

October

Issue: Tree planting. Outdoor Minute. Lonnie Mesbarger of the MO Dept of Conservation talked about collecting tree seeds and selling it to the conservation department. October 1-7. 2:00. Multiple times during the week.

Issue: Abortion. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas says advocates of legal abortion have attempted to give their ailing cause a shot in the arm. Pro-choicers now deny that unborn lives matter. October 6, 2014. 4:00. 6:40 am.

Issue: Computer Addiction. Focus on the Family Minute. When managed wisely, technology provides many benefits, but Dr. Gary Chapman also talked about the dangers of overuse. October 15, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Motherhood. Focus on the Family Minute. When your child is hurting or struggling, Kathi Lipp reminded parents that the first and best parenting resource is prayer. October 28, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

November

Issue: Government. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet pointed out that politics do matter, and now that the Republicans have taken the Senate, he wonders what's next politically. November 6, 2014. 4:00. 6:40 am.

Issue: Hunter Safety. Outdoor Minute. Agent Dave Carlisle gave listeners safety reminders for hunters, and talked about tagging animals and the tele check system. November 6-13. 2:00. Multiple times during the week.

Issue: Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. Focus on the Family Minute. Some of the signs for those in the armed forces are a short temper, recurring nightmares, and heightened sensitivities. November 10, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

December

Issue: Special Needs Children. Focus on the Family Minute. The guests discussed overcoming the obstacles of cerebral palsy. They talked about how God brought them through it. December 4, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Crime. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas asks if Christians should endorse, tolerate or participate in the use of torture. He talks about practices that trade human dignity for a sense of added safety. December 15, 2014. 4:00. 6:40 am.

Issue: Marriage. Focus on the Family Minute. Dr. Gary Chapman shared how you can create a climate of love by accepting the things you cannot change. December 29, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Marriage. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet talked about so-called gay marriage and how it has swept aside obstacles and created a very different cultural landscape, a "seismic shift." December 30, 2014. 4:00. 6:40 am.