who Does God Say I Am?

God knows and loves you. But do you know Him? Christian counselor Ed Welch believes most of us care too much about what others think of us.

Wednesday, October 29 — Loving in the Footsteps of Christ

Why do I care so much about me? Biblical counselor Ed Welch says if we were honest, most of us would love to be great in a kingdom of our own making. Christ, however, has a better idea. If we are to follow Christ's example then, we must learn to love other people more than we want to be loved by them.

Series: How to Pick a Spouse

Thursday, October 30 — Know What You're Getting

Dreaming of your future spouse? Pastor Dan Chun encourages singles to closely observe the person they're dating and invites them to ask some key questions.

Friday, October 31 — Seeking the High C's

What qualities should you look for in a spouse? Dan Chun, Senior Pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Honolulu, reminisces about his own failed marriage, and tells how he approached love and marriage differently the second time around. Chun walks us through the High C's of good mate selection: Choice, Character, Chemistry, Competency, Culture, Commitment and Communication.

Series: The First Thanksgiving

Monday, November 3 — Remembering the Pilgrims

Pilgrims. Who were they, really? Tracy McKenzie, professor of history at Wheaton College, along with Barbara Rainey, take us back to the 1600's to the village of Scrooby, the birthplace of a sect of the Puritans called the Pilgrims. Find out more about these people and their incredible journey.

Tuesday, November 4 — The Real First Thanksgiving

History professor Tracy McKenzie and Barbara Rainey take us on a fascinating journey through history to shed light on the real first Thanksgiving and the somewhat curious people we call the Pilgrims.

Wednesday, November 5 — Barbara Rainey on Gratitude

Would you like your children to be more grateful? Barbara Rainey tells what she did to try and cultivate a heart of gratitude in her children. Barbara also explains why we struggle to be grateful for God's blessings.

Series: Being Thankful

Thursday, November 6 — Thankful Family Life, Part 1

Hard to believe it's that time again! Time for Barbara Rainey's official and most favorite holiday, Thanksgiving! This program offers a special look back at Thanksgivings past and present at the Rainey house.

Friday, November 7 — Thankful Family Life, Part 2

Every parent knows that gratefulness doesn't just happen. It must be nurtured by example. This program gives advice on how parents can nurture their children's gratitude by their own practice of gratefulness during the upcoming holiday.

Series: Fun Loving You

Monday, November 10 — Enjoying Marriage in the Midst of the Grind

Would you call your marriage fun? Pastor Ted Cunningham reflects on his fun-loving engagement and marriage to his bride of 17 years, Amy, but admits that the early years of matrimony weren't without their challenges.

Tuesday, November 11 — Building a Fun Marriage

Would your spouse describe you as fun-loving? Pastor Ted Cunningham, author of "Fun Loving You," tells of the fun he has making his wife laugh. Ted reminds couples to enjoy themselves in the midst of life's ups and downs.

Wednesday, November 12 — Getting Unstuck

Is your marriage in a rut? Pastor Ted Cunningham shares some sound advice for getting your marriage out of the doldrums and back on the happy track.

Series: Leaving a Legacy of Destiny

Thursday, November 13— Why Godly Legacies Matter

It's easy to spot today's problems--disintegration of the family, divorce, crime, and loss of core values like integrity and trust. Hear pastor and author Crawford Loritts' two-pronged solution. First, live out integrity. Second, pass it on to the next generation.

Friday, November 14 — The Importance of a Godly Legacy

Perhaps you've heard some successful man or woman identify the source of their success by admitting that they simply "stand on the shoulders of giants." Pastor and speaker Crawford Loritts, shares how those shoulders belonged to his great-grandfather, Peter Loritts.

Series: The Beauty of Broken

Monday, November 17 — No Perfect Family

Life isn't perfect, and neither are families. Elisa Morgan, founder of MOPS International, (Mothers Of Preschoolers) talks honestly about her parents' sudden divorce when she was five, her mother's alcoholism, and her father's absence.

Tuesday, November 18 — I Am the Mother This Child Needs

Motherhood can be overwhelming. MOPS founder Elisa Morgan shares how Christ changed her life at age 16 and led her to attend seminary.

Wednesday, November 19 — Turning Broken into Beautiful

Is your family broken? MOPS founder Elisa Morgan wants you to know that you're not alone. Elisa recalls the fear she had going to the board of MOPS to tell them about her teen daughter's pregnancy, knowing that the information would shatter her ideal family image.

