

April

Issue: Wildlife. Outdoor Minute. Missouri Dept of Conservation Agent Tyson Hartsworn talked about encountering wildlife in the springtime and not to approach them. April, 2014. 2:00. Multiple times during the month.

Issue: Homosexuality. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas talked about a high-tech CEO who was forced to resign because he supported traditional marriage, and there was a backlash. April 11, 2014. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Child rearing. Focus on the Family Minute. Dr. Jim Burns advised parents on balancing their teenager's natural desire for freedom with realistic discipline, knowing when to say "no," etc. April 7, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

May

Issue: Tree warning. Outdoor Minute. Lonnie Mesbarger with the MO Dept of Conservation warned about EAB which is an insect that kills only ash trees. May 2014. 2:00. Multiple times during the month.

Issue: Racial Issues. Breakpoint. The events of recent weeks proves that America still has a race problem and a hypocrisy problem too. May 2, 2014. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Abortion. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet talked about the stigma of abortion, even by those who support it, and about one woman's recent experience. May 14, 2014. 4:00. 6:35 am.

June

Issue: Deer Management. Outdoor Minute. Michelle Holland with the MO Dept of Conservation talked about an upcoming open house about deer management and hunter regulations. June, 2014. 2:00. Multiple times during the month.

Issue: Bio-technology. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet says we may be on the verge of the cusp of a dehumanizing revolution in which children become products and women units of production. June 9, 2014. 6:35 am. 4:00.

Issue: Education. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas says involvement in schools doesn't have to end with service projects. You can influence what students are taught. June 23, 2014. 4:00. Multiple times during the day.

Issue: Sexual Abuse. Focus on the Family Minute. Marilyn Williams shared her testimony of overcoming sexual abuse and how she dealt with multiple personality disorder. June 27, 2014. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.