

KHOE Quarterly Report Issues/Programs List Q4 2022 [Oct-Dec]

KHOE added a new segment called HOMETOWN HIGHLIGHTS & BEYOND, featuring stories of local interest by writers from the Iowa Source, a statewide free monthly based in Fairfield in its 36th year of publication, suggesting things to do, places to see and the like. (5x weekly)

LOCAL POLITICS includes regular updates from Fairfield's City Council sessions and Jefferson County supervisors meetings, as well as other special segments, like the Carnegie Museum segments on the Heritage Farm families, highlighting those who have owned family farms for more than 150 years in our area. Produced by the Fairfield Media Center, these broadcasts keep listeners up to date on city business. (4x weekly)

MISSION: EMPLOYABLE highlights work-related topics in Iowa, offering practical suggestions and pathways for those seeking employment. Produced by the Iowa Workforce Development Communications Bureau, the series provides opportunities for people to learn about programs and services presented by the agency and partner organizations. (3X weekly)

We continue our three informative 2-min segments which air weekdays (5X weekly each):

~Sound Beat, provides special music segments, film scores and more from across the American musical spectrum, as well as speeches and spoken word performances from political figures and historical luminaries. It's produced at Syracuse University Libraries.

~EarthDate, a production of the Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas at Austin, presents the inspiring natural wonders of earth from the perspective of geoscience

~The Science and the Sea, focuses on marine science topics, also produced by The University of Texas at Austin

GLOBAL FAMILY CHAT delivers scientific insight on an array of topics and educational disciplines, as well as positive news from around the world, helpful health protocols, and timely developments at Maharishi International University and the worldwide Transcendental Meditation movement. (2X daily)

TM TALKS, hosted by Mario Orsati, presents a wide range of inspired topics in the field of personal growth, discussing related issues with scientists, artists, educators, authors, artisans and thought leaders in the fields of education, health, business, and more. (3X weekly)

Cultural education content is provided by the following offerings:

~FOOTLIGHT PARADE is a trip down Broadway lane, produced by the Musical Theater Project. Inspired by a series on Stephen Sondheim, the program is a deep dive into the world of musical theater. Fairfield is the proud home of the Stephen Sondheim Center, the only theater in the country outside New York that bears his name. (3X weekly)

~CLASSICS & BEYOND, produced by Quality Radio Productions (QRP) in Geneva, New York, is a curated blend of classical music styles ranging from Early Music straight up to contemporary Avant Garde and Experimental compositions. (5X weekly)

~SPIRITUAL, ANCIENT & CLASSICAL MUSIC, overnight and early morning, a deep dive into traditional music forms from the Vedic Tradition, and classical music from many traditions, countries and composers. (Daily)

Two longtime local programs deliver the creative goods:

~WRITERS' VOICES shines the light on authors—their latest work, creative processes, and trajectories navigating the business of publishing in today's marketplace. Topics across the spectrum, as well as insight and inspiration for aspiring writers. With hosts Monica Hadley and her mother Caroline Kilbourn (3X weekly)

~LET YOUR HEART SING showcases local artists, poets and host Sheila Moschen's own magical mix of seasonal music & merriment. (4X weekly)