Series: The Fifth Gospel

Thursday, November 20 — Be the Gospel

How are you living the gospel? Bobby Conway, lead pastor of Life Fellowship Church in Charlotte, NC, reminds listeners that, while there are four gospels in the Bible, the 5th gospel -- the one we actually live out -- is the gospel most people are ever likely to read.

Friday, November 21 — How Christians are Perceived

Say "Christian" in our culture and many people think hypocrite, or worse. Why? Pastor Bobby Conway says that, unfortunately, Christians have earned a lot of the negative feedback because of the way we live. Conway reminds us that Christians' lives are to reflect the heart of Christ, which means we need to live in unity, humility and love for and with each other.

Series: Risky Gospel

Monday, November 24 — Abandon Fear and Build Something Awesome

Are you a risk taker? Owen Strachan, a professor of Christian Theology and Church History, challenges listeners to disregard their fear and follow Christ with abandon.

Tuesday, November 25 — Using Your Talents for the Glory of God

In what ways are you stepping out in faith? Professor Owen Strachan opens the Bible to the Parable of the Talents explaining that the meaning of the parable isn't financial stewardship, but going all out for the glory of God.

Wednesday, November 26 — Building Your Faith

Is your faith as big as a mustard seed? Then you have enough to do big things for God! Owen Strachan, President of the CBMW, (Counsel on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood) encourages believers to step out in faith and achieve great things in Christ's name. That's at (Time: ) on (Station: )

Thursday, November 27 — Common Blessings, Familiar Miracles

It's a familiar saying that "you can't see the forest for the trees." Gary Thomas, author and founder of the Center for Evangelical Spirituality, explains how we often miss God's current blessings while waiting for future miracles.

Friday, November 28 — Gender and Parenthood

Are mothers and fathers really necessary for a healthy upbringing? Brad Wilcox, Director of the National Marriage Project at the University of Virginia, talks about the unique roles of mothers and fathers and how those roles affect and influence children for good.

Series: How Pinterest Stole Christmas

Monday, December 1 — Putting Christ First

The holidays have begun, and your to-do list is already a mile long. Ever Thine Home® creator Barbara Rainey encourages moms everywhere to dial back the stress by focusing on the real meaning of Christmas.

Tuesday, December 2 — Making Jesus Our Focus

Getting ready for Christmas Day is exciting ... and exhausting. Barbara Rainey, Ever Thine Home® creator, suggests approaching Christmas from a new angle. Instead of focusing on all the things left to be done, Barbara encourages moms to put their focus on Christ and what He's already done for us.

Series: Celebrating Christ at Christmas

Wednesday, December 3 — The Power of the Name of Jesus

What's in a name? When the name is Jesus, there's a whole lot more than you might first imagine. Nancy Leigh DeMoss, Barbara Rainey, Crawford Loritts, and Kay Arthur discuss the name above all names.

Thursday, December 4 — Ponder the Names of Christ

What do a door, a lamb, a lion, and a good shepherd have in common? Everything, when you know that they are all names of the one true King, Jesus Christ. This show explores more names of Christ, with special guests Franklin Graham, Nancy Leigh DeMoss, Barbara Rainey, and Crawford Loritts.

Friday, December 5 — Proclaiming His Name

In ancient times, names carried powerful symbolism, but in today's often trivializing culture, the power of names can sometimes get lost in the mix. Find out why the names of Jesus are so significant, and how you can teach them to your family. Hear insights from Franklin Graham, Dennis Rainey, and Crawford Loritts.

Series: Christmas Q&A with Dennis and Barbara Rainey

Monday, December 8 — Christmas Memories

Ever wonder what Christmas at the Rainey household is really like? Join Dennis and Barbara Rainey as they walk down memory lane and answer listeners' questions about their best and worst Christmases ever.

Tuesday, December 9 — Questions for Christmas

The Christmas season can be particularly stressful for families. Dennis and Barbara Rainey answer your questions about the best way to handle the holidays. Hear them explain how to juggle in-laws, what to do about boyfriends and girlfriends of your children, and how to put long-held traditions to rest.

Wednesday, December 10 — More Christmas Questions

Like a big, red Christmas bow, our extended family relationships can come unraveled during the holidays if we're not careful. Dennis and Barbara Rainey lock arms to tackle your toughest holiday questions.

