

July

Issue: Sexuality. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas talked about a new ministry, "The Brushfires Foundation," whose mission is to help people discover and live out God's design for sexuality and relationships. July 31, 2013. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Illegal dumping. Outdoor Minute. Conservation Agent Sean Clary commented about how many people like to clean out their houses this time of year but choose to dump things illegally. July 2013. 2:00. Multiple times during the month.

Issue: Addiction. Focus on the Family Minute. An internet connection can become an internet obsession and technology is quickly becoming a compulsion that needs to be dealt with. July 20, 2013. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.

August

Issue: Divorce. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas commented that our lack of attention to the subject of divorces is a scandal, because the impact it is having on families and children is monumental. August 6, 2013. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Christian Living. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet commented on how the Presbyterian Church recently dropped the hymn "In Christ Alone" from its hymnal because the authors refused to omit a reference to Jesus satisfying the wrath of God. August 8, 2013. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Faith. Breakpoint. John Stonestreet talked about, how in this day and age, the fascination of our day is to ask questions but to not necessarily seek answers and how it is affecting our culture. August 16, 2013. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Insect control. Outdoor Minute. Conservation agent Tyler Green talked about how bats are in the area and how people should deal with them and shouldn't be afraid of them. 2:00. August 2013. Multiple times during the month.

September

Issue: Crime and Justice. Breakpoint. Eric Metaxas commented about "eviscerating" religious freedom and how Elane Huguenin, a photographer from Albuquerque refused to shoot a same-sex marriage ceremony. Sept 20, 2013. 4:00. 6:35 am.

Issue: Education. Focus on the Family Minute. The program gave ideas about ways to improve your child's grades in school, how to deal with homework, and communicating with teachers. September 9, 2013. 1:00. Multiple times during the day.