FAMILY LIFE TODAY

REPORT ISSUE – FAMILY MATTERS

Program: FAMILY LIFE TODAY
NATIONALLY SYNDICATED PROGRAM

Agency: AMBASSADOR
30 MINUTES

Dates: Each Weekday, Monday through Friday Air Time: 10:30 - 11:00 am

"FamilyLife Today" provides practical, biblical tools to address the issues affecting the family in a format that is conversational in nature. At the core of every program is motivation, encouragement, and help. The host of the program is Dennis Rainey, who is joined by radio veteran Bob Lepine.

Series: Elevating Easter

Tuesday, April 1— It Isn't Christmas

Many Christians seem to have lost sight of the most magnificent holiday of the year, and here's a tip – it's not Christmas. Barbara Rainey shares her passion for elevating Easter, the greatest holiday of the Christian calendar.

Wednesday, April 2 —Resurrection Eggs: Creatively Sharing Christ

Easter offers prime opportunities for sharing Christ. Barbara Craft, Barbara Rainey and others tell how Resurrection Eggs can be a creative tool for sharing Christ. Thursday, April 3— Resurrection Eggs and the Easter Story Various guests tell how they used the FamilyLife resource, Resurrection Eggs, to share the gospel at Easter.

Friday, April 4— Why the Resurrection Matters

Can you quickly open your Bible and point out a Gospel passage? If the exact address is a little fuzzy, let pastor and author Bob Lepine help you out, as he explores 1 Corinthians 15, and the core of the Gospel.

No Series

Monday, April 7— Esteeming Marriage

Across America, there is a new awareness of the importance of the marriage covenant. Dennis Rainey says that now, more than ever, we must articulately and compassionately defend marriage.

Tuesday, April 8— Practical Marriage Coaching

Jim and Carol Shores, as professional dramatists, use their comedic talents to illustrate how to move your marriage from good to great.

Wednesday, April 9 —To Love, Honor, and Cherish

Submission and headship - two words that set many a Christian soul on edge. According to Crawford and Karen Loritts, that's unfortunate, because when men and women accurately grasp and honestly embrace these Biblical truths, the result brings great glory to God and great peace to their relationship.

Thursday, April 10— Knowing God's Truth

You have a lot of things to teach your children before they reach adolescence. Shouldn't God's law be one of them? Al Mohler, president of Southern Baptist Seminary, tells parents why teaching their children the Ten Commandments is vital to their children's spiritual and emotional health.

Friday, April 11 — I Still Do

Every marriage has a crisis year, sometimes years. For Dennis and Barbara Rainey, that year was 1976. Dennis Rainey tells the amazing story of trial and triumph as he details how God took him to and through the valley of suffering.

Series: Holy Is The Day

Monday, April 14 — Whispers from God

The road of life sometimes makes unexpected turns. That's what Carolyn Weber found to be true when a college professor submitted her application for a scholarship to Oxford, and she was selected. Carolyn reflects on those early months as a student at Oxford and her spiritual awakening which began there.

Tuesday, April 15— Irresistible Jesus

Sharing the love of Christ with someone can change their life. And it might change yours. Dennis Rainey welcomes Kent Weber on the program to share how he witnessed to, and then wooed, his wife, guest Carolyn Weber, whom he met when they were students at Oxford.

Wednesday, April 16 —The Crucible of Pain

There are times in life when all we have is our faith to see us through. And that's enough.

Carolyn Weber tells how a difficult labor and delivery with her twins lead her to death's door and how God sustained her through that trauma she calls the crucible moment in her marriage.

Series: Orphan Justice

Thursday, April 17— Growing a Heart for the Orphan

Adoption is good, but it's not for everyone. So thought Pastor Johnny Carr until a missionary spoke to him about the desperate needs of deaf orphans in Belarus. Johnny shares how he and his wife, a teacher to the deaf, came to adopt three special needs children to add to their family of four.

Friday, April 18 — Adoption: Calling and Concerns

Adoption is a calling. But it's not a smooth road. Johnny Carr, a former national director of church partnerships at Bethany Christian Services, talks about some of the challenges that can take place in the adoption system. More importantly, Johnny talks about the plight of orphans around the world.

