

WACY-TV
Children's Commercial Programming Restrictions

During 2nd Quarter 2018, certain children's programs were broadcast on WACY-TV between the dates of 04/01/18 – 6/30/18 subject to commercial restrictions due to the Children's Act of 1990.

Any programs which aired with commercial restrictions are those specifically produced for viewing by children 12 years of age and under, as attested to by the respective program suppliers.

Any such programs are noted below by an asterisk (*), and accordingly these programs include no more than 12 minutes of commercial material per hour if aired on weekdays, and no more than 10.5 minutes per hour if aired on weekends.

Any exceptions are noted at the end of the following list of "Core Programming," (3 hours aired weekly), or with supporting documentation.
