ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

FOR KYXY HD-2 SAN DIEGO

FOURTH QUARTER, 2014

OCTOBER 1 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2014

Prepared by:

Marlo Rhodes
Public Affairs Director

Issues of Concern to San Diego
Addressed In Responsive Programming In The FOURTH QUARTER, 2014

1. Economic/Financial

This is the number #1 issue both here in San Diego and across the country. Increasing mortgage rates, foreclosures decreasing home values, and increases in the cost of living expenses are causing a strain on the local economy. A major concern to homeowners is dealing with the current reality that mortgages are higher than their homes worth.

2. Jobs & Growth

Our local economy has slowed tremendously over the past 2 years causing few opportunities for job seekers. Local businesses and companies continue shed jobs to deal with the current economic crisis, and San Diegans in the job market are forced to seek out few opportunities.

3. Transportation

Morning and afternoon gridlock are major concerns in the San Diego area.

4. Business/Tourism

Tourism is a major source of revenue to the San Diego area. Even in tough financial times the local economy continues to thrive from this source of income.

5. Education

The best way to keep the community growing and prospering is to educate and inform its citizens. We gain helpful insight from many community leaders on a range of issues.

6. Health/Environmental

One in five San Diego residents are uninsured or underinsured, promoting the need for a healthy lifestyle information and the need for clean air, water and environment.

7. Crime Prevention

Crime rates here in San Diego County continue to flourish as the local economy seems to decline. Desperation appears to be a main motivator of theft and recurrent criminal activities and it has become critical to educate citizens to help reduce and prevent crime whenever possible.

KYXY HD-2 PROGRAMMING THAT ADDRESSES COMMUNITY ISSUES

“Concerning San Diego”

Every Sunday morning 6 am to 7 am. This program addresses public issues and concerns through interviews with local community leaders. We gain helpful insight into problem situations and discuss possible solutions.

Public Service Announcements:

Aired during the weekly public affairs program; non-profit groups and organizations have an opportunity to publicize their need to the San Diego community. Local fund raising events are also displayed on our website at the KYXY.COM community page.

Local News:

An item called “Community News & Events” has been added as weekly informative feature to the public affairs programming. This portion of the program recap’s the biggest local and national news stories of the week.

Special News Reports:

The KYXY radio staff is on 24 hours a day. If and when anything happens of major concern to the San Diego area; the air-staff reports the information promptly.

Traffic Reports:

This item is addressed at least four times per hour during morning and afternoon drive with regularly scheduled traffic reports. Traffic reports are also provided on an as needed basis 24 hours a day by KYXY on-air staff when major traffic, congestion and road closures occur along with alternative routes. Station traffic reports and newscasts also advise San Diegans of traffic related projects from freeway and road construction.

Ascertainments

Ascertainments to determine the top issues and problems facing the San Diego community are done on a constant ongoing basis by: e-mail, U.S. mail, and phone conversations. In addition, each guest making an appearance on “Concerning San Diego” is asked for their response. Findings from these interviews, e-mails, letters and phone conversations are collated to determine the top six issues to be addressed on a frequent basis through our public affairs program and in regularly scheduled newscasts.

Station management personnel are also in frequent contact with community leaders and are informed about significant problem areas.

MOST SIGNIFICANT ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

ISSUE: ECONOMIC/FINANCIAL

Our nation's financial crisis has had a disastrous ripple effect upon urban communities like San Diego. The increasing cost of goods and supplies has slowed construction and economic growth causing unemployment to rise. Home values continue to decrease and home foreclosures have caused the housing market to come to a standstill. According to media reports, Mayor Jerry Sanders and the City of San Diego are planning massive budget cuts to steer through these tough economic times.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” OCTOBER 5, 2014

Guest: Robert J. Farrell, Job Coach and President, RJF Coaching.com

Our entire 60 minute program is devoted to Mr. Farrell who explains to us simple tips for searching for jobs, writing resumes, and how to perform in a job interview. This topic is extremely timely as San Diego and the State of California unemployment rates have risen sharply in recent months.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” OCTOBER 12, 2014

Guest: Gabe Del Rio, VP of Lending and Homeownership, Community Housing Works

30 percent of San Diego mortgages are worth more than their home is worth. Many San Diego County residents have fallen into foreclosure. During this program, Mr. Del Rio explains how best to prevent homes from falling into foreclosure and what homeowners can do to stay in their homes once they have fallen behind on their mortgage payments. We spend 30 minutes of our 60 minute program with Mr. Del Rio.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” NOVEMBER 23, 2014

Guest: Lauri Walker, Media Specialist, California Center for Sustainable Energy.

Another 20 minutes is devoted speaking with Ms. Walker on the concept of Solar Energy. In California with its plentiful sunlight; Solar Energy is an expanding industry. We talk to Ms. Walker about the benefits of Solar Energy and the incentives and rebates in place to help owners make the switch to a more cost efficient and renewable source of energy, and the rapidly expanding job market in the green sector.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” DECEMBER 28, 2014

Guest: Rob Schupp, Metropolitan Transit System

22 minutes is spent discussing the new Rapid transit bus system making commuting and traveling around San Diego County more accessible. San Diego’s roads and highways are congested on an almost daily basis due to lack of public transit.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” OCTOBER 12, 2014

Guest: David Code, Author and Marriage and Family Counselor.

Stressed-out parents can be hazardous to their children's health, but David Code's book, “Kids Pick Up on Everything” offers a surprising solution: to raise healthy kids, a friend, and a Spanish plaza to go socialize in every evening! Being stressed out is The New Normal for parents, and the surprising cause of our increased stress is social isolation—NOT our jobs, or technology. Code argues that humans are social animals, with a primal need to bond and to belong. Socializing reduces stress, so the best gift you can give your children is to build community. 20 minutes is spent talking with Mr. Code.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” OCTOBER 19, 2014