Series: Why Do We Call It Christmas?

Thursday, December 11 — Buck Denver Asks...

Cutting down trees? Hanging stockings? Santa Claus? What do any of these have to do with Jesus' birthday? More than you think! VeggieTales creator Phil Vischer talks about his latest Christmas DVD which explains the meaning behind some of our fondest Christmas traditions.

Friday, December 12 — Celebrating Christmas

Have you ever wondered why we celebrate Christmas the way we do? Join Phil Vischer, the creator of VeggieTales and of the DVD, "Why Do We Call it Christmas?" as he explores the who, what, where, when, and how of our most popular holiday.

Series: Kisses from Katie

Monday, December 15 — Jesus Wrecked My Life

Eighteen-year-old Katie Davis had a desire to go and serve the children of Uganda for a season before college. Hear more about this courageous young woman and her outreach to orphans in Africa.

Tuesday, December 16 — I Never Meant to Be a Mother

Motherhood is delightful and difficult, even for the most seasoned of mothers. Hear Amazima Ministry founder Katie Davis tells how she went from being a kindergarten teacher in Uganda at age 18 to a soon-to-be adoptive mother of 13 Ugandan orphans by the time she was 25 years old.

Wednesday, December 17 — An Assignment to Love

"God has turned my world upside down, but He's turning it right side up." Amazima director and founder Katie Davis tells how God changed her perspective and filled her with passion to love and serve the Ugandan people, especially the children.

Series: Single and Free to be Me*Thursday, December 18 — Contented Singleness

Are you intoxicated with romance? Clarence Shuler admits that he was too, at one time. But as relationship after relationship took a nosedive, Clarence wondered if he'd ever get married.

Friday, December 19 — Finding "The One"

Love is a dance. Sometimes it's a waltz and sometimes it's a bunny hop—but either way, the key to making love last is finding a dance partner who shares your rhythm. Clarence Shuler talks about his sometimes-rocky courtship with his now-wife, Brenda.

No Series*Monday, December 22 — The Heavens Declare God's Glory

Is yours a high-risk occupation? What about your spouse's? So how do you deal with the stress and uncertainty? Today's guests are Deanna Wilmore and her husband Naval Aviator, test pilot, NASA astronaut and the current International Space Station commander, Captain Barry "Butch" Wilmore.

Series: The Power of New Covenant Love*Tuesday, December 23 — Advice That Stands the Test of Time

Good advice is worth its weight in gold. Dennis Rainey welcomes his long-time friend, Carl Wilson, the founder of CRU's Student Venture. Dennis recalls Carl's advice to him 40 years ago when Carl advised him to read the Word and pray with Barbara every night, a suggestion Dennis took to heart.

Wednesday, December 24 — A Love Story Grounded on Christ

Our Plan B is often God's Plan A. Dennis Rainey remembers good times with Student Venture founder and special friend, Carl Wilson.

Series: Joy to the World*Thursday, December 25 — News of Great Joy

The angels appeared to the shepherds, bringing with them joyful news of Christ's birth. Bob Lepine shares a special Christmas message about living in the fullness of Christ's joy

Friday, December 26 — The Joy that God Gives

When people are asked to describe Christians in our culture today, what word most often comes to mind? Sadly, it's not usually the word "joy"... and yet during the Christmas season in particular, that word ought to be at the top of the list. Bob Lepine talks about this important fruit of the spirit.

Series: Cleaning House*Monday, December 29 — Advice from a Former Enabler

Mom, are you tired of doing it all? Mother of five and self-described enabler, Kay Wills Wyma, tells how she introduced her kids to the basic tasks of independence by implementing an unusual one-year experiment designed to teach her kids to be helpers, rather than the helped, one household chore at a time.

Tuesday, December 30 — Cleaning Up: Tackling Bedrooms and KP Duty

Are you doing for your kids what they should be doing for themselves? Author and mom Kay Wills Wyma decided to end the entitlement attitude she saw in her children by kicking off a one-year experiment in her home that would reward her kids for household chores.

Wednesday, December 31 — Putting an End to Youth Entitlement

Do you feel more like the household maid than the queen of her castle? Kay Wills Wyma and her husband began a 12-month experiment with their five children, introducing a new chore each month and rewarding them for a job well done.