Series: Grace Filled Marriage

Monday, April 21 — Loved by God to Love Your Spouse

Do you show your spouse grace? Grace, according to authors Tim and Darcy Kimmel, is giving someone what they desperately need, but don't especially deserve. Tim and Darcy share some grace moments from their own marriage.

Tuesday, April 22— Our Mate's Three Driving Needs

Are you loving your mate as God loves you? FamilyLife speakers Tim and Darcy Kimmel define love as "the commitment of my will to your needs and best interest, regardless of the cost," and talk about the three driving inner needs we hope to satisfy in marriage: security, significance, and strength.

Wednesday, April 23 —Grace in the Bedroom

Is there room for grace in the bedroom? You bet! Tim and Darcy Kimmel, marriage and family therapists for 31 years, explain that in a grace-filled marriage you have to put the other person's interests first and be available.

Series: Before-You-Marry Questions

Thursday, April 24— Are You Ready for Marriage?

How do you know if you're ready to take the Big Step? Bill and Pam Farrell, authors of "The Before-You-Marry Book of Questions," encourage couples to walk in faith, not fear, towards marriage.

Friday, April 25 — Asking the Right Questions

How well do you know your intended? Husband and wife duo Bill and Pam Farrell, encourage men and women to know what they might be getting into by asking their boyfriend or girlfriend the right questions.

Series: Glimpses of Grace

Monday, April 28 — God in the Mundane

God is in the monotonous. A pastor's wife and mother of four, talks about the day she realized that her mom duties weren't interruptions to her spiritual growth, but that God wanted to interact with her in the day to day, amongst the dishes and the diapers.

Tuesday, April 29— All Moments are God Moments

God uses the weak to confound the strong. Dave Furman, pastor of Redeemer Church in Dubai, and his wife, Gloria, talk about the debilitating disease that has weakened his muscles, but not their faith or their ministry.

Series: I Beg to Differ

Wednesday, April 30 —Speaking with Truth and Love

Words are like seeds. It's best then to be purposeful with the words that you sow. Tim Muehlhoff, an associate professor of communications at Biola, encourages listeners to anticipate the effect their words have on others and to think twice before they speak.

Thursday, May 1— Watching Your Words

Do you regret what you said? Communications professor Tim Muehlhoff reminds us that our words, especially those that are written, are powerful, and can often be misinterpreted.

Friday, May 2— Navigating a Difficult Conversation

We've all been there. We need to approach a friend or loved one about a difficult matter and we don't know how to begin. Communications expert Tim Muehlhoff offers some communication tips for navigating a difficult conversation.

No Series

Monday, May 5— Irreplaceable

What is the family, really? And why does it matter? Jim Daly talks with Dennis Rainey about Focus on the Family's new documentary on the family, Irreplaceable, showing one-day only on May 6 in select theatres.

Series: Beautiful Mess

Tuesday, May 6 — Hiding the Word in Your Heart

Motherhood is messy, but beautiful. MOPS President Sherry Surratt and MomLife Today founder Tracey Eyster team up to talk about the greatest challenge they've ever faced – being mothers.

Wednesday, May 7 — You're Not Alone

Are you feeling alone, Mom? MOPS President Sherry Surratt and MomLife Today founder Tracey Eyster recall their 40 plus combined years of parenting and assure moms that Jesus will equip and strengthen them if they'll just turn to Him for help and wisdom.

Thursday, May 8 — Courage in Numbers

Don't be discouraged, Mom. This too shall pass. Veteran moms Tracey Eyster and Sherry Surratt encourage moms to break free from isolation and find other moms to link arms with.

No Series

Friday, May 9 — Mom's Night Out

A new wave of cinema is gaining ground in Hollywood, and a new generation of media-savvy Christian producers and directors are riding the edge of that wave. Join us for an insider's view of motion picture business, with Kevin Downs, and Andy Erwin, producer and director of the new crossover comedy "Mom's Night Out" from Sony Pictures.

Series: Eight Important Money Decisions

Monday, May 12 — Planning a Budget
