

KHOE Quarterly Report Issues/Programs List Q3 2022 [Aug-Sept]

KHOE highlights community issues by sharing regular segments of LOCAL POLITICS, including Fairfield's City Council sessions and Jefferson County supervisors meetings, as well as any special segments, like this quarter's focus on the ins and outs of the city waterworks, hosted by the mayor. (4x weekly)

GLOBAL FAMILY CHAT continues to deliver helpful health protocols, scientific insight on an array of topics and educational disciplines, as well as positive news from around the world, and timely developments at Maharishi International University. (2X daily)

TM TALKS, hosted by Mario Orsati, presents ways and means to enhance personal growth with interviews of scientists, artists, educators, authors, artisans and thought leaders in the fields of education, health, business, and much more. (3X weekly)

In honor of the station's proud slogan 'the world is our family', KHOE offers the healing and harmony-enhancing sounds of spiritual and religious music on a daily basis. In addition, world, cultural and ethnic music serves our diversified blend of students from abroad and fulfills a unique niche for our local community.

Mission: Employable is a podcast focusing on work-related topics in Iowa, produced by the Iowa Workforce Development Communications Bureau. It offers practical suggestions and pathways for those seeking employment. The series gives Iowans a chance to connect with a number of programs and services highlighted by the agency and partner organizations. (3X weekly)

Three informative 2-min segments air weekdays (5X weekly each):

~EarthDate, a production of the Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas at Austin, presents the inspiring natural wonders of earth from the perspective of geoscience

~The Science and the Sea, focuses on marine science topics, also produced by The University of Texas at Austin

~Sound Beat, provides special music performances, film scores and more from American musical forms like jazz, bebop, country, and bluegrass, as well as speeches and spoken word performances from political figures and historical luminaries. It's produced at Syracuse University Libraries.

Culturally speaking,

~FOOTLIGHT PARADE is an upbeat toe-tapping trip down Broadway lane, produced by the Musical Theater Project. Picking up the show was inspired by a series on Stephen Sondheim, as Fairfield is proud home to the Stephen Sondheim Center. (3X weekly)

~CLASSICS & BEYOND, produced by Quality Radio Productions (QRP) in Geneva, New York, is a curated blend of classical music styles ranging from Early Music straight up to contemporary Avant Garde and Experimental compositions. (5X weekly)

~WRITERS' VOICES with longtime hosts Monica Hadley and her mother Caroline Kilbourn shines the light on authors—their latest work, creative processes, and trajectories navigating the business of publishing in today's marketplace. Wonderful topics of general interest, plus great inspiration for aspiring writers. (3X weekly)

~LET YOUR HEART SING with perennial favorite Sheila Moschen. Showcasing seasonal cheer and holiday glee with a focus on local artists and poets as well as her own mix of musical magic. (4X weekly)
