

KHOE Quarterly Report Issues/Programs List Q2 2023 [Apr-Jun]

LOCAL POLITICS connects listeners with Fairfield's City Council sessions meetings, and other specials, like the Carnegie Museum segments on the Heritage Farm families, highlighting those who have owned family farms for more than 150 years in the area, plus targeted informational city interest segments, like the state of the housing market and requirements for home refurbishings, keeping listeners up to date on city business and issues. (4x weekly)

We've continued to air a locally-produced segment called HOMETOWN HIGHLIGHTS & BEYOND, featuring stories of local interest by writers from the Iowa Source, a statewide free monthly based in Fairfield now in its 36th year of publication, suggesting things to do, places to see, and highlighting area businesses. Station manager James Moore wrote a piece about the history of the station and its spring fund drive that aired a score of times. (3x weekly)

Educational 2-min segments air weekdays (5X each):

~The Science and the Sea, highlights marine science topics, produced by The University of Texas at Austin

~Sound Beat, produced at Syracuse University Libraries, provides special music segments, film scores and recorded tidbits from across the American musical spectrum, as well as speeches and spoken word performances from political figures and historical luminaries.

~EarthDate, produced by the Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas at Austin, presents natural wonders of earth from the perspective of geoscience

GLOBAL FAMILY CHAT offers scientific and philosophical insight on an array of topics and educational disciplines, plus positive news from around the world, helpful health protocols, and timely developments at Maharishi International University and within the worldwide Transcendental Meditation movement. (twice daily)

Cultural content includes:

~CLASSICS & BEYOND, produced by Quality Radio Productions in Geneva, New York, a curated blend of classical music with styles spanning the classical gamut. (Weekdays)

~SPIRITUAL, ANCIENT & CLASSICAL MUSIC, overnight and early morning, with a special emphasis on classical music forms from the Vedic Tradition, also known as gandharva veda music as well as classical music from many traditions, countries and composers. (Overnight and 9pm-10pm daily)

~FOOTLIGHT PARADE, produced by the Musical Theater Project, a deep dive into the world of musical theater. Fairfield is home to the Stephen Sondheim Center, the only theater in the country outside New York that bears Sondheim's name. (3X weekly)

TM TALKS presents inspired topics in the field of personal growth, discussing related issues with scientists, artists, educators, authors, and successful people in the fields of education, health, business, and more. We continue to feature Dr Tony Nader with his enlightening interviews on consciousness, mind, and underlying unified principles. (3X weekly)

Two local programs of note are:

~WRITERS' VOICES with hosts Monica Hadley and her mother Caroline Kilbourn. All things related to art and craft of writing with author interviews discussing their latest work, creative processes, and trajectories navigating the business of publishing in today's marketplace. (3X weekly)

~LET YOUR HEART SING with host Sheila Moschen, showcasing local artists, music, poets and more in an uplifting mix of seasonal uplift & merriment. (4X weekly)
