

October

Issue: Parenting. Focus on the Family Minute. Dr. Kevin Leman offered hope and encouragement to parents enduring the middle school years. October 6, 2015. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Abortion. Breakpoint. The pro-life movement is making enormous gains and preparing the cultural ground for lasting political change. But we're not there yet. October 12, 2015. 4:00. 6:40 am.

Issue: Domestic Violence. Focus on the Family Minute. A woman talked about how her new husband transformed into a "monster", and how she finally found a way to end the abuse. October 19, 2015. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Marijuana. Breakpoint. Advocates are winning the cultural battle, but the new narrative neglects to mention the consequences of embracing marijuana. October 26, 2015. 4:00. 6:40 am.

November

Issue: Homosexuality. Breakpoint. There are sweeping legal and policy changes pertaining to gender and sexual orientation, but many are laws without meaning. November 2, 2015. 4:00. 6:40 am.

Issue: Adoption. Focus on the Family Minute. A married couple shared how other people can support and encourage those who have adopted children. November 9, 2015. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Poverty. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet commented that to really help the poor, we must not only change their mindset and worldview, but ours as well. November 25, 2015. 4:00. 6:40 am.

Issue: Elderly. Focus on the Family Minute. A conversation about offering hope to the growing population of senior citizens living in residential homes. November 25, 2015. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

December

Issue: Education. Breakpoint. With a great deal of turmoil on campuses, there is a deeper problem. Our universities have lost a vision for education. Politically –correct Ideology is creating a lack of higher purpose. Dec 9, 2015. 4:00. 6:40 am.

Issue: Terminal Illness. Focus on the Family Minute. A woman shared candidly about her journey, and finding strength for the terminal battle after her husband's ALS diagnosis. December 10, 2015. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.