Issues of Concern to San Diego
Addressed In Responsive Programming In The THIRD QUARTER, 2014

1. Economic/Financial

This is the number #1 issue both here in San Diego and across the country. Increasing mortgage rates, foreclosures decreasing home values, and increases in the cost of living expenses are causing a strain on the local economy. A major concern to homeowners is dealing with the current reality that mortgages are higher than their homes worth.

2. Jobs & Growth

Our local economy has slowed tremendously over the past 2 years causing few opportunities for job seekers. Local businesses and companies continue shed jobs to deal with the current economic crisis, and San Diegans in the job market are forced to seek out few opportunities.

3. Transportation

Morning and afternoon gridlock are major concerns in the San Diego area.

4. Business/Tourism

Tourism is a major source of revenue to the San Diego area. Even in tough financial times the local economy continues to thrive from this source of income.

5. Education

The best way to keep the community growing and prospering is to educate and inform its citizens. We gain helpful insight from many community leaders on a range of issues.

6. Health/Environmental

One in five San Diego residents are uninsured or underinsured, promoting the need for a healthy lifestyle information and the need for clean air, water and environment.

7. Crime Prevention

Crime rates here in San Diego County continue to flourish as the local economy seems to decline. Desperation appears to be a main motivator of theft and recurrent criminal activities and it has become critical to educate citizens to help reduce and prevent crime whenever possible.

KYXY HD-2 PROGRAMMING THAT ADDRESSES COMMUNITY ISSUES

“Concerning San Diego”

Every Sunday morning 6 am to 7 am. This program addresses public issues and concerns through interviews with local community leaders. We gain helpful insight into problem situations and discuss possible solutions.

Public Service Announcements:

Aired during the weekly public affairs program; non-profit groups and organizations have an opportunity to publicize their need to the San Diego community. Local fund raising events are also displayed on our website at the KYXY.COM community page.

Local News:

An item called “Community News & Events” has been added as weekly informative feature to the public affairs programming. This portion of the program recap’s the biggest local and national news stories of the week.

Special News Reports:

The KYXY HD-2 radio staff is on 24 hours a day. If and when anything happens of major concern to the San Diego area; the air-staff reports the information promptly.

Traffic Reports:

This item is addressed at least four times per hour during morning and afternoon drive with regularly scheduled traffic reports. Traffic reports are also provided on an as needed basis 24 hours a day by KYXY HD-2 on-air staff when major traffic, congestion and road closures occur along with alternative routes. Station traffic reports and newscasts also advise San Diegans of traffic related projects from freeway and road construction.

Ascertainments

Ascertainments to determine the top issues and problems facing the San Diego community are done on a constant ongoing basis by: e-mail, U.S. mail, and phone conversations. In addition, each guest making an appearance on “Concerning San Diego” is asked for their response. Findings from these interviews, e-mails, letters and phone conversations are collated to determine the top six issues to be addressed on a frequent basis through our public affairs program and in regularly scheduled newscasts.

Station management personnel are also in frequent contact with community leaders and are informed about significant problem areas.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” JULY 13, 2014

Guest: David Code, Author and Marriage and Family Counselor.

Stressed-out parents can be hazardous to their children’s health, but David Code’s book, “Kids Pick Up on Everything” offers a surprising solution: to raise healthy kids, a friend, and a Spanish plaza to go socialize in every evening! Being stressed out is The New Normal for parents, and the surprising cause of our increased stress is social isolation—NOT our jobs, or technology. Code argues that humans are social animals, with a primal need to bond and to belong. Socializing reduces stress, so the best gift you can give your children is to build community. 20 minutes is spent talking with Mr. Code.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” JULY 27, 2014

Guest: Cathy Dunn, Regional Manager, Partnership for a Drug-Free America.

Drugs and alcohol in combination with peer pressure continues to be a lethal problem for our youth. Here Ms. Dunn explains how parents can learn to prevent their children from using drugs and alcohol, how prevent children from sub coming to peer pressure and how to overcome communication barriers that exist between parents and their children. 40 minutes of our 60 minute program of our program is dedicated to this topic.

Program: “Concerning San Diego” AUGUST 3, 2014
