

January

Issue: Conservation, Tree Pruning. Outdoor Minute. Lonnie Mesbarger with the MO Dept of Conservation talked about the best time of year to prune trees. January, 2014. 2:00. Various times during the month.

Issue: Social Justice. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas talked about the attempt to “play God,” and how it sometimes goes to absurd lengths, but many have a hard time resisting the temptation. January 8, 2014. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Finances. Focus on the Family Minute. Money expert Mary Hunt shared stories and mishaps from teaching her kids to be financially responsible. January 16, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Abortion. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet says state restrictions on abortion are multiplying and the number of abortion clinics is declining. January 21, 2014. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Orphans. Focus on the Family Minute. Paul McCusker discussed the impact Charles Dickens’ tale “Oliver Twist” has had during an age when orphans are largely disregarded. January 25, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

February

Issue: Child Rearing. Focus on the Family Minute. Pastor Ted Cunningham urged parents to escape the traps of perfectionism, comparison and achievement in our children. February 12, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Marriage. Focus on the Family Minute. Renowned motivational speaker Zig Ziglar offered points on how to have a successful and lasting marriage, by emphasizing commitment, forgiveness and more. Feb 14, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times.

Issue: Adoption. Focus on the Family Minute. Author and speaker Ann Kiemel shared her story of finding joy in adoption after experiencing the grief of infertility. February 20, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

March

Issue: Conservation, Fish Kills. Outdoor Minute. Adam Arnold of the MO Dept of Conservation talked about fish kills, and how they happened. March 2014. 2:00. Various times during the month.

Issue: Gender Roles. Focus on the Family Minute. Author Nancy Leigh DeMoss addressed the redefining roles and the feminist mentality in today’s culture. March 5, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Teenagers. Focus on the Family Minute. Author Jill Savage had advice for parents on ways to connect with and mentor their teenagers as they transition to adulthood. March 20, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.